The New American Cinema:

The New American Cinema Jon Lewis, 1998 Deliberately eclectic and panoramic THE NEW AMERICAN CINEMA brings together thirteen leading film scholars who present a range of theoretical critical and historical perspectives on a rich and pivotal time in American cinema that from the mid 1960s to the present With its range of topics and breadth of critical approaches this anthology illuminates the volatile mix of industrial process and artistic inspiration that comprises American moviemaking 46 photos The Hollywood Renaissance Peter Krämer, Yannis Tzioumakis, 2018-06-28 In December 1967 Time magazine put Bonnie and Clyde on its cover and proudly declared that Hollywood cinema was undergoing a renaissance For the next few years a wide range of formally and thematically challenging films were produced at the very centre of the American film industry often but by no means always combining success at the box office with huge critical acclaim both then and later This collection brings together acknowledged experts on American cinema to examine thirteen key films from the years 1966 to 1974 starting with Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf a major studio release which was in effect exempted from Hollywood's Production Code and thus helped to liberate American filmmaking from self censorship Long standing taboos to do with sex violence race relations drugs politics religion and much else could now be broken often in conjunction with extensive stylistic experimentation Whereas most previous scholarship has examined these developments through the prism of auteurism with its tight focus on film directors and their oeuvres the contributors to this collection also carefully examine production histories and processes In doing so they pay particular attention to the economic underpinnings and collaborative nature of filmmaking the influence of European art cinema as well as of exploitation experimental and underground films and the connections between cinema and other media notably publishing music and theatre Several chapters show how the innovations of the Hollywood Renaissance relate to further changes in American cinema from the mid 1970s onwards

Movie Journal Jonas Mekas, 2016-04-19 In his Village Voice Movie Journal columns Jonas Mekas captured the makings of an exciting movement in 1960s American filmmaking Works by Andy Warhol Gregory J Markopoulos Stan Brakhage Jack Smith Robert Breer and others echoed experiments already underway elsewhere yet they belonged to a nascent tradition that only a true visionary could identify Mekas incorporated the most essential characteristics of these films into a unique conception of American filmmaking's next phase He simplified complex aesthetic strategies for unfamiliar audiences and appreciated the subversive genius of films that many dismissed as trash This new edition presents Mekas's original critiques in full with additional material on the filmmakers film studies scholars and popular and avant garde critics whom he inspired and transformed Contemporary American Cinema Linda Ruth Williams, Michael Hammond, 2006-05 One of the rare collections I would recommend for use in undergraduate teaching the chapters are lucid without being oversimplified and the contributors are adept at analyzing the key industrial technological and ideological features of contemporary U S cinema Diane Negra University of East Anglia UK Contemporary American Cinema offers a fresh and sometimes revisionist look at developments in the American film industry from the 1960s to the present Readers will find it lively and provocative

Chuck Maland University of Tennessee USA Contemporary American Cinema is the book on the subject that undergraduate classes have been waiting for Comprehensive detailed and intelligently organized and written in accessible and compelling prose Contemporary American Cinema will be embraced by instructors and students alike

Charlie Keil Director Cinema Studies Program University of Toronto Canada Contemporary American Cinema usefully gathers together a range of materials that provide a valuable resource for students and scholars It is also a pleasure to read

Hilary Radner University of Otago New Zealand Contemporary American Cinema deepens our knowledge of American cinema since the 1960s This is an important collection that will be widely used in university classrooms

Lee Grieveson University College London UK Contemporary American Cinema is a clear sighted and tremendously readable anthology mapping the terrain of post sixties US cinema with breadth and critical verve

Paul Grainge University of Nottingham UK This collection of freshly written essays by leading specialists in the field will most likely be one of the most important works of reference for students and film scholars for years to come

Liv Hausken University of Oslo Norway Contemporary American Cinema is the first comprehensive introduction to American cinema since 1960 The book is unique in its treatment of both Hollywood alternative and non mainstream cinema

Critical essays from leading film scholars are supplemented by boxed profiles of key directors producers and actors key films and key genres and statistics from the cinema industry Illustrated in colour and black and white with film stills posters and production images the book has two tables of contents allowing students to use the book chronologically decade by decade or thematically by subject

The Roots of Modern Hollywood Nick Smedley, 2014

In this insightful study of Hollywood cinema since 1969 film historian Nick Smedley traces the cultural and intellectual heritage of American films showing how the more thoughtful recent cinema owes a profound debt to Hollywood's traditions of liberalism first articulated in the New Deal era Although American cinema is not usually thought of as politically or socially engaged Smedley demonstrates how Hollywood can be seen as one of the most value laden of all national cinemas

Drawing on a long historical view of the persistent trends and themes in Hollywood cinema Smedley illustrates how films from recent decades have continued to explore the balance between unbridled individualistic capitalism and a more socially engaged liberalism He also brings out the persistence of pacifism in Hollywood's consideration of American foreign policy in Vietnam and the Middle East His third theme concerns the treatment of women in Hollywood films and the belated acceptance by the film community of a wider role for the American post feminist woman Featuring important new interviews with four of Hollywood's most influential directors Michael Mann Peter Weir Tony Gilroy and Paul Haggis The Roots of Modern Hollywood is an incisive account of where Hollywood is today and the path it has taken to get there

The New American Cinema Michael A. Butrim, 1988

The Jew in American Cinema Patricia Erens, 1988-08-22 Placing cinematic representations of the Jew within their historical context Bartov demonstrates the powerful political social and cultural impact of these images on popular attitudes He argues that these representations generally fall into four categories the Jew as perpetrator as victim as hero and as anti hero Examples range from film's early days to the present from Europe Israel and the United States

Robert Redford and American Cinema Michael Allen, 2021-03-25 Michael Allen's insightful study explores the long and diverse career of the actor and director Robert Redford from his early work in theatre and TV to his contemporary status as an iconic and enduring star Allen assesses Redford's importance to the American film industry during a period of great transformation as an influential industry player an award winning director and a committed political activist Allen considers Redford's individual achievements in the context of shifts and changes in the industry as a whole some of which benefited Redford's own progress and development some which he engineered himself as well as discussing Redford's star persona in relation to ageing and masculinity
