University Of Pretoria Prospect 2016:

Perspectives on the Legislature and the Prospects of Accountability in Nigeria and South Africa Omololu

Fagbadebo, Fayth Ruffin, 2018-08-03 This book examines the problem of accountability in two African political systems South Africa and Nigeria Despite the principle of separation of powers and the doctrine of checks and balances among the institutions of governance a burgeoning governance crisis stifles the potential of accountability and good governance Legislative oversight in the two countries remains largely ineffective while citizens are left to face the consequences of the mismanagement of public resources by political elites This book critically assesses how the legislative institutions in South Africa and Nigeria have been unable to harness the requisite constitutional powers to ensure accountability in government and explores the feasibility of their effectiveness The book begins with a comparative analysis of the principles tradition and powers associated with legislative capability in South Africa and Nigeria The chapters explore constitutional provisions and analyze the capacity of each legislature to function within its respective political environment The book also examines the process and challenges associated with the various measures and mechanisms available for legislatures to ensure accountability in the two countries Researchers scholars and students of African politics will find this book useful in their understanding of the problems associated with the simmering governance crisis in South Africa and Nigeria Silencing the Guns Volume I Nicholas Idris Erameh, Joshua Olusegun Bolarinwa, Ikenna Mike Alumona, 2025-09-30 This book Silencing the Guns Reviewing the Agenda and Reassessing Prospects which forms part of a two volume series examines the African Union Silencing the Guns STG role in eradicating armed violence in Africa wars civil conflicts human rights violations and mass atrocities by 2030 The first volume delves into the history theory and practice of the STG It accomplishes this by reflecting on how rising insecurity is fueled by poverty armed conflict resource induced conflict mass atrocities political and economic marginalization terrorism insurgency piracy border insecurity environmental degradation illicit arms trafficking election violence and democratic erosion in Africa influenced its development and implementation in specific cases across Africa The second volume reflects on the experiences from these case studies and ponder on the possible factors that have accounted for these emerging and contending challenges with a view to forecast the prospects of STG in Africa in line with the Agenda 2063 Reflections on African Cities in Transition Purshottama Sivanarain Reddy, Henry Wissink, 2020-09-15 This volume describes African cities in transition and the economic socio political and environmental challenges resulting from rapid post colonial urbanization As the African continent continues to transition from urban configurations inherited from colonial influences and history it faces issues such as urban slum expansion increased demands for energy and clean water lack of adequate public transportation high levels of inequality among different socio economic population strata and inadequate urban governance planning and policies African cities in transition need to reconsider current policies and developmental trajectories to facilitate and sustain economic growth and Africa s strategic repositioning in the world Written by an international team of scholars and practitioners this volume uses case studies to focus on key issues and developmental challenges in selected African cities Topics include but are not limited to smart cities changing notions of democracy the city's role in attaining the SDGs local governance alternative models for governance and management corruption urbanisation and future cities

Democratic Governance, Law, and Development in Africa Maame Efua Addadzi-Koom, Michael Addaney, Lydia A. Nkansah, 2022-12-10 This volume analyses democratic governance the rule of law and development in Africa It is unique and timely First the theme and sub themes were carefully selected to solicit quality chapters from academics practitioners and graduate students on topical and contemporary issues in constitutional law human rights and democratic governance in Africa The chapters were subjected to a single blind peer review by experts and scholars in the relevant fields to ensure that high quality submissions are included Due to the dearth of knowledge and studies on the chosen thematic areas the publication will remain relevant after several years due to the timeless themes it covers In this regard this edited volume audits the progress of democratic consolidation rule of law and development in Ghana with selected case studies from other African countries This book is intended for higher education institutions universities institutes and centres public libraries general academics practitioners and students of law democracy human rights and political science especially those interested in African affairs

