The Natural and Political History of the Kingdom of Siam Nicolas Gervaise,1996      The Natural and Political History of the Kingdom of Siam A.D. 1688 Nicolas Gervaise,1928      The Natural and Political History of the Kingdom of Siam Nicolas Gervaise,1928      The Natural and Political History of the Kingdom of Siam A.D. 1688 Nicolas Gervaise (ca),1928      The Natural and Political History of the Kingdom of Siam, A.D. 1685 Nicolas Gervaise,1928      A Complete System of Modern Geography; or, the Natural and political history of the present state of the world. Illustrated with maps and engravings, etc Francis ENNIS,1816      Creolization and Diaspora in the Portuguese Indies Stefan Halikowski Smith,2011-09-23 This book examines the sizeable Portuguese community in Ayutthaya the chief river state in Siam during a period in which Portuguese power in the region declined The analysis turns on the creolization and diaspora that affected this community as well as problems with international trade the Christian conversion process and European rivalries      A History of Thailand Chris Baker,Pasuk Phongpaichit,2022-08-25 Since it was first published in 2005 A History of Thailand has been hailed as an authoritative lively and readable account of Thailand s political economic social and cultural history From the early settlements in the Chao Phraya basin to today Baker and Phongpaichit trace how a world of mandarin nobles and unfree peasants was transformed by colonialism the expansion of the rice frontier and the immigration of traders and labourers from southern China This book examines how the monarchy managed the foundation of a new nation state at the end of the nineteenth century and how urban nationalists ambitious generals communist rebels and business politicians competed to take control through the twentieth century It tracks Thailand s economic changes globalisation and the evolution of mass society and draws on popular culture to dramatize social trends This edition contains a new chapter on Thailand s turbulent politics since 2006 and incorporates new sources and research throughout      The Archaeology of Knowledge Traditions of the Indian Ocean World Himanshu Prabha Ray,2020-11-18 This book examines knowledge traditions that held together the fluid and overlapping maritime worlds of the Indian Ocean in the premodern period as evident in the material and archaeological record It breaks new ground by shifting the focus from studying cross pollination of ideas from textual sources to identifying this exchange of ideas in archaeological and historical documentation The themes covered in the book include conceptualization of the seas and maritime landscapes in Sanskrit Arabic and Chinese narratives materiality of knowledge production as indicated in the archaeological record of communities where writing on stone first appears and anchoring the coasts not only through an understanding of littoral shrines and ritual landscapes but also by an analysis of religious imagery on coins more so at the time of the introduction of new religions such as Islam in the Indian Ocean around the eighth century This volume will be of great interest to researchers and scholars of archaeology anthropology museum and heritage studies Indian Ocean studies maritime studies South and Southeast Asian studies religious studies and cultural studies      Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Thailand Pavin

Chachavalpongpun,2019-10-17 The Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Thailand is a timely survey and assessment of the state of contemporary Thailand While Thailand has changed much in the past decades this handbook proposes that many of its problems have remained intact or even persistent particularly problems related to domestic politics It underlines emerging issues at this critical juncture in the kingdom and focuses on the history politics economy society culture religion and international relations of the country A multidisciplinary approach with chapters written by experts on Thailand this handbook is divided into the following sections History Political and economic landscape Social development International relations Designed for academics students libraries policymakers and general readers in the field of Asian studies political science economics and sociology this invaluable reference work provides an up to date account of Thailand and initiates new discussion for future research activities Buddhist-Muslim Relations in a Theravada World Iselin Frydenlund,Michael Jerryson,2020-02-28 This book is the first to critically analyze Buddhist Muslim relations in Theravada Buddhist majority states in South and Southeast Asia Asia is home to the largest population of Buddhists and Muslims In recent years this interfaith communal living has incurred conflicts such as the ethnic religious conflicts in Myanmar Sri Lanka and Thailand Experts from around the world collaborate to provide a comprehensive look into religious pluralism and religious violence The book is divided into two sections The first section provides historical background to the three countries with the largest Buddhist Muslim relations The second section has chapters that focus on specific encounters between Buddhists and Muslims which includes anti Buddhist sentiments in Bangladesh the role of gender in Muslim Buddhist relations and the rise of anti Muslim and anti Rohingya sentiments in Myanmar By exploring historical fluctuations over time paying particular attention to how state formations