Adjudicating Global Business in and with India Leila

Choukroune, Rahul Donde, 2021-07-22 This edited collection on international commercial and investment disputes in and with

India examines past and present landmark legislative and regulatory reforms initiated by the Indian government including the 2015 new Bilateral Investment Treaty BIT model the 2015 amendments to the 1996 Arbitration Act and the 2013 amendments to Section 135 of the Companies Act on Corporate Social Responsibility CSR as well as the most recent amendments to the same The book also includes recent developments in the dispute resolution arena regional and international negotiations involving India the legal profession s response to these developments and civil society s comments In addition it addresses contemporary problems of key importance and at the centre of today s discussions from the legitimacy and relevance of Investor State Dispute Settlement ISDS to the denunciation of Bilateral Investment Treaties BITs and the role arbitration should play in emerging economies now leaders in world trade In creating bridges between commercial and investment arbitration it also renews the conceptual approach to these too often artificially isolated fields of law The volume provides an accurate and updated account of the many fascinating conceptual and practical evolutions which already impact the world of international dispute resolution far beyond the borders of India This unique and exhaustive study will be of great appeal to a vast range of readers from practitioners to academia

Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office ,2007 Contractual Estoppel Alexander Trukhtanov,2022-03-29 The second edition of this book continues to offer the first and only comprehensive account of contractual estoppel now made fully up to date with reference to the most recent cases Contractual estoppel a new and exciting development in the common law is ever more widely employed and keeps showing itself of considerable practical utility The book examines numerous judicial decisions which apply or discuss contractual estoppel and offers a full and systematic exploration of its origin principled basis practical applications and limits The doctrine continues to develop and the second edition tracks catalogues discusses and explains its multifarious applications limits and niceties In this title the author Alexander Trukhtanov maintains the principal doctrinal claim of the first edition that contractual estoppel is a not misnomer anomaly or distortion of reliance based categories of estoppel but its own category of legal estoppel The book is a single point of reference for a systematic and organised exposition of the subject and an explanation of how it fits into existing law It is practice oriented but engages with important conceptual points Contractual Estoppel will be of interest to practitioners whether draftsmen litigators or advocates as well as academics and post graduate students of contract law reference for all legal professionals working in commercial law across jurisdictions International Arbitration in England Laila Hamzi, Daniel Harrison, Gregory Fullelove, 2022-08-09 There is no question that in recent years the case law practice and legal environment in which international arbitration in England is practised have all evolved and adapted to a changing world and continue to do so In this book a diverse range of practitioners chart this development with detailed consideration of the challenges and opportunities for the future of international arbitration in England The topics chosen often reflect and explore preoccupations of our times including such aspects of arbitral practice as the following challenges to arbitrators with particular attention to the Supreme Court's findings in Halliburton v Chubb virtual hearings diversity in international arbitration climate change arbitration green arbitration practices developing jurisprudence regarding enjoining foreign states in English proceedings recovery of in house costs in English seated international arbitrations overlapping sanctions regimes and their application to arbitral disputes in England and the role and future of third party funding The fact that the essays were all written during the COVID 19 pandemic is reflected in the procedural issues which form the focus of some chapters reminding us that when it comes change can come quickly For this reason the deeply informed insights in this volume intended as they are to ensure the continued evolution and success of international arbitration in England will prove of immeasurable value for any practitioner making submissions before an arbitral tribunal Jurists academics and students