Contemporary Governance Challenges in the Horn of Africa Charles Manga Fombad, Assefa Fiseha, Nico Steytler, 2022-09-06 This book argues that a leading cause of the political instability in the Horn of Africa is a crisis of governance caused by extreme centralization of power weak institutions and the failure to institutionalise the responsible use of authority In recent years many attempts have been made to resolve the ongoing conflicts in Somalia and South Sudan but problems remain and in 2019 the instability spread to Ethiopia This book critically examines how many of the governance problems in the region can be addressed through institutional design The central argument is that an inclusive system of governance through federalism devolution and inclusive political institutions as well as ensuring the institutionalization of power through strengthening the rule of law has the potential to make governments more accountable inclusive and be able to deliver critical services Such systems ensure relative stability and peace and reduce the risks of state fragmentation a major concern in the region Demonstrating that the threats of further fragmentation and conflict due to the crisis of governance are likely to continue unless serious steps are taken to deal with the situation the book will be an important read for researchers and policy makers with an interest in peacemaking politics constitutional law and federalism in the region

Does the UN Model Still Work? Challenges and Prospects for the Future of Multilateralism, 2022-11-28 Composed of original articles from academics and policy notes from practitioners this book attempts to draw up the state of multilateralism through the UN model and identify potential ways to address its challenges and shortcomings The contributors question the role of multilateralism sometimes accused of being fragmented inefficient and unrepresentative and its impact on global governance democracy trade and investment the environment and human rights Since most of the authors are not from the UN system the content of the contributions provides an external and more neutral assessment of the UN's ability to continue to function today as a serious actor within a global movement in favor of a renewed form of multilateralism Does the UN Model Still Work Challenges and Prospects for the Future of Multilateralism is now available in paperback for individual customers Contemporary Issues and Prospects in Business Development in Africa Simon P. COVID-19, Tourist Destinations and Prospects for Recovery Kaitano Dube, Olga L. Kupika, David Chikodzi, 2023-05-12 There has been a segmented approach to documenting the impact of COVID 19 and recovery prospects for global tourism destinations Until this volume though there has not been comprehensive concentrated efforts to take a deep dive look into two countries tourism destinations in order to provide a comparative perspective This book fills this gap by analyzing tourism impacts and recovery prospects in both Zimbabwe and South Africa The volume opens with an introductory chapter from the editors that provide context and background Part I of the volume looks at the impacts of COVID 19 on Zimbabwe and South Africa Part II focuses on tourism operations during the pandemic and Part III focuses on tourism recovery initiatives and prospects The concluding chapter from the editors provides practical and policy implementation This book is the third and final component of a three volume set on the impact of COVID 19 on destination tourism around the world

Agriculture, Autonomous Development, and Prospects for Industrialization in Africa Emmanuel Ndhlovu, 2025-03-06 The book investigates the intersection of agriculture and development in Africa and how it impacts rural industrialisation prospects It provides a comprehensive view of the position of agriculture in African socio economic activities and the agricultural sector s potential as the source for continental development and industrialisation prospects Significant research has been done on African development with a focus placed on the problematic role played by slavery colonialism and later by incompetent African leaders who failed to steer development of the type that delivers a progressive sustained and sustainable transformation of lives and societies There is limited focus on the possibility of agriculture being the potential basis of African development and the chance for industrialisation This is a matter of concern considering the dominance of agriculture as a livelihood and income source for many people on the continent In contributing to the debate on development in Africa this book aims to show how agriculture can serve as the basis for African development and industrialisation This will be achieved by i providing a detailed historical description of the position of agriculture in African socio economic activities ii outlining the trajectory of African development with a focus on agriculture innovation and mechanisation iii identifying challenges to the development of African agriculture iv exploring the opportunities for agricultural development in Africa and v providing practical and policy recommendations to improve African agriculture and make it the engine for development and industrialisation Utilising a multidisciplinary approach which combines political economy social policy financial inclusion and empowerment approaches the book also shows how engagement of youth and women digitalisation and the provision of support by public and private actors can jump start agriculture as the engine of African development and industrialisation Taken together with this conscious effort to promote a multi disciplinary discussion the book is valuable reading for students policymakers and activists interested in emerging new directions in African development thinking and research

