University Of Vaal 2015 Intake:

Environmental Science and Information Application Technology David Chan, 2015-06-29 Environmental Science and Information Application Technology contains selected papers from the 2014 5th International Conference on Environmental Science and Information Application Technology ESIAT 2014 Hong Kong 7 8 November 2014 The book covers a wide variety of topics Global Environmental Change and Ecosystems Management Graphic and I Doctoral Education in South Africa Cloete, Nico, Mouton, Johann, 2015-12-08 Worldwide in Africa and in South Africa the importance of the doctorate has increased disproportionately in relation to its share of the overall graduate output over the past decade This heightened attention has not only been concerned with the traditional role of the PhD namely the provision of future academics rather it has focused on the increasingly important role that higher education and particularly high level skills is perceived to play in national development and the knowledge economy This book is unique in the area of research into doctoral studies because it draws on a large number of studies conducted by the Centre of Higher Education Trust CHET and the Centre for Research on Evaluation Science and Technology CREST as well as on studies from the rest of Africa and the world In addition to the historical studies new quantitative and qualitative research was undertaken to produce the evidence base for the analyses presented in the book The findings presented in Doctoral Education in South Africa pose anew at least six tough policy questions that the country has struggled with since 1994 and continues to struggle with if it wishes to gear up the system to meet the target of 5 000 new doctorates a year by 2030 Discourses framed around the single imperatives of growth efficiency transformation or quality will not however generate the kind of policy discourses required to resolve these tough policy questions effectively What is needed is a change in approach that accommodates multiple imperatives and allows for these to be addressed simultaneously The Psychosocial Aspects of a Deadly Epidemic Judy Kuriansky, 2016-03-21 Edited by a clinical psychologist who has been on the ground helping to develop psychosocial support for Ebola survivors in one of the hardest hit regions of West Africa this book explains the devastating emotional aspects of the epidemic and its impact on survivors and the population in West Africa families in the diaspora and people in the United States and other countries It also describes lessons learned from past epidemics like HIV AIDS and SARS and valuable approaches to healing from future epidemics While the devastating Ebola epidemic has been contained the effects of this outbreak referred to by the World Health Organization as the most severe acute public health emergency seen in modern times have wreaked a tremendous emotional toll on the populations of West Africa as well as on families and survivors worldwide This groundbreaking book covers the psychosocial needs programs and policies related to the Ebola epidemic and examines broader lessons of the outbreak such as changes in the ways in which healing from future epidemics can be handled Edited by Judy Kuriansky PhD a noted clinical psychologist and United Nations NGO representative with extensive experience helping after disasters worldwide and direct experience gained from being on the ground in West Africa in the midst of the epidemic this book identifies and explains universal psychological factors at play in all such crises It debunks myths regarding Ebola and describes the resulting psychological and social harm caused by the epidemic The chapters cover overarching emotional issues and problems as well as the long term impact on at risk groups such as children women and health workers the impact of emotional issues on social and economic life responses of government officials media and various aid organizations and solutions being offered by groups worldwide including service and humanitarian organizations politicians policymakers and public health education groups

Food Fortification in a Globalized World M.G.Venkatesh

Mannar,Richard F. Hurrell,2018-06-29 Food Fortification in a Globalized World outlines experiences over the past 50 years and future potential for the application of food fortification across a variety of foods in the industrialized and developing world The book captures recent science and applications trends in fortification including emerging areas such as biofortification nutraceuticals and new nutrient intake recommendations standards policy and regulation The book proposes a balanced and effective food fortification strategy for nations to adopt In covering the most technical scientific details in an approachable style this work is accessible to a range of practitioners in industry government NGOs academia and research Food fortification has become an increasingly significant strategy to address gaps in micronutrient intakes in populations with measurable impact in both industrialized and developing countries While the positive impacts are well recognized there are new concerns in some countries that excessive fortification of foods outdated nutritional labeling rules and misleading marketing tactics used by food manufacturers may result in young children consuming harmful amounts of some vitamins and minerals Presents the latest science on fortification for the prevention of micronutrient deficiencies Includes emerging areas such as biofortification nutraceuticals and new nutrient intake recommendations standards regulations practices and policies from around the world Summarizes evidence of application of food fortification and measured impact on public health Discusses how public policy impacts fortification of foods and nutritional deficiencies Considers the complex economics of and market for fortified foods

A Multilingual Perspective on the Diversification of Academic Writing

Verbra Frances Pfeiffer,2024-11-01 This book presents an analysis derived from data collected across South Africa Brazil and Switzerland focusing on multilingual academic writing through translanguaging Exclusive to university students from these nations it examines the disparity between thinking in one language and writing in another Addressing the challenges faced by non native language writers it advocates for acknowledging student voices and identities in the decolonization of academic writing While briefly touching on code switching often deemed obsolete this book reframes it within the context of university level academic writing across the three countries Its primary objective is to illustrate how translanguaging along with voice and identity can be integrated into writing practices for non native language speakers Offering practical strategies for educators the research reveals student anxieties surrounding identity loss and voice neglect in academic settings Ultimately it suggests that accommodating multilingual students can alleviate their writing related stress fostering a more inclusive academic environment Professor Adelia Carstens commended the book for its valuable insights into translanguaging predicting a favorable reception worldwide
