Mastering United States Government Information Christopher C. Brown,2025-08-21 The second edition of an award winning text on government information for information professionals and those researching all branches of the US government A comprehensive textbook for library school courses on US government information the second edition of Mastering United States Government Information can also be relied upon as a training tool for those new to the government documents community. Written by Christopher C Brown, coordinator of government documents at the University of Denver, this approachable book provides an introduction to all major areas of US government information. Including detailed information on all three branches of federal government as well as state and local government, this wide-ranging resource teaches readers to use census data, understand the regulatory process, cite government data, work with mapping and geographic information systems, and navigate intellectual property. Important updates to the second edition include a robust look at Data.census.gov, further elaboration on bill tracking, and enhanced instructional tools for dealing with documents that will never change and the ever-changing discovery tools and web portals that have transformed access to these documents. Examples throughout the text help users understand real-life information challenges, while exercises at the end of chapters help them become comfortable answering government information questions on their own. Several appendixes serve as quick reference sources. Students and practitioners will appreciate Brown's clear writing style and the breadth of information in this valuable resource.

Health Policy Analysis Curtis P. McLaughlin, Professor Emeritus, Kenan-Flagler Business School and School of Public Health, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, North Carolina; Curtis P. McLaughlin, Craig D. McLaughlin, M.J. Craig D. McLaughlin, 2014-07-23. This text is about the process of developing health policy relevant to the United States. We have included the perspectives of a number of disciplines and professions. We have drawn heavily on our personal experiences and backgrounds, which include economics, political science, management, communications, and public health. We have also drawn on the experiences of other countries.

A Woman's Place Joana Cook, 2020-01-13. A much-needed book on the role of women in US counterterrorism in the wider Middle East and at home.

Ponzimonium: How Scam Artists are Ripping Off America Commodity Futures Trading Commission (U.S.), 2012-01-20. Fortunately, more than ever before, con artists are being apprehended and prosecuted. Federal, state, and local law enforcement officials have reported enormous increases in tips and criminal activity since the economic calamity began in 2008. Cash redemptions are dangerous for Ponzi schemes because when the money runs out, folks start talking. For example, at any one time, enforcement staff at the U.S. Commodity Futures Trading Commission (CFTC) are investigating anywhere between 750 and 1,000 individuals or entities for various violations of the law. Increases in tips and fraud cases have also occurred at the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) at the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) in the states and various localities around the world. The stories in this book are actual CFTC cases stemming from investigations that began with the economic downturn. These are real cases, real fraudsters, with unfortunately very real victims. While the fundamental nature of the writing in such files is as you would imagine, very bureaucratic, this script is anything but bureaucratic. Commissioner Chilton has worked in public service for over a quarter of a century and has found that one of the most important things that can be done is to make government less puzzling and perplexing, less mysterious, and yes, less bureaucratic. While Commissioner Chilton can't say there has been any monumental change in how folks see their government over the years Commissioner Chilton continues to try and do his part by communicating in a way that lets folks in on what is going on This writing is an effort to continue that work Commissioner Chilton hopes it will be a satisfying read but more importantly maybe some folks will avoid the tremendous tragedy that so many of our fellow citizens have endured
