The Restoration of Paintings in Paris, 1750-1815

No  mie   tienne, 2017-02-21 The decades following the 1973 publication of Alessandro Conti's Storia del Restauro have seen considerable scholarly interest in the development of restoration in France in the second half of the eighteenth century A number of technical treatises and biographies of restorers have offered insight into restoration practice The Restoration of Paintings in Paris 1750 1815 however is the first book to situate this work within the broader historical and philosophical contexts of the time Drawing on previously unpublished primary material from archives in Paris Berlin Rome and Venice No mie tienne combines art history with anthropology and sociology to survey the waning decades of the Ancien R gime and early post Revolution France Initial chapters present the diversity of restoration practice encompassing not only royal institutions and the Louvre museum but also private art dealers artists and craftsmen and examine questions of trade secrecy and the changing role of the restorer Following chapters address the influence of restoration and exhibition on the aesthetic understanding of paintings as material objects The book closes with a discussion of the institutional and political uses of restoration along with an art historical consideration of such key concepts as authenticity originality and stability of artworks emphasizing the multilayered dimension of paintings by such important artists as Titian and Raphael There is also a useful dictionary of the main restorers active in France between 1750 and 1815

The Publishers' Circular and General Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1859 Publishers' circular and booksellers' record ,1860 Publishers' Circular ,1860 The Publishers' Circular ,1859 The Painter's Touch Ewa Lajer-Burcharth,2018-01-08 A new interpretation of the development of artistic modernity in eighteenth century France What can be gained from considering a painting not only as an image but also a material object How does the painter s own experience of the process of making matter for our understanding of both the painting and its maker The Painter s Touch addresses these questions to offer a radical reinterpretation of three paradigmatic French painters of the eighteenth century In this beautifully illustrated book Ewa Lajer Burcharth provides close readings of the works of Fran ois Boucher Jean Sim on Chardin and Jean Honor Fragonard entirely recasting our understanding of these painters practice Using the notion of touch she examines the implications of their strategic investment in materiality and sheds light on the distinct contribution of painting to the culture of the Enlightenment Lajer Burcharth traces how the distinct logic of these painters work the operation of surface in Boucher the deep materiality of Chardin and the dynamic morphological structure in Fragonard contributed to the formation of artistic identity Through the notion of touch she repositions these painters in the artistic culture of their time shifting attention from institutions such as the academy and the Salon to the realms of the market the medium and the body Lajer Burcharth analyzes Boucher s commercial tact Chardin s interiorized craft and Fragonard s materialization of eros Foregrounding the question of experience that of the painters and of the people they represent she shows how painting as a medium contributed to the Enlightenment s discourse on the self in both its individual and social functions By examining what paintings actually say in brushstrokes texture and paint The Painter s Touch transforms our understanding of the role of painting in the emergence of modernity and provides new readings of some of the most important and beloved works of art of the era
