Post-Romantic Aesthetics in Contemporary British and Irish Poetry Stefanie John, 2021-06-23 This book demonstrates the legacies of Romanticism which animate the poetry and poetics of Eavan Boland Gillian Clarke John Burnside and Kathleen Jamie It argues that the English Romantic tradition serves as a source of inspiration and critical contention for these Irish Welsh and Scottish poets and it relates this engagement to wider concerns with gender nation and nature which have shaped contemporary poetry in Britain and Ireland Covering a substantial number of works from the 1980s to the 2010s the book discusses how Boland and Clarke as women poets from the Republic of Ireland and Wales react to a male dominated and Anglocentric lyric tradition and thus rework notions of the Romantic It examines how Burnside and Jamie challenge adopt and revise Romantic aesthetics of nature and environment The book is the first in depth study to read Boland Clarke Burnside and Jamie as post Romantics By disentangling the aesthetic and critical conceptions of Romanticism which inform their inheritance it develops an innovative approach to the understanding of contemporary poetry and literary influence Contemporary Scottish Poetry and the Natural World Monika Szuba, 2019-06-24 With an exciting and provocative approach to the reading of landscape and the non human world in the work of four major Scottish poets this groundbreaking book merges phenomenology and ecocritical literary criticism New Forms of Environmental Writing Timothy C. Baker, 2022-05-19 Surveying a wide range of contemporary poetry fiction and memoir by women writers this book explores our most pressing environmental concerns and shows how these texts find innovative new ways to respond to our environmental crisis Arguing for the centrality of individual encounter and fragmentary form in 21st century literature as well as themes of attention care and loss Baker highlights the ways that fragmentary texts can be seen as a mode of resistance These texts provide new ways to consider the role of individual agency and enmeshment in a more than human world The author proposes a new model of gleaning to encompass ideas of collection assemblage and relinquishment and draws on theoretical perspectives such as ecofeminism new materialism and posthumanism Examining works by writers including Sara Baume Ali Smith Elizabeth Jane Burnett Bhanu Kapil and Kathleen Jamie Baker provides important new insights into understanding our planetary predicament      The Cambridge Introduction to British Poetry, 1945-2010 Eric Falci, 2015-11-12 The Cambridge Introduction to British Poetry 1945 2010 provides a broad overview of an important body of poetry from England Scotland Wales and Northern Ireland from the postwar period through to the twenty first century It offers a comprehensive view of the historical context surrounding the poetry and provides in depth readings of many of the period s central poets British poetry after 1945 has been given much less attention than both earlier British and American poetry as well as postwar American poetry There are very few single author studies that present the entirety of the period s poetry This book is unique for the comprehensive richness with which it presents the historical and literary historical scene as well as for its close up focus on a wide range of major poets and poems      Pocket Maps and Public Poetry in the English Renaissance Katarzyna Lecky, 2019-04-17 Katarzyna Lecky explores how early modern British poets paid by the state adapted inclusive modes of nationhood charted by inexpensive small format maps She explores chapbooks cheapbooks by Edmund Spenser Samuel Daniel Ben Jonson William Davenant and John Milton alongside the portable cartography circulating in the same retail print industry Domestic pocket maps were designed for heavy use by a broad readership that included those on the fringes of literacy The era s de facto laureates all banked their success as writers appealing to this burgeoning market share by drawing the nation as the property of the commonwealth rather than the Crown This book investigates the accessible world of small format cartography as it emerges in the texts of the poets raised in the expansive public sphere in which pocket maps flourished It works at the intersections of space place and national identity to reveal the geographical imaginary shaping the flourishing business of cheap print Its placement of poetic economies within mainstream systems of trade also demonstrates how cartography and poetry worked together to mobilize average consumers as political agents This everyday form of geographic poesis was also a strong platform for poets writing for monarchs and magistrates when their visions of the nation ran counter to the interests of the government      John Ashbery and English Poetry Ben Hickman, 2012-03-07 A study of how we should read one of America s most important poets Ben Hickman argues that we must attend to Ashbery s radical conception of reading if we are to understand the originality of his writing His study focuses on Ashbery s reading of English poets including Andrew Marvell John Donne William Wordsworth John Clare T S Eliot and W H Auden and examines Ashbery s writing in terms of an aesthetic of inattention Hickman critiques the Americanisation of Ashbery s work as well as common assumptions about his Romanticism his avant garde Modernism and his engagement with the historical present He demonstrates that Ashbery s generosity as a writer is closely tied to his generosity inattention and situatedness as a reader      Dwellings of Enchantment Bénédicte Meillon, 2020-10-27 Dwellings of Enchantment Writing and Reenchanting the Earth offers ecocritical and ecopoetic readings that focus on multispecies dwellings of enchantment and reenchant our rapport with the more than human world It sheds light on the marvelous entanglements between humans and other life forms coexisting with us entanglements that when fully perceived call onto humans to shift perspectives on both the causes and solutions to current ecological crises Working against the disenchantment of humans relationships with and perceptions of the world entailed by a modern ontology this book illustrates the power of ecopoetics to attune humans to the vibrant matter both within and outside of us Braiding indigenous with non indigenous worldviews this book tackles ecopoetics emerging from varying locations in the world It underscores the postmodernist remythologizing processes going on in many ecopoetic texts via magical realist modes and mythopoeia Breath Lines Jan Schreiber, 2025-05-20 Breath Lines takes a fresh and down to earth approach to encounters with poetry In these accessible non technical essays Jan Schreiber offers insightful strategies for reading and understanding works that many people have found challenging The essays address critical areas of poetic craft and interpretation the content of poems including narrative techniques and the voices a poet creates the character and power of verse lines and the problems attending the translation of metrical poems challenges of interpretation including complex philosophies and obscure references and a look at the future of the art hinted by the competing styles and allegiances of contemporary writers Each essay offers pertinent verse examples to illustrate metrical rhetorical and stylistic issues Schreiber s commentaries explain how a reader s careful attention can be rewarded with a deeper understanding of the multiple meanings embedded in apparently simple poems and how readers can thereby experience an emotional impact not always perceived on a first reading Designed for writers students and passionate readers Breath Lines How Poems Work and Why They Matter offers guidance into some of the art form s more arcane mysteries written by a distinguished poet and critic The Oxford Companion to Modern Poetry in English Jeremy Noel-Tod, Ian Hamilton, 2013-05-23 This impressive volume provides over 1 700 biographical entries on poets writing in English from 1910 to the present day including T S Eliot Dylan Thomas and Carol Ann Duffy Authoritative and accessible it is a must have for students of English and creative writing as well as for anyone with an interest in poetry The Sonnet Stephen Regan, 2019 Provides a comprehensive study of one of the oldest and most popular forms of poetry combining a broad historical overview of the sonnet with detailed critical analysis to show how the form of poetry has achieved its special status and popularity among poets in Britain Ireland and America Labors of Innocence in Early Modern England Joanna Picciotto, 2010-06-15 Joanna Picciotto s Labors of Innocence in Early Modern England is a splendid study of the origins development and eventual decline of the Experimentalist tradition in seventeenth and early eighteenth century English letters In tracing out the arc of this intellectual and professional trajectory Picciotto engages productively with the crucial religious socio economic philosophical and literary movements associated with the ongoing labors of the innocent eye Eileen Reeves Princeton University My Family-Poems & Poetry from the Heart-The Way We Were Anna Huffman, 2007-08-01 Writings by a Western North Carolina family showing their inner feelings and thoughts about life in general The Poetics of Space and Place in Scottish Literature Monika Szuba, Julian Wolfreys, 2019-04-01 This book addresses the poetics of space
