The Other City Of Angels English Edition:

The City, Second Edition James A. Clapp, 2014-02-10 The City is the best funniest saddest and most thought provoking compilation ever assembled on the urban scene James A Clapp has arranged more than three thousand quotations epigrams epithets verses proverbs scriptural references witticisms lyrics literary references and historical observations on urban life from antiquity until the present These quotes are drawn from the written and spoken words of more than one thousand writers throughout history This volume with contributions from speakers poets song writers politicians philosophers scientists religious leaders historians social scientists humorists architects journalists and travelers from and to many lands is designed to be used by writers speechmakers students and scholars on cities and urban life Clapp's text is striking for its sharp contrasts of urban and rural life and the urbanization process in different historical times and geographical areas This second edition includes four hundred new entries updated birth dates and occupations of quoted authors and an expanded and updated introduction and preface Clapp also added new introduction pages for each section containing pictures and unique quotations The indexes have also been expanded to include more subjects and cities The scope of this book is international including entries on most major and many minor cities of the world It is noteworthy for its pleasures and as well as its insights

Christa Wolf Sonja E. Klocke, Jennifer R. Hosek, 2018-03-19 Interest in Christa Wolf continues to grow Her classics are being reprinted and new titles are appearing posthumously becoming bestsellers and being translated Energetic scholarly debates engage well known aesthetic and political issues that the public intellectual herself fore fronted This broad ranging introduction to the author her work and times builds upon and moves beyond such foundational interpretative frameworks by articulating the global relevance of Wolf's oeuvre today also for non German readers Thus it brings East German culture alive to students teachers scholars and the general public by connecting the socialist German Democratic Republic GDR and the lived experiences of its citizens to nations and cultures around the world The collection focuses on topical matters including the search for authenticity agency race cosmopolitanism gender environmentalism geopolitics war and memory debates as well as movie adaptations and Wolf's film work with DEFA marketing and international reception Our contributions by senior and emerging scholars from across the globe emphasize Wolf's position as an author of world literature and an important critical voice in the 21st century

The City of God: A translation into English by John Healey Saint Augustine (of Hippo), 1909

"Hours like bright sweets in a jar" Sonia Front, Alicja Bemben, 2014-10-16 The papers gathered in the present collection investigate time and temporality from a number of interdisciplinary perspectives literary or film studies postcolonial theory physics philosophy psychology urban studies history and gender studies This wide spectrum of scholarly approaches encompasses chapters dealing with the convergences of time and the human psyche time and the body time and memory time and trauma time and change time and cultural reproduction time and language time and the city and time and identity It transpires that the imaginary refigurations of time more often than not constitute resistance against the linearity of chronometric time represented by institutions capitalism government and power and attempts to colonize the human psyche In attempting to assault this hegemony of linear time literary cinematographic and cultural practice enacts exploding temporalities to reflect the multifacetedness and multidirectionality of the human experience of time Bluebeard's Castle S. Somtow,2003-07 the J D Salinger of Siam George Axelrod Oscar winning screenwriter of Breakfast at Tiffany's S P Somtow doesn't write like anybody else and when he wants to spook you he can drive the chill bone deep Dean Koontz In an exotic re telling of the fairytale of Bluebeard a New Age thirty something is swept off her feet by an enigmatic Thai millionaire and soon finds herself in Bangkok's brave new world of shamans shopping malls and high society serial killers Originally written as a cliff hanging serial for Bangkok's The Nation newspaper Bluebeard's Castle is a roller coaster novel that leapfrogs from genre to genre and culture to culture turning the western preconception of Bangkok as a city of temples and prostitutes on its ear A darkly comic odyssey populated with wild characters with intimate glimpses into a culture rarely written about Dispatches from the Field Andrew Gardner,David M. Hoffman,2006-04-17 Penned by advanced graduate students amidst their dissertation fieldwork these provocative essays capture the challenges and intricacies of that anthropological rite of passage The collections authors frankly portray the mistakes they made in the field their struggle to analyze the events unfolding before their eyes the psychological and emotional frustration seemingly endemic to doing ethnography and the ethical complexities of researching living people The authors present these essays not as models of ideal fieldwork or as a series of lessons about how to overcome potential hurdles one faces in the field but rather as a window into the complexities of being an ethnographer in the contemporary world Against a backdrop of subject populations increasingly informed about global relations of power and more specifically informed about the topography of American imperialism these humanistic essays vividly reflect recent shifts in both the focus and methods of anthropological research as well as the dilemmas underlying the construction of anthropological knowledge They are meant to spark discussion and debate While tailored to an audience relatively new to ethnographic fieldwork and intended as a teaching tool this collection should appeal to anthropologists and ethnographers at all points in their career

The Surplus of Culture Ewa Borkowska,Tomasz Burzyński,2011-07-12 This multifaceted volume presents the elusive surplus of culture in the spotlight of theory and academic practice Despite its overtly economic implications the concept alludes to the added value of sense common sense and nonsense which is represented as languages of irony irrationality and absurdity potentially subverting traditional and mainstream regimes of culture Consequently the moment of surplus is inherent in critical interpretation in which supposedly well entrenched notions suddenly reveal their implicitly shattering and subversive nature The surplus of culture dwells at the risky intersection of untamed interpretation and tradition It is the space of the third in which literary canons are re visited language reveals its hidden political agendas the Orient reclaims its own cognitive perspective and established structures of cognition are questioned in the tragic comic gesture of insight The volume is a must for scholars and researchers in the fields of cultural studies literature and arts as well as literary theory

The City of God, Volumes I & II Aurelius Augustine, 2017-10-24 One of Augustine's most famous works this book tells of the fall of the Roman Empire and the rise of the holy and righteous City of God from the ashes While building a utopia much like The Republic does Augustine uses sound theology to build the foundations of the cities morals and lawful authority Many theologies especially within the Catholic tradition owe their beginnings to the teachings of Augustine and this work is one of the starts of the field This is a revised version of Devoted Publishing's 1st edition of this work Greening the City

Dorothee Brantz, Sonja Dümpelmann, 2011-07-01 The modern city is not only pavement and concrete Parks gardens trees and other plants are an integral part of the urban environment Often the focal points of social movements and political interests green spaces represent far more than simply an effort to balance the man made with the natural A city's history with and approach to its parks and gardens reveals much about its workings and the forces acting upon it Our green spaces offer a unique and valuable window on the history of city life The essays in Greening the City span over a century of urban history moving from fin de siècle Sofia to green efforts in urban Seattle The authors present a wide array of cases that speak to global concerns through the local and specific with topics that include green space planning in Barcelona and Mexico City the distinction between public and private nature in Los Angeles the ecological diversity of West Berlin and the historical and cultural significance of hybrid spaces designed for sports The essays collected here will make us think differently about how we study cities as well as how we live in them Contributors Dorothee Brantz Technische Universität Berlin Peter Clark University of Helsinki Lawrence Culver Utah State University Konstanze Sylva Domhardt Swiss Federal Institute of Technology Zurich Sonja Dümpelmann University of Maryland Zachary J S Falck Independent Scholar Stefanie Hennecke Technical University Munich Sonia Hirt Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University Salla Jokela University of Helsinki Jens Lachmund Maastricht University Gary McDonogh Bryn Mawr College Jarmo Saarikivi University of Helsinki Jeffrey Craig Sanders Washington State University The City of God, Books I-VII (The Fathers of the Church, Volume 8)
