The Turks in the Early Islamic World C. Edmund Bosworth,2017-05-15 This volume brings together a set of key articles along with a new introduction to contextualize them on the role of Turkish peoples in the Western Asiatic world up to the 11th century Such topics as the geographical and environmental original milieux of these peoples in the forest zone and steppelands of Inner Asia the formation and breakup of tribal confederations within the steppes and the evolution of tribal structures are examined as the background for the appearance of Turks within the Islamic caliphate from the 9th century onwards These came first as military slaves then as movements of peoples such as the tribal migrations of the Oghuz leading to the establishment of the Seljuq sultanate whilst from within Islamic society individual Turkish commanders were able at the same time to build up their own military empires such as that of the Ghaznavids In this way was put in place a Turkish dominance of the northern tier of the Middle East with attendant changes in demography and land utilisation which was to last for centuries
