Eliminate the Testing

Angela is a hardworking student in Texas. She struggles with subjects such as English language arts and reading because her parents are Hispanic immigrants and she has not had the opportunity to learn the English language like her native-born American peers. In fifth-grade Angela was required to take an untimed standardized test that would determine her admissibility into sixth-grade. While most of her classmates finished their tests by noon, Angela did not finish until six-thirty in the evening. Exhausted and with tears in her eyes, she dropped her pencil on her desk and said, "I'm done ("This Standardized..." 1)." This poor child most likely went to bed that night feeling inadequate and uncertain about her future, her personal qualities and achievements overshadowed by a test. Standardized testing must be eliminated from the United States education system. These high-stakes tests create strong negative emotions in children and teenagers. In addition, standardized tests do not accurately show students' academic achievement. Finally, the scores of standardized tests are used to cast a false reflection upon the teaching abilities of educators. Although some colleges claim standardized testing is effective for determining recipients of scholarships, the ridiculous time limits on these tests prevent students from performing their best. An evaluation of each student's high school career through a
