manage a weather station through twelve continuous months Watkins was younger than anyone under his command But he had several daring trips to the Arctic under his belt and no one doubted his judgement The first crisis came in the fall when a snowstorm stranded a resupply mission halfway to the top for many weeks When they arrived at the ice cap there were not enough provisions and fuel for another two man shift so the station would have to be abandoned Then team member August Courtauld made an astonishing offer To enable the mission to go forward he would monitor the station solo through the winter When a team went up in March to relieve Courtauld after weeks of brutal effort to make the 130 mile journey they could find no trace of him or the station By the end of March Courtauld s situation was desperate He was buried under an immovable load of frozen snow and was disastrously short on supplies On April 21 four months after Courtauld began his solitary vigil Gino Watkins set out inland with two companions to find and rescue him David Roberts veteran mountain climber and chronicler of adventures Washington Post draws on firsthand accounts and archival materials to tell the story of this daring expedition and of the epic survival ordeal that ensued

The Measure of a Mountain Bruce Barcott,2011-02-01 A provocative highly original profile of Mount Rainier capturing the majestic beauty and deadly allure of one of the largest active volcanoes in the U S Jon Krakauer author of Into Thin Air Mount Rainier is one of the largest and most dangerous volcanoes in the country both an awesome natural monument and a formidable presence of peril In The Measure of a Mountain Seattle writer Bruce Barcott sets out to grasp the spirit of Rainier through an exploratory meandering and deeply personal journey along its massive flanks From forest to precipice thinning air to fractured glaciers he explores not only the physique of Rainier but the psychology and meaning of all mountains and the deep connection that exists between humans and landscape What he finds is a complex of moss bearded hemlocks and old growth firs high meadows that blossom according to a precise natural timeclock sheets of crumbling pumice fractured glaciers and unsteady magma Rainier s snow fields bristle with bug life and its marmots chew rocks to keep their teeth from overgrowing The mountain rumbles with seismic twitches and jerks seeing one hundred thirty earthquakes annually Rainier is an obsession a temple that attracts its own passionate acolytes from scientists and priests to rangers and mountain guides as well as a monument to death Referred to by locals as simply the mountain it is the single largest feature of the Pacific Northwest landscape provided it isn't hidden in clouds Visible or not though Rainer's presence is undeniable Filled with adventure poignant personal reflections and fascinating mountain lore told by Indian chiefs professional guides priests and scientists The Measure of a Mountain is one man's stirring quest to reconcile with a dazzling creation of nature at once alluring and sometimes deadly High Crimes Michael Kodas,2008-02-05 High Crimes is journalist Michael Kodas's gripping account of life on top of the world where man is every bit as deadly as Mother Nature In the years following the publication of Into Thin Air much has changed on Mount Everest Among all the books documenting the glorious adventures in mountains around the world none details how the recent infusion of wealthy climbers is drawing crime to the highest place on the planet The change is caused both by a tremendous boom in traffic and a new class of parasitic and predatory adventurer It's likely that Jon Krakauer would not recognize the camps that he visited on Mount Everest almost a decade ago This book takes readers on a harrowing tour of the criminal underworld on the slopes of the world's most majestic mountain High Crimes describes two major expeditions the tragic story of Nils Antezana a climber who died on Everest after he was abandoned by his guide as well as the author's own story of his participation in the Connecticut Everest Expedition guided by George Dijmarescu and his wife and climbing partner Lhakpa Sherpa Dijmarescu who at first seemed well intentioned and charming turned increasingly hostile to his own wife as well as to the author and the other women on the team By the end of the expedition the three women could not travel unaccompanied in base camp due to the threat of violence Those that tried to stand against the violence and theft found that the worst of the intimidation had followed them home to Connecticut Beatings thefts drugs prostitution coercion threats and abandonment on the highest slopes of Everest and other mountains have become the rule rather than the exception Kodas describes many such experiences and explores the larger issues these stories raise with thriller like intensity Kiss Or Kill Mark Twight,2002-01-15 Kiss or Kill Confessions of a Serial Climber is raw unfiltered Twight who makes it clear that climbing is only distantly about the summit Whether railing against the spinelessness of siege style mountaineering admitting addiction to pushing the bounds of the possible or revelling in his ability to cut away anything in life that holds him back Twight never blinks Along the way there is the drama of new and epic routes unbreakable bonds between climbing partners and Twight's evolution as a climber and a man He tells every story in a unique in your face style Beyond Possible (Young Readers' Edition) Nims Purja,2022-01-04 Join Nepalese climber Nimsdai Purja as he recounts his journey to scale all 8 000 meter Death Zone mountains in seven months In this action packed memoir young readers will not only learn how Nimsdai physically accomplished this incredible feat but also how his attitude leadership skills and willingness to learn from mistakes took him to the top From his childhood growing up in Nepal to a career as an elite soldier in the British army Nimsdai shows how his early life shaped him and enabled him to go beyond what people thought was possible The Making of a Mountaineer George Ingle Finch,1927 The Mountain Encyclopedia Frederic Hartemann,Robert
