The Southern African Development Community

Treaty-Nexus Korwa Gombe Adar, Kebapetse Lotshwao, Thekiso Molokwane, Dorothy Mpabanga, Norbert Musekiwa, 2023-03-27. Since its establishment in 1980, the Southern African Development Community (SADC) has largely been a state-driven organization with the people of Southern Africa though enshrined in the treaty, remaining observers in the SADC democratization and integration agenda. The Southern African Development Community Treaty Nexus: National Constitutions, Citizens' Sovereignty, Communication and Awareness, edited by Korwa Gombe Adar, Dorothy Mpabanga, Kebapetse Lotshwao, Thekiso Molokwane, and Norbert Musekiwa, brings in the people of Southern Africa, the key beneficiaries of the integration agenda in the SADC democratization and integration epistemology. Using the new concepts of sadcnness and sadcnization, this book operationalizes from legal communication and awareness perspectives the nexus of the people of Southern Africa democratization and integration in the SADC region. From legal and communications lenses, the contributors argue that democratization and integration are about people, citizens, the sovereigns, and not merely the abstract actors called nation states. Using the case studies of Angola, Botswana, Madagascar, Mozambique, South Africa, and Zimbabwe, the contributors engage in this epistemology and assess, among other things, the peoples of Southern Africa, the Southern Africa Development Community integration nexus.
