ICEL 2017 - Proceedings of the 12th International Conference on e-Learning Laurie O. Campbell, Richard Hartshorn, 2017 ICIE 2016 Proceedings of the 4th International Conference on Innovation and Entrepreneurship Dr Kenneth A. Grant and Dr Sean Wise, 2016 University Community Engagement and Lifelong Learning Julia Preece, 2017-07-13 This book offers a conceptual re think of how university community engagement functions as a lifelong learning resource for communities While having a specific focus on the South African context it has important implications for other universities which are concerned with their communities and makes a compelling argument for the university as a public good in spite of current trends towards marketization and commodification of higher education The book draws on a theoretical framework of capabilities asset based community development and the adult learning concept of dialogue to propose a model whereby the boundary walls of the university become metaphorically porous so that community members feel free to interact with the university as equal members of society A historical outline of African universities is provided as well as an exploration of the evolution of terms for community engagement service learning and learning cities and an examination of the policy and practice implications for the ideological model of a porous university Combating School-Based Violence Using African Indigenous Knowledge Systems Mfundo Mandla Masuku, Nomakhosi Nomathemba Sibisi, 2025-05-12 Using African epistemologies to understand contributing social and cultural factors around African school violence this book investigates various kinds of school based violence suffered by learners and teachers in order to further research into the impact of educational interventions on crime prevention in African schools Investigating various kinds of school violence including gender based violence and gang violence the book uses African Indigenous Knowledge Systems and the philosophy of Ubuntu for example to tackle important concerns surrounding school violence social cohesion community engagement and role of education in fostering sustainable communities Chapters demonstrate a qualitative research approach that encompasses empirical and conceptual studies to provide an in depth exploration of violence in educational settings the book draws on human experiences and emotions as well as teachers learners communities and other relevant stakeholders perceptions of school violence This highly interdisciplinary volume will be of immense value to scholars researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of sociology of education philosophy of education and educational psychology Curriculum developers involved with module design may also find the volume of use ECRM2016-Proceedings of the 15th European Conference on Research Methodology for Business Management " Vladlena Benson, Fragkiskos Filippaios, 2016-05-20 Emerging States at Crossroads Keiichi Tsunekawa, Yasuyuki Todo, 2018-11-30 This book is open access under a CC BY NC ND license This volume analyzes the economic social and political challenges that emerging states confront today Notwithstanding the growing importance of the emerging states in global affairs and governance many problems requiring immediate solutions have emerged at home largely as a consequence of the rapid economic development and associated sociopolitical changes The middle income trap is a major economic challenge faced by emerging states This volume regards interest coordination for technological upgrading as crucial to avoid the trap and examines how various emerging states are grappling with this challenge by fostering public private cooperation voluntary associations of market players and or social networks Social disparity is another serious problem It is deeply rooted in history in the emerging states such as South Africa and many Latin American countries However income distribution is recently deteriorating even in East Asia that was once praised for its high economic growth with equity Increasing pressure for political opening is another challenge for emerging states This volume argues that the economic social and political problems are interwoven in the sense that the emerging states need to build political consensus in order to tackle the economic and social difficulties Democratic institutions have not always been successful in this respect

Impact of Immigration and Xenophobia on Development in Africa Mafukata, Mavhungu Abel, 2020-12-25 Human movement has an influence on the socio economic dynamics of people regions and countries The schisms between host and immigrants impact how host countries utilize immigrant skills and expertise to benefit their economies However immigrants are impacted by negative diplomatic relations between countries that limit the free movement of people and the welfare of immigrants In association this brings about social challenges such as Afrophobia racism xenophobia hatred and violence within these countries While these challenges are deeply rooted across the world Africa has its own unique challenges Still struggling with massive underdevelopment Africa needs to remove all the negative factors that could impede its quest of achieving development imperatives Impact of Immigration and Xenophobia on Development in Africa analyzes the genesis and evolution of immigration in Africa and how this has resulted in social challenges such as xenophobia within the continent The book focuses on demonstrating how immigrant skills and expertise can be positively utilized to assist African development and asserts the existence of xenophobia in respective countries does not assist Africa s quest of resolving its own challenges The chapters within this book therefore explore how this subsequent output of xenophobia has impacted African development and focuses on the revival of Pan Africanism as a uniting instrument and ideology for Africans This book is a valuable reference tool for activists retired and practicing politicians governments policymakers practitioners stakeholders researchers students and academicians ICEL 2018 13th International

