Voices Of The Religious Left Rebecca Alpert,2000-05-24 What has happened to the religious left If there is a religious left why don t we hear more about it The academics and activists who write this rich volume edited by Rebecca Alpert argue passionately on topics that concern all of us Quoting from the Bible the Torah the Qur an the teachings of Buddha as well as Native American folklore they make the voices of the religious left heard teaching lessons of peace and liberation As this invaluable

sourcebook shows the religious left is committed to issues of human rights and dignity Answering questions of identity and ideology the essays included here stem from the culture wars that have divided orthodox and liberal believers Responding to the needs of and raised by marginalized social groups the writers discuss economic issues and religious politics as they champion equal rights and promote the teaching of progressive vision Containing insightful perspectives of adherents to many faiths Voices of the Religious Left makes it clear that there is a group dedicated to instilling the values of justice and freedom They are far from silent All of the essays in this collection represent the power of the written word as a vehicle for advocacy and social change It is my hope that the readers of these essays will themselves feel compelled to think more about the importance of taking a stand on issues from religious perspectives and to act on something that compels them Rabbi

Rebecca Alpert Gathered Before God Jane Rogers Vann,2004-01-01 What is the central purpose of the church today How can churches experience renewal through worship In Gathered before God Jane Rogers Vann answers these important questions by studying ten vibrant small medium and large churches Her findings she argues show that worship is the most important thing churches do and is vital to the renewal of congregational life Vann explores how these congregations changed into worship centered churches and how their experiences can help other churches do the same Gathered before God offers resources for pastors worship leaders and Christian educators to reflect on their worship leading to an openness to change and processes to help church leaders support each other during the periods of reform and renewal Moving beyond the contemporary versus traditional debate Gathered before God is an earnest call for us all to reclaim worship as a central act of our life together as Christians that expresses clearly what the church believes about God itself and the world

Methodism and American Empire David William Scott, Filipe Fernandes R. Maia, 2024-01-31 Living into a less colonial way of being together Methodism and American Empire investigates historical trajectories and theological developments that connect American imperialism since World War II to the Methodist tradition as a global movement The volume asks to what extent is United Methodists vision of the globe marred by American imperialism Through historical analyses and theological reflections this volume chronicles the formation of an understanding of The United Methodist Church since the mid 20th century that is both global and at the same time dominated by American interests and concerns Methodism and American Empire provides a historical and theological perspective to understand the current context of The United Methodist Church while also raising ecclesiological questions about the impact of imperialism on how Methodists have understood the nature and mission of the church over the last century Gathering voices and perspectives from around the world this volume suggests that the project of global Methodism and the tensions one witnesses therein ought to be understood in the context of American imperialism and that such an understanding is critical to the task of continuing to be a global denomination The volume tells a tale of complex negotiations happening between United Methodists across different national cultural and ecclesial contexts and sets up the historical backdrop for the imminent schism of The United Methodist Church