condition Muslim Buddhist entanglements the book shows the processual and relational aspects of religious identity constructions and Buddhist Muslim interactions in Theravada Buddhist majority states Dutch East India Company Merchants at the Court of Ayutthaya Bhawan Ruangsilp,2007-05-31 No European country enjoyed such long standing relations with the Thai Kingdom of Ayutthaya as the Netherlands This study focuses on the perceptions of the merchants of the Dutch East India Company VOC of the Thai royal court in the seventeenth and eighteenth century Basing herself on a wealth of Dutch primary sources the author shows how trade politics and diplomacy shaped a unique relationship based on partnership and a sense of differences The book contributes to expanding the study of the history of Ayutthaya known for its scarcity of sources with the help of contemporary Dutch views Buddhism, Education and Politics in Burma and Thailand Khammai Dhammasami,2018-01-11 Drawing on primary sources in Pali Burmese and Thai practising monk Venerable Khammai Dhammasami guides the reader through the complex history of monastic education in two neighbouring countries with very different Buddhist societies Burma and Thailand This book provides a clear account of the ways in which royal leaders and monastic institutions worked to develop monastic education in the face of changing political and economic conditions including colonialism and the political instability of the 19th and 20th centuries It studies influences from both British colonists and Siamese Thai reformers and engages with primary material including documents from Burmese monasteries royal orders royal chronicles and official government records As the first book to examine monastic education in Burma and Thailand this is a welcome contribution to the social monastic and religious history of Southeast Asia and the growing field of Burmese Buddhist Studies      Southeast Asia in the Early Modern Era Anthony Reid, 1993 Introduction A time and a place Anthony Reid Cultural state formation in eastern Indonesia Leonard Y Andaya Nguyen Hoang and the beginning of Vietnam's southward expansion Keith W Taylor The Malay Sultanate of Melaka Luis Filipe Ferreira Reis Thomaz Cash cropping and upstream downstream tensions the case of Jambi in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Barbara Watson Andaya Restraints on the development of merchant capitalism in Southeast Asia before c 1800 Jeyamalar Kathirithamby Wells Islamization and Christianization in Southeast Asia the critical phase 1550 1650 Anthony Reid Religious patterns and economic change in Siam in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries Yoneo Ishii The vanishing jong insular Southeast Asian fleets in trade and war fifteenth to seventeenth centuries Pierre Yves Manguin Was the seventeenth century a watershed in Burmese history Victor Lieberman Ayutthaya at the end of the seventeenth century was there a shift to isolation Dhiravat na Pombejra      Strenuous Decades Chi-cheung Choi, Tomoko Shiroyama, Venus Viana, 2022-03-07 The movement of goods and passengers between port cities not only stimulates growth in coastal trading networks and centers but also inevitably changes the social and economic lives of people in these port cities and subsequently of their fellow compatriots farther inland Studies of port cities have focused on the interactive political and economic relationship between trading centers The center of attention in this book is socioeconomic life and cultural identity which are shaped by the movement of goods people knowledge and information particularly when the community faces a crisis Transnational studies focus on cross border connections between people institutions commodities and ideas with an emphasis on their global presence This book looks at the responses of different localities to the same global crisis It gathers a selection of the fifty papers presented at the conference on Coping with Transnational Crisis Chinese Economic and Social Lives in East Asian Port Cities 1850 1950 held in Hong Kong on June 7 11 2016 The period from the 1850s to the outbreak of war in the Pacific in the late 1930s encompasses two major transnational crises with significant impacts on the Chinese population in Southeast Asian port cities in terms of their way of living and the construction of their identity the emergence of bubonic plague in the 1880s and 1920s and the global economic crisis in the late 1920s and early 1930s The authors discuss the social and economic lives in various South East Asian port cities where many residents had to cope with these transnational crises They do so through examining institutional measurements rituals and festivals communication knowledge and information exchange as well as identity re construction In addition they explore how local communities responded to knowledge and information between the port cities and cities as well as inland locations The chapters in this book offer solid grounds for future comparisons not only based on a specific time or event but also on how society reacted over time space and various types of crises      Religious Influences in Thai Female Education (1889-1931) Runchana Pam Suksod-Barger, 2014-06-26 In this study Runchana Pam Suksod Barger examines the impact of religion on female access to education in Thailand from 1889 to 1931 the early Modernization Period in Thailand Although Thailand had traditionally been a Buddhist nation state Protestant missionaries during this era arrived in