Tambling, 1995-09-26 In a radical reassessment of one of the greatest writers of all time Dickens Violence and the Modern State draws on the theories of Foucault Deleuze and Guattari in addition to Julia Kristeva and Edward Said to situate Dickens within the discourses circulating within his society in particular those associated with modernity Focussing on Dickens's novels written after 1848 his relationship to modernity can be seen in his treatment of violence seen in two forms in his writing that of the state in the rationalising powers of Victorian bourgeois modernisation and physical violence as portrayed in Dickens s criminals and interest in masochism and corpses P.J. & A.E.
