O'Neil,2024-07-02 Here in the US we re having difficult discussions about who we should monumentalize the political implications of our statues or what to do with monuments that no longer reflect our ideals In a way this book looks at how the Maya dealt with these and related issues The author explores how the ancient Maya engaged with their history by using reusing altering and burying stone sculptures O Neil shows for example how the ancient Maya repurposed stelae that were damaged by their enemies In some cases they would break the stelae to signify a change in their status and bury them with others so that the buried monuments connected with those still standing in specific sacred sites Infused with agency the sculptures retained ceremonial meaning O Neil explores how those breakages and other different human interactions amidst unstable religious political and historical contexts changed the sculptures lives Modern Turkey Eliot Grinnell Mears,1924 Pan-Islam Jacob M.