the country to convert Thais to Christianity The Protestant belief in literacy so that everyone could read the Bible opened up educational opportunities for Thai girls that were not previously available to them Suksod Barger investigates the degree to which Buddhist and Christian Protestant influences affected Thai educational reforms for girls in primary and secondary education during the early Modernization Period using a feminist theoretical framework to understand the social political economic and religious impact Examination of historical documents and empirical data are employed to compare the effect of two religions values on female education access The study contributes to the exploration of the historical and contextual discourse of Buddhism and women in Thailand the history of education for Thai females during the early Modernization Period and the overview of Protestant missions in the country particularly their influence in establishing systems of mass education      The Role of Religions in the European Perception of Insular and Mainland Southeast Asia Monika Arnez, Jürgen Sarnowsky, 2016-08-17 For people nowadays the constant exchange of people goods and ideas and their interaction across wide distances are a part of everyday life However such encounters and interregional links are by no means only a recent phenomenon although the forms they have taken in the course of history have varied It goes without saying that travel to distant regions was spurred by various interests first and foremost economic and imperialist policies which reached an initial climax around 1500 with the European expansion to the Americas and into the Indian Ocean The motivations of European travellers for venturing to the regions of maritime and mainland Southeast Asia which are the focus of the studies presented here were manifold ranging from the pursuit of power commercial exploitation intellectual curiosity and the aspiration to proselytize among indigenous people This book adds to existing knowledge on travel travel experiences and travel writing by Europeans in mainland and insular Southeast Asia from the 16th to the 21st century based on specific case studies Moreover it demonstrates how Europeans perceived religion in the region presently known as Southeast Asia Working on the assumption that many of the European traders seafarers explorers and administrators arriving in Southeast Asia came as Christians convinced of the superiority of their religion the contributors to this volume analyse their encounters with Muslims who had been their long standing enemies in the Mediterranean and with Hindus Buddhists and adherents of local religions They involve themselves closely with the travelogues and the role of religions therein and in doing so reveal the ways in which religion influenced the travellers understanding of societies in maritime and mainland Southeast Asia The volume explores a number of questions including How did European travellers perceive religion in different regions of Southeast Asia in different historical periods How did the administrators the missionaries the natural historians and the explorers position themselves vis vis Islam and

Buddhism on Java and in Siam And what do travel accounts tell us about the way Southeast Asian people perceived the Europeans     Reinterpreting Indian Ocean Worlds Stefan C. A. Halikowski Smith, 2011-05-25 The Indian Ocean World was an idea borne out by researchers in economic history and trade in the 1980s in response to the compartmentalization of specific area studies within the wider rubric of Asian civilisations and culture Professor Kirti N Chaudhuri's books Trading World of Asia and the English East India Company 1978 and then Trade and Civilization in the Indian Ocean 1985 figured amongst the forefront of this new movement in historical thinking undertaking detailed historical analysis first of the English East India Company and then a comparative cultural history of Asian material life and civilisation Today historians continue to hold on to the idea of an Indian Ocean world although studies now follow a number of different threads from themes like linguistics and creolization to the seeds of national consciousness By presenting a number of studies here gathered into the themes of Intermixing The World of Trade and Colonial Paths it is hoped we can render tribute to one of the outstanding historians in this field and reflect the plenitude of current research in this subject area     Ecological Policy and Politics in Developing Countries Uday Desai, 1998-04-16 Examines in depth the ecological problems policies and politics of ten major developing countries     Global Portuguese , 2025-05-22 Global Portuguese results from conferences convened at the University of London School of Advanced Study to highlight legacies of Portuguese empire in postcolonial societies Its chapters trace Portuguese legacies from the early modern to contemporary period through history anthropology language literature linguistics and cuisine There are sections devoted to sociolinguistic and anthropological method and studies on Thailand Sri Lanka Goa Macau Brazil Angola Indonesia S o Tom and Zambesia Contributors are Matthias R hrig Assun o Doroth e Boulanger Silvia Figueiredo Brand o David Brookshaw Paul Melo e Castro Augusto Soares da Silva Shihan de Silva Jayasuriya Stefan Halikowski Smith Annabel Jackson Ivana Stolze Lima Selina Patel Nascimento Malyn Newitt Gerhard Seibert Andrzej Stuart Thompson Raan Hann Tan and Silvia Rodrigues Vieira
