The No-nonsense Guide to International Migration Peter Stalker, 2001 Includes statistics No-Nonsense Guide to International Migration, 2nd Edition Peter Stalker, 2008-01-30 No-Nonsense Guide to International Migration, 2nd Edition, 2008 Virtually any commodity can move around the world to satisfy demand but human beings have far less freedom Many would be migrants are forced to risk life and limb traveling illegally Yet most rich countries are short of workers have shrinking populations and need more immigrants The No Nonsense Guide to International Migration is a timely primer to a major issue that is never far from the headlines The No-Nonsense Guide to International Development Maggie Black, 2007-10-01 Overseas aid and international development are catch all terms that cover a multitude of activities and abuses This guide explains what development actually is and explores its political and economic roots It shows what can happen in the name of development and argues for a more organic social approach with those it seeks to serve as equal partners in the process Maggie Black has written books for the Oxford University Press UNICEF and Oxfam She has worked as a consultant for UNICEF Anti Slavery International and WaterAid among others and has written for the Guardian The The No-nonsense Guide to Global Terrorism Jonathan Barker, 2008 A highly Economist and BBC World Service accessible history of terrorism looking at core examples from the Middle East instances of state terrorism and terrorist fringes of political movements Covers the theories justifying and guiding terrorist acts and the battle of images that accompanies them including the proliferation of terrorist activities over recent years and international hotspots the war on terror terrorist acts carried out by states and the constraints on democracy and political and civil liberties that so often characterise the response to terrorism The No-nonsense Guide to Global Finance Peter Stalker, 2009 The basic concepts of finance are introduced and explained in this No Nonsense Guide Includes information on how money is created as well as how decisions by banking and other financial service corporations determine the fate of billions of people In today s turbulent No-Nonsense Guide to Global Terrorism, 2nd Edition Jonathan economical climate this guide makes for essential reading Barker, 2008-09-01 Terrorism and counter terrorism have become key points in political talk and government policy This No Nonsense Guide has been revised and updated to take account of the major changes in global terrorism over the past seven years Jonathan Barker presents a highly accessible history of terrorism that looks at examples from the Middle East and elsewhere instances of state terrorism and the terrorist fringes of political movements. He also delves beneath the surface offering political and moral analysis of the causes and contexts of terrorism the theories that justify and guide terrorist acts and the battle of images that accompanies them The No-Nonsense Guide to World Music Louise Gray, 2009-06-01 World music is an awkward phrase Used to describe the hugely multifaceted nature of a range of typically non English language popular music from the world over it s a tag that throws up as many problems as it does solutions Louise Gray s The No Nonsense Guide to World Music attempts to go behind the phrase to explore the reasons for the contemporary interest in world music who listens to it and why Through chapters that focus on specific areas of music such as rembetika fado trance music and new folk Gray explores the genres that have emerged from marginalized communities music in conflict zones and music as escapism In this unique guide which combines the seduction of sound with politics and social issues the author makes the case for music as a powerful tool able to bring individuals together Louise Gray is a writer and editor whose work on music and performing arts has appeared in the New Internationalist The Wire The Independent on Sunday the Guardian and Art Review She co edited Sound and the City British Council 2007 a book exploring the changing soundworld of China