Universities and Sustainable Communities: Meeting the Goals of the Agenda 2030 Walter Leal Filho, Ubiratã Tortato, Fernanda Frankenberger, 2019-09-25 The book showcases examples of university engagement in community initiatives and reports on the results from research and from a variety of institutional projects and programmes As a whole the book illustrates how actors at the community microlevel and other levels meso and macro can make valuable and concrete contributions to the implementation of the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs and more specifically to achieving the objectives defined at the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development It is one of the outcomes of the Second World Symposium on Sustainability Science which was jointly organised by the Pontifícia Universidade Católica do Paraná Brazil the Research and Transfer Centre Sustainable Development and Climate Change Management and the European School of Sustainability Science and Research at Hamburg University of Applied Sciences Germany in cooperation with the Inter University Sustainable Development Research Programme IUSDRP

The Right to Development in Africa Carol Chi Ngang, 2021-10-18 In The Right to Development in Africa Carol Chi Ngang provides a conceptual analysis of the human right to development with a decolonial critique of the requirement to have recourse to development cooperation as a mechanism for its realisation In his argumentation the setbacks to development in Africa are not necessarily caused by the absence of development assistance but principally as a result of the lack of an operational model to steer the processes for development towards the highest attainable standard of living for the peoples of Africa Basing on the decolonial and capability theories he posits for a shift in development thinking from dependence on development assistance to an alternative model suited to Africa which he defines as the right to development governance Advancing Sexual and Reproductive Health and Rights in Africa Ebenezer Durojaye, Gladys Mirugi-Mukundi, Charles Ngwenya, 2021-07-01 This book explores recent developments constraints and opportunities relating to the advancement of sexual and reproductive health and rights in Africa Despite many positive developments in relation to sexual and reproductive health in recent years many Africans still encounter challenges for instance in poor maternity services living with HIV and discrimination on the basis of age gender sexual orientation or identity Covering topics such as abortion gender identity adolescent sexuality and homosexuality the chapters in this book discuss the impact of culture morality and social beliefs on the enjoyment of sexual and reproductive health and rights across the continent particularly in relation to vulnerable and marginalized groups The book also explores the role of litigation national human rights institutions and regional human rights bodies in advancing the realization of sexual and reproductive health and rights in the region Throughout the contributions highlight the relevance of a rights based framework in addressing topical and contentious issues on sexual and reproductive health and rights within Sub Saharan Africa This book will be of interest to researchers of sexuality civil rights and health in Africa The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com/books/e/9781003175049> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license Ethnoveterinary Medicine Lyndy J. McGaw, Muna Ali Abdalla, 2019-12-31 The importance of a complementary approach to animal health is highlighted in this book with core themes encompassing reviews of traditional veterinary medicine for common diseases afflicting livestock as well as local practices in different areas of the world The book includes chapters on ethnoveterinary medicine used to prevent and treat ticks and tick borne diseases infectious diseases and parasites Ethnoveterinary practices in parts of the world which have not been comprehensively reviewed before are highlighted including Estonia Belarus and the Maghreb the north western tip of Africa A fascinating account of African ethnoveterinary medicine and traditional husbandry practices is provided by a veteran in the field with a wealth of practical experience in the area Neglected areas of research involve the relationship of ethnoveterinary medicine with environmental ethical cultural and gender aspects and leading experts explore these issues The book is intended to provide an informative compilation of current research and future prospects in ethnoveterinary medicine which hopes to inform and encourage investigations in new directions Sustainable development requires a concerted effort to combine indigenous knowledge systems with scientific research to improve animal health This is the case not only in rural areas where access to orthodox veterinary health care may be limited but also against the backdrop of antibiotic resistance and increased demand for alternative and complementary therapies to enhance the health of both production and companion animals Students academics and veterinary professionals will find this book a useful addition to
