Gooding,John C. Lennox,2018-07-06 We need a coherent picture of our world Life's realities won't let us ignore its fundamental questions but with so many opposing views how will we choose answers that are reliable In this series of books David Gooding and John Lennox offer a fair analysis of religious and philosophical attempts to find the truth about the world and our place in it By listening to the Bible alongside other leading voices they show that it is not only answering life's biggest questions it is asking better questions than we ever thought to ask In Book 1 Being Truly Human Gooding and Lennox address issues surrounding the value of humans They consider the nature and basis of morality compare what morality means in different systems and assess the dangerous way freedom is often devalued What should guide our use of power What should limit our choices And to what extent can our choices keep us from fulfilling our potential

Finding Ultimate Reality David W. Gooding, John C. Lennox, 2018-11-16 We need a coherent picture of our world Life's realities won't let us ignore its fundamental questions but with so many opposing views how will we choose answers that are reliable In this series of books David Gooding and John Lennox offer a fair analysis of religious and philosophical attempts to find the truth about the world and our place in it By listening to the Bible alongside other leading voices they show that it is not only answering life's biggest questions it is asking better questions than we ever thought to ask In Book 2 Finding Ultimate Reality they remind us that the authority behind ethics cannot be separated from the truth about ultimate reality Is there a Creator who stands behind his moral law Are we the product of amoral forces left to create moral consensus Gooding and Lennox compare ultimate reality as understood in Indian Pantheistic Monism Greek Philosophy and Mysticism Naturalism and Atheism and Christian Theism

SCM Studyguide: Church History Stephen Spencer, 2013-08-27 An introduction to the study of the ways the church has evolved in its corporate life since its birth in the first century Special attention is given to studying its changing relationship and interaction with the surrounding societies in which it has existed The intended readership will be those training for ministry in English speaking churches so the studyguide will concentrate on those aspects of this subject of most relevance to this group This means there will be greater attention to developments in the West than in the East especially in later centuries and to topics such as the nature of ministry the sacraments places of worship authority in the church and mission These will be examined at each period of church history in each chapter to provide reference points of comparison throughout the book Each chapter will also contain a specific case study presenting extracts of some key documents with notes commentary and questions for discussion to allow readers to develop skills in historical research General discussion questions and reading lists will be provided at the end of each chapter The final chapter will provide guidance for the study of the history of the student's own church and community

SCM Studyguide: Philosophy and the Christian Faith Ben Pugh, 2018-12-04 The challenges that Western culture keeps posing to the Christian faith are ever new The goal posts keep changing This study guide will equip theology students to understand the culture shaping beliefs that are driving the kinds of questions it brings to faith It will be an historical overview of the key stages in the history of Western philosophy with each section carefully tracing the genealogical line of ideas and the Christian responses to them right up to the present day For most theology students learning abstract philosophical concepts involves literally learning a new language a language that the initiated converse in with ease but which leaves the uninitiated baffled Thus each chapter in this study guide opens with a glossary of terms Throughout the studyguide students are encouraged to reflect on the ways in which what has been learned might be applied in both explicitly theological and wider cultural contexts for example they might be asked to think of a film or book that seems to express elements of existentialism or postmodernism or to describe how something very like the extreme subjectivity of idealism can sometimes show itself in Sunday morning worship