The No-nonsense Guide to Global Media Peter Steven, 2003 The power and influence of the mass media grows daily crucially affecting the way all of us see and understand each other The No Nonsense Guide to Global Media introduces readers to the political economy of the major mediafilm television radio recording publishing and the Internet Peter Steven looks at the ever greater concentration of ownership and at the convergence of technologies and media functions At the same time he emphasizes the diversity of local media production and media around the world The media is more than the economics of ownership and the technology of production he stresses it is also audiences in all their annoying and wonderful diversity The No-nonsense Guide to HIV/AIDS Shereen Usdin, 2003 Tells the story so far looking at the origins of the desease the way it spreads and examining the profits made by drug companies women s special vulnerability and the positive action being taken by people and communities to fight back back cover The No-nonsense Guide to the United Nations Maggie Black, 2008 Conveys the complexity of the UN assesses its record and considers options for reform No-Nonsense Guide to World Food Wayne Roberts, 2008-09-01 Covering fast food organic food junk food institutional food and more this guide shows how real food has become increasingly scarce with production and distribution increasingly dominated in the West by agri business The guide goes on to present the alternatives that are emerging based on the concept of community food security Wayne Roberts is a leading North American writer activist and practitioner in community food security An author and columnist for NOW Magazine he s on the board of the Community Food Security Coalition and Food Secure Canada and coordinates the Toronto Food Policy Council the most respected city food group in the world No-Nonsense Guide to Fair Trade David Ransom, 2006-10-01 Meeting the people who grow our bananas and cocoa and make our clothes this No Nonsense Guide to Fair Trade tells the human story behind what we consume Examin ing the global contest between free and fair trade David Ransom argues that the key question is not whether trade should be regulated or deregulated but whether it is to be the master or servant of the people And as fair trade products are being turned into brands by large corporations a new contest opens it is no longer just a question of fair versus free but what kind of fair trade

The No-nonsense Guide to Terrorism Jonathan Barker,2003 Terrorist or freedom fighter Analyzing the causes and contexts of terrorism the world over Barker guides readers through the moral and political theories justifying and guiding terrorist acts

The No-nonsense Guide to Water Maggie Black,2004 Water sustains life without it humans cannot survive

for more than a few days And yet this precious fluid is becoming increasingly politicized as the debates about control and ownership of water itself and of the many organizations which govern its use gain force Maggie Black explores the many roles water plays in human life and as the defense of water rights looks set to become an explosive issue provides a clear overview on the vital issues of distribution technology irrigation land use and commodification The No-nonsense Guide to Sexual Diversity Vanessa Baird, 2001 A survey of the history and geography of sexually unconventional behaviour The No-Nonsense Guide to Women's Rights Includes a country to country survey of the laws affecting sexual minorities Nikki van der Gaag, 2008-11-01 Has the battle for women s rights been won Not when women still make up 70 percent of the world's poor This guide examines the advances that have been made and looks beneath the surface to find out what the reality is for women all around the world It shows how in this post feminist age women s rights are still very much an issue Nikki van der Gaag is a freelance writer editor and evaluator on development issues Prior to this she was editorial director at the Panos Institute and co editor of the New Internationalist magazine The No-nonsense Guide to Islam Ziauddin Sardar, Merryl Wyn Davies, 2004 Even before 11 September 2001 Muslims were generally viewed in the West as enemies of freedom and progress Yet there is far more to Islam than the stereotypical Occidental view This No Nonsense Guide looks at how Islam a complex faith and civilization can reconcile itself with the twenty first century Critically minded Muslims everywhere are rethinking and reformulating Islam as a contemporary moral and ethical force Merryl Wyn Davies and Zia Sardar explain the Islamic worldview examining the Qur an and Islamic law sharia Islam in history Islam's relationship with the West and its contemporary nature They analyse the struggle within the faith for a more humane and holistic interpretation of their religion examine the issues surrounding women democracy and economic development and suggest how we can all move forward after 9 11 The No-nonsense Guide to Class, Caste & Hierarchies Jeremy Seabrook, 2002 With globalization traditional societies are being replaced by an international working class and a small minority of the global rich In such a situation who is to guarantee social justice The No-nonsense Guide to Indigenous Peoples Lotte Hughes, 2003 Indigenous peoples have long suffered from exoticization Outsiders elevate their beauty remoteness and difference and do not see beyond this to the real problems they face The No Nonsense Guide to Indigenous Peoples looks beyond the exotic images tracing the stories of different indigenous peoples from their first and often fatal contact with explorers and colonizers Much of this history is told here by indigenous people themselves They vividly describe why land and the natural world are so special to them how it feels to be snatched from your family as a child because the government wants to make you white why they are demanding that museums must return the bones of their ancestors how can they retain their traditional culture while moving with the times and what kinds of development are positive This short guide discusses all this and more raising countless issues for debate
