Fostering Multidisciplinary Research for Sustainability Dr. Santosh Dhar, Dr. Upinder Dhar, Dr. Aditi Veda, 2024-03-29 Modern research goes beyond disciplinary horizons for devising solutions to the society's most pressing unsolved issues Within the disciplinary framework the ability to solve problems through the generation of knowledge is no more addressed from discipline specific points of view only However it has become apparent that the research needed to address today's complex problems requires the expertise of many disciplines Multidisciplinary approach incorporates a combination of concepts and knowledge from various disciplines These contributions enable the exchange of knowledge and experiences from diverse groups of people that can promote a holistic vision of a subject as well as new explanatory theories

Being multidisciplinary does not mean giving up skills it means moving into new scientific directions using one's own special set of skills. Rather than being an end in itself, this kind of research is a way of achieving innovative goals, enriched understanding, and a synergy of new methods. The book highlights the diverse perspectives of the researchers across disciplines from sustainable urban development to renewable energy strategies, from biodiversity conservation to equitable machine learning, internet of things, deep learning, and Artificial Intelligence (AI) models, eco-friendly methods, individualized education plans, and social policies that can contribute to more comprehensive and effective solutions to some of the world's most pressing issues while acknowledging that sustainability challenges are inherently interconnected, hence the importance of inclusivity in research.

Community Engagement in Higher Education Manju Singh, Purva Bhatt, Wafa Singh, Kumar Sambhav Pareek, 2023-06-19. This book explores the finer nuances of community engagement in Indian higher education, ranging from theory to practice. It contextualizes the concept and practice of community engagement in the contemporary context, capturing global experiences, insights, and varied standpoints. The volume also identifies gaps present in the system and recommends solutions for the successful implementation and scaling up of the practice of community engagement, not only in India but also at the global level. It also brings to the forefront opinions, perspectives, and experiences of stellar women and their valuable scholarship, with the aim of addressing the gender gap in the field of knowledge production on community engagement. The book will be of interest to scholars, teachers, and researchers of education, higher education, and sociology of education. It will also be useful for academicians, think tanks, higher education administration, policymakers, civil society organizations, higher education institutions, and those interested in the study of community engagement.