Conference on e-Learning Professor Eunice Ivala, 2018-07-05 Economics and Climate Emergency Barry Gills, Jamie Morgan, 2022-08-22 This book explores a series of connected themes focused on the role economics and other influential forms of theory and thinking have played in creating the current predicament and the scope for alternatives and how they might be framed Thirty years have passed since the inception of the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change UNFCCC and the beginning of policy on climate change Thirty wasted years To most politicians long term collective interest has been denominated in meaningless units of time a never and forever that has continually delayed action From complacency has come potential disaster and we are now living in a time of climate emergency and ecological breakdown

The next decade is a pivotal period requiring fundamental change But numerous impediments remain Continual material energy and economic growth on a planetary scale are manifestly impossible and yet economic theory takes these as a given and political leadership and policy seem unwilling to accept brute reality Instead they offer a series of implausible commitments and pledges rooted in technofixes without addressing the fundamental drivers of the problems the world faces The edited volume explores the issues and offers a variety of ways to think through the problems at hand from postgrowth degrowth and social ecological economics to policy assemblage and transversalism The chapters in this book were originally published in the journal Globalizations Harvesting Plant and Microbial Biodiversity for Sustainably Enhanced Food Security Laurent Laplaze, Francesca Sparvoli, Khaled Masmoudi, Charles Thomas Hash, 2018-03-19 The World population will reach 9 billion by 2050 with the majority of this growth occurring in developing countries On the other hand one in nine of the World's population suffers from chronic hunger the vast majority of which live in developing countries We therefore need to find new and sustainable solutions to feed this increasing population and alleviate the predicted negative impact of global changes on crop production This e Book deals with new strategies to improve food security and livelihoods in rural communities reduce vulnerability increase resilience and mitigate the impact of climate change and land degradation on agriculture This collection of 18 articles addresses the major abiotic factors limiting crop production worldwide how to characterize and exploit the available plant biodiversity to increase production and sustainability in agrosystems and the use of beneficial microbes to improve production and reduce the use of fertilizers and pesticides A Scholarship of Doctoral Education Petro du Preez, Shan Simmonds, 2018-11-21 This edited collection is cohesive by a focus on becoming becoming a doctoral student becoming a researcher becoming an academic and becoming a supervisor This journey of becoming takes us from pre enrolment in a doctoral programme through the many phases of candidature and into the post doctoral environment Both advancing theory and providing very practical examples this book is of immense value to doctoral students and academics not only in South Africa for whom it should be a mandatory read but also for doctoral education researchers doctoral students and supervisors worldwide as the themes covered extend well beyond the borders of South Africa

Challenging Inequality in South Africa Michelle Williams, Vishwas Satgar, 2021-05-13 In Challenging Inequality in South Africa Transitional Compasses leading scholars of South Africa explore creative possibilities to challenge structures of economic social and political power that produce inequality Through concrete empirical examples of movements workers struggles initiatives and politics in challenging inequality the authors illustrate transitional compasses that go beyond protest politics to a generative politics a politics of building the alternatives in the interstitial spaces of capitalism The conceptual framing is oriented around the way in which power is produced and reproduced through intricate relationships between hegemonic projects and everyday life While power underpins all social relations it is often taken for granted as it is frequently hidden behind other social relations Resistance to power emerges through engendering counter hegemonic projects that are intertwined with alternative everyday practices The authors highlight sources of alternative forms of power found in resistance to dominant forms of power through concrete experiences to create transformative alternatives To concretize the conceptual framing the authors look at the emancipatory possibilities of a universal basic income the use of law in tackling inequality in health and education creative initiatives to establish a people centred food system through food sovereignty new forms of organizing led by precarious workers democratic possibilities in local state delivery and attempts at reconceptualizing the good life by looking at issues of happiness and ecosocialism The chapters in this book were originally published in the journal Globalizations

Children of the Waters of Meribah Allan Boesak,2019-10-30
In the decades since Black liberation theology burst onto the scene it has turned the world of church society and academia upside down It has changed lives and ways of thinking as well But now there is a question What lessons has Black theology not learned as times have changed In this expansion of the 2017 Yale Divinity School Beecher Lectures Allan Boesak explores this question If Black liberation theology had taken the issues discussed in these pages much more seriously struggled with them much more intensely thoroughly and honestly would it have been in a better position to help oppressed black people in Africa the United States and oppressed communities everywhere as they have faced the challenges of the last twenty five years In a critical self critical engagement with feminist and especially African feminist theologians in a trans disciplinary conversation Allan Boesak as Black liberation theologian from the Global South offers tentative but intriguing responses to the vital questions facing Black liberation theology today particularly those questions raised by the women
