Hosfield, 2020-02-13 Fourteen papers are presented here in honour of John Gowlett John has a wide range of research interests primarily focused on the human genus Homo and is a world leader in understanding the cognitive and behavioural preconditions necessary for the emergence of complex behaviours such as language and art Democracy's Infrastructure Antina von Schnitzler, 2016-11-08 In the past decade South Africa's miracle transition has been interrupted by waves of protests in relation to basic services such as water and electricity Less visibly the post apartheid period has witnessed widespread illicit acts involving infrastructure including the nonpayment of service charges the bypassing of metering devices and illegal connections to services Democracy's Infrastructure shows how such administrative links to the state became a central political terrain during the antiapartheid struggle and how this terrain persists in the post apartheid present Focusing on conflicts surrounding prepaid water meters Antina von Schnitzler examines the techno political forms through which democracy takes shape Von Schnitzler explores a controversial project to install prepaid water meters in Soweto one of many efforts to curb the nonpayment of service charges that began during the antiapartheid struggle and she traces how infrastructure payment and technical procedures become sites where citizenship is mediated and contested She follows engineers utility officials and local bureaucrats as they consider ways to prompt Sowetans to pay for water and she shows how local residents and activists wrestle with the constraints imposed by meters This investigation of democracy from the perspective of infrastructure reframes the conventional story of South Africa's transition foregrounding the less visible remainders of apartheid and challenging readers to think in more material terms about citizenship and activism in the postcolonial world Democracy's Infrastructure examines how seemingly mundane technological domains become charged territory for struggles over South Africa's political transformation Students Must Rise Ann Heffernan, Noor

Nieftagodien, Sifiso Mxolisi Ndlovu, Bhekizizwe Peterson, 2016-06-01 A detailed account of the incredibly influential Soweto Student Uprising of 1976 The Soweto Student Uprising of 1976 was a decisive moment in the struggle against apartheid It marked the expansion of political activism to a new generation of young activists but beyond that it inscribed the role that young people of subsequent generations could play in their country's future Since that momentous time students have held a special place in the collective imaginary of South African history Drawing on research and writing by leading scholars and prominent activists Students Must Rise takes Soweto '76 as its pivot point but looks at student and youth activism in South Africa more broadly by considering what happened before and beyond the Soweto moment Early chapters assess the impact of the anti pass campaigns of the 1950s of political ideologies like black consciousness as well as of religion and culture in fostering political consciousness and organisation among youth and students in townships and rural areas Later chapters explore the wide reaching impact of June 16th itself for student organisation over the next two decades across the country Two final chapters consider contemporary student based political movements including RhodesMustFall and FeesMustFall and historically root these in the long and rich tradition of student activism in South Africa 2016 marks the 40th anniversary of the 1976 June 16th uprisings This book rethinks the conventional narrative of youth and student activism in South Africa by placing that most famous of moments the 1976 students uprising in Soweto in a deeper historical and geographic context

The Novel in Africa and the Caribbean Since 1950 Simon Gikandi, 2016 The Novel in Africa and the Caribbean since 1950 examines the institutional and social peculiarities that make fiction produced in Africa and the Atlantic World since 1950 important to the history of the novel in English Research Division Bulletin, 1970 Deep Carbon Beth N.

Orcutt, Isabelle Daniel, Rajdeep Dasgupta, 2020 A comprehensive guide to carbon inside Earth its quantities movements forms origins changes over time and impact on planetary processes This title is also available as Open Access on Cambridge Core

The Statesman's Year-Book M. Epstein, 2016-12-23 The classic reference work that provides annually updated information on the countries of the world Twentieth-Century South Africa Bill Freund, 2019 This unique history highlights South Africa's complex and dynamic attempt to build a developmental state an attempt that ultimately faltered

Quaternary Environmental Change in Southern Africa Jasper Knight, Stefan W. Grab, 2016-06-23 Ongoing climate change necessitates advances in our understanding of the interrelationships between climate landscape shaping processes and human activity over long time periods especially in areas that are already climatically stressed This volume presents new ideas on macroscale landscape evolution mountain fluvial and aeolian processes and environments in southern Africa a key region in the story of human evolution during the last two million years Interdisciplinary in scope it brings together an international team of experts to synthesise the latest research and understanding of landscape human relationships in this region It incorporates results from the emerging fields of geoarchaeology and cultural landscapes and utilises the latest data and analytical techniques A key reference for researchers studying hominid evolution geoarchaeology and environmental change it provides a benchmark study of southern African landscape evolution during the Quaternary It will also appeal to professionals and policymakers with interests in future human landscape evolution in southern Africa Year of Fire, Year of Ash Baruch Hirson, 2016-06-15 We can say without fear of being contradicted by history that June 16 1976 heralded the beginning of the end of the centuries old white rule in this country Nelson Mandela Originally banned on publication by the apartheid government Year of Fire Year of Ash is an eye opening account of how in June 1976 20 000 school students faced down the tanks and guns of a vicious racist regime in a revolt that galvanized the black working class and became a pivotal turning point for the anti apartheid movement More than this the book overturns much of the conventional logic that served to explain the event at the time showing it was not simply a student protest but part of a wider uprising Released in this new edition to mark the fortieth anniversary Year of Fire Year of Ash provides an unparalleled insight into the origins and events of the uprising from its antecedents in the 1920s to its role in inspiring global solidarity against apartheid As South Africa experiences a new wave of popular discontent and as new forms of black consciousness come to the fore in movements around the world Baruch Hirson s book provides a timely reminder of the Soweto revolt s continued significance to struggles against oppression today

Bodies of Truth Rita Kesselring,2016-10-12 Bodies of Truth offers an intimate account of how apartheid victims deal with the long term effects of violence focusing on the intertwined themes of embodiment injury victimhood and memory In 2002 victims of apartheid era violence filed suit against multinational corporations accusing them of aiding and abetting the security forces of the apartheid regime While the litigation made its way through the U S courts thousands of victims of gross human rights violations have had to cope with painful memories of violence They have also confronted an official discourse claiming that the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of the 1990s sufficiently addressed past injuries This book shows victims attempts to emancipate from their experiences by participating in legal actions but also by creating new forms of sociality among themselves and in relation to broader South African society Rita Kesselring's ethnography draws on long term research with members of the victim support group Khulumani and critical analysis of legal proceedings related to apartheid era injury Using juridical intervention as an entry point into the question of subjectivity Kesselring asks how victimhood is experienced in the everyday for the women and men living on the periphery of Cape Town and in other parts of the country She argues that the everyday practices of the survivors must be taken up by the state and broader society to allow for inclusive social change in a post conflict setting
