Scarlet, 2021-02-25 How do we survive when it feels like our world has ended This interactive book is for anyone that has experienced trauma and feels the after effects of fear panic worry anxiety anger or depression You will join a group of other survivors who have lived through extraordinary times and situations including a doctor who saw many patients die in a pandemic a firefighter who feels ashamed about developing anxiety after a major tragedy a nurse who lost a sibling in a school shooting and others affected by a global health crisis and trauma in differing ways This self help manual is based on the techniques of Superhero Therapy and Acceptance and Commitment Therapy and will teach you the skills of acceptance mindfulness self compassion sense of purpose and commitment to action as well as helping you to develop your own survivor story This is the first book of its kind to help us deal with the realities and mental health impact of a world emerging from the unprecedented effects of COVID 19 as well as other natural disasters and violence Pondweed Lisa Blower, 2020-07-09 A love story in the slow lane about loss and getting lost two childhood sweethearts take a trip via pints ponds and pitstops to find their future on a road less travelled from Stoke on Trent to Wales Apparently we spend almost two weeks of our life completely lost If you add up all the times you take a wrong turn or find yourself somewhere you don't want to be it equates to fourteen days of essentially being missing One Monday afternoon around three o'clock pond supplies salesman Selwyn Robby arrives home towing the Toogood Aquatics exhibition caravan and orders his like wife Imogen Ginny Dare to get into the car He's taking her on a little holiday he says To Wales So begins their road trip west via blasts from Selwyn's past and a fortnight's journey of self discovery for them both But it's a fishy business towing this caravan with its saucy mermaid curtains and fully stocked bar and Ginny must untangle the pondweed to get to the bottom of it even it does mean unearthing her own murky past to find out The Quantum Cartographer Kristen Keenon Fisher, 2019-12-27 The year is 2033

somewhere in the middle of the Nevada desert A young woman named Eliza Carrefour stares at the Proctor a mysterious man who invited himself into her home accompanied by eight henchmen Eliza mother of a two year old son and a former scientist at Holifax Industries always knew this day would come She's spent too much time uncovering the dark secrets of the shadowy corporation to remain off the radar She knows too much and that knowledge has earned her the title Public enemy number one An old friend warned her of her employer's nefarious deeds at a time when she was much more naive She was there when he paid the price for what he knew His history with those at the top rungs of Halifax's ladder is one that he swore went back much further than Eliza would believe She always had a hard time swallowing the information he shared but it was all true And all of his strange predictions have come to pass All except this dreaded day The day when past meets present The day when the night dressed men would find her and more importantly her son They are now certain of his destiny Past present and future And no cost will be spared in stopping it Eliza must now make a choice To be selfish and covet her son or to relinquish him and give him to his destiny But to do that she must first outrun an enemy as dark as shadow As lethal as poison And as invincible as time itself
