Starr Lined Paper:

Sadie Starr's Guide to Starting Over Miranda Luby, 2022-08-02 Sadie Starr attempts to leave her old self behind but life at her new school proves starting over is more complicated than it sounds The Passing of Starr Faithfull Jonathan Goodman, 1996 This work winner of the Crime Writers Association's Gold Dagger Award provides an account of the international scandal and media activity surrounding the death of Starr Faithfull in 1931 Granted access to the police dossier the author arrives at an unexpected yet credible conclusion The Return of Henry Starr Richard Slotkin, 2024-08-06 Wild West lore collides with a life of crime in this biographical novel of the legendary Cherokee outlaw Growing up on Indian Territory in Oklahoma Henry Starr had an illustrious family lineage half Cherokee warriors half western outlaws Inspired by dime store novels and old family tales he began robbing banks to avenge the bitter mistreatment of his people But while Starr's criminal career soon made him a legend it also won him a death sentence That was years ago before a lucky twist of fate set Henry free But while the world has changed around him the myth of the outlaw Henry Starr lives on Now his best chance at a new life is to work in Hollywood depicting his former self in silent films As Henry is drawn into a glamorized version of his own past it becomes difficult to separate truth from fiction And he soon finds himself returning to the life that made him a notorious icon A fictionalized tale of Henry Starr's dramatic life novelist and historian Richard Slotkin brings authentic period detail to this saga of the frontier Starr, of the Desert B. M. Bower, 1917 Frederick Starr Donald McVicker, 2012-11-10 This definitive detail packed biography is the first of Frederick Starr 1856-1933 a founding father of American anthropology at the University of Chicago It presents a major reevaluation of Starr's place as the missionizer of anthropology illuminates the consequences of the professionalization of anthropology and yields a greater understanding of the United States as it moved into a position of global power Donald McVicker considers Frederick Starr's colorful life in the context of the times In many respects Starr's early career paralleled that of Franz Boas the architect of American anthropology Nonetheless as Boas led professional anthropology into the twentieth century in the United States Starr the popularizer increasingly fell behind Today if Starr is remembered at all he is usually described in terms of his intellectual professional and ethical failings Yet his collections publications and photographic and paper archives provide a rich set of resources for archaeologists ethnologists folklorists and historians McVicker argues that Starr's mission to bring anthropology to the public and enlighten them was as valid a goal during his career as was Boas's goal to professionalize the field The Life and Loves of Cherry Bakewell Rai Jayne Hearse, 2014-11-28 Have you ever wanted to read someone's diary Well now you can Meet Cherry Bakewell a pink haired seventeen year old who is about to embark on the biggest journey of her life moving to university Read her thoughts as she attempts to balance her life love lessons and work with being a fierce bass player and singer for her band Blinding Lollipop and the Helter Skelter Whiz Kids Who can she trust Which boys are toxic Why should students totally NOT drink Take a voyeuristic peek inside her secret diary and follow her
