The Mystery Of Cloomber:

The Mystery of Cloomber Arthur Conan Doyle, 2014-01-01 Master of detective fiction Arthur Conan Doyle here reveals his deep fascination with spiritualism and the paranormal To his fellow residents on the remote western coast of Scotland Major Heatherstone s behavior seems far from orthodox Spurning all attempts at friendship he instead becomes a recluse in Cloomber Hall forbidding his children even to leave their home Yet unbeknownst to him they strike up a friendship with the neighboring Hunter Wests who slowly begin to learn the cause of the Major s paranoia and his fear of the fifth of October As September draws to a close and as they hear of the mysterious arrival of three Buddhist monks they can only watch in vain It seems the Major s secret will not be laid to rest until vengeance is done Scottish born writer and novelist Sir Arthur Conan Doyle is best known as the creator of Sherlock Holmes among his other works is The Tragedy of the Korosko The Mystery of Cloomber Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, 1909-01-01 I John Fothergill West student of law in the University of St Andrews have endeavoured in the ensuing pages to lay my statement before the public in a concise and business like fashion It is not my wish to achieve literary success nor have I any desire by the graces of my style or by the artistic ordering of my incidents to throw a deeper shadow over the strange passages of which I shall have to speak My highest ambition is that those who know something of the matter should after reading my account be able to conscientiously indorse it without finding a single paragraph in which I have either added to or detracted from the truth Should I attain this result I shall rest amply satisfied with the outcome of my first and probably my last venture in literature It was my intention to write out the sequence of events in due order depending on trustworthy hearsay when I was describing that which was beyond my own personal knowledge I have now however through the kind cooperation of friends hit upon a plan which promises to be less onerous to me and more satisfactory to the reader This is nothing less than to make use of the various manuscripts which I have by me bearing upon the subject and to add to them the first hand evidence contributed by those who had the best opportunities of knowing Major General J B Heatherstone In pursuance of this design I shall lay before the public the testimony of Israel Stakes formerly coachman at Cloomber Hall and of John Easterling F R C P Edin now practising at Stranraer in Wigtownshire To these I shall add a verbatim account extracted from the journal of the late John Berthier Heatherstone of the events which occurred in the Thul Valley in the autumn of 41 towards the end of the first Afghan War with a description of the skirmish in the Terada defile and of the death of the man Ghoolab Shah To myself I reserve the duty of filling up all the gaps and chinks which may be left in the narrative By this arrangement I have sunk from the position of an author to that of a compiler but on the other hand my work has ceased to be a story and has expanded into a series of affidavits My Father John Hunter West was a well known Oriental and Sanskrit scholar and his name is still of weight with those who are interested in such matters He it was who first after Sir William Jones called attention to the great value of early Persian literature and his translations from the Hafiz and from Ferideddin Atar have earned the warmest commendations from the Baron von Hammer Purgstall of

Vienna and other distinguished Continental critics In the issue of the Orientalisches Scienzblatt for January 1861 he is described as Der berühmte und sehr gelhernte Hunter West von Edinburgh a passage which I well remember that he cut out and stowed away with a pardonable vanity among the most revered family archives He had been brought up to be a solicitor or Writer to the Signet as it is termed in Scotland but his learned hobby absorbed so much of his time that he had little to devote to the pursuit of his profession When his clients were seeking him at his chambers in George Street he was buried in the recesses of the Advocates Library or poring over some mouldy manuscript at the Philosophical Institution with his brain more exercised over the code which Menu propounded six hundred years before the birth of Christ than over the knotty problems of Scottish law in the nineteenth century Hence it can hardly be wondered at that as his learning accumulated his practice dissolved until at the very moment when he had attained the zenith of his celebrity he had also reached the nadir of his fortunes
