historical background and our rich fantasy life in childhood each of us unconsciously suspects or fears that supernatural forces may break through the borders of our everyday commonsense order at any time Indeed at times of personal stress or societal crisis the modern boundaries between fantasy and reality begin to slip and then a magical world of demons and other phantasms can come flooding back into our disenchanted reality Through this innovative thesis McGrath goes a long way toward explaining both our fascination with fantasy entertainment such as horror stories and films and bizarre crazes such as witch hunts Satanism scares and even claims of alien abduction Despite our demystified culture the lure of childhood's magic kingdom with its monstrous shadow realm remains strong Malcolm McGrath Toronto Ontario Canada is a doctoral candidate in political philosophy at Oxford University
