

American History I Final Exam Review

The following terms, taken in sets of 25 from each unit of the course, are critical to know for the final exam. Review your old study guides for additional important information.

Unit 1 (Colonization of America)

1. Agricultural Revolution—when people could raise crops for food, civilizations began to grow
2. Columbian Exchange—transfer of plants, animals, diseases, etc. between the "Old World" and "New World," starting in 1492
3. Fall of the Spanish Armada—this opened America to be settled by England, not just Spain
4. Southern colonies—had a warm, fertile environment and economy based on agriculture, especially tobacco
5. Jamestown—the first English settlement in America, located in Virginia, almost collapsed during the "starving time"
6. Tobacco—saved Jamestown from collapse; it was initially harvested by indentured servants and later by slaves
7. House of Burgesses—the first representative government in the colonies, located in Jamestown, Virginia
8. Headright System—gave wealthy planters land for bringing indentured servants to America, but helped cause Bacon's Rebellion
9. Indentured Servants—worked for wealthy planters 4-7 years in exchange for transportation to America
10. Bacon's Rebellion—caused wealthy southern planters to turn from indentured servants to slaves as a source of labor
11. New England colonies—valued religion, had a cold, rocky climate, and had economy based on fishing and shipbuilding
12. Mayflower Compact—agreement between Pilgrims at Plymouth to create a government that used majority rule
13. Fundamental Orders of Connecticut—the first written constitution in the American colonies; it inspired the United States Constitution
14. Massachusetts Bay colony—founded as a place for Puritans to practice their religion and be a "city upon a hill," a Christian example to the world
15. Roger Williams—forced to leave Massachusetts Bay because he disagreed with Puritan leaders and believed in freedom of religion
16. King Philip's War—fought largely over desire for land; this victory for colonists represented the last resistance of Native Americans in New England
17. Quakers—non-violent religious group in Middle colonies that believed in religious freedom and equality between races, sexes, and with Native Americans
18. Triangular Trade—network of trade that occurred between the Caribbean, (aka. India), Africa, and the American colonies
19. Mercantilism—a country's policy to gather more wealth to itself and become powerful, which England used with the colonies
20. Navigation Acts—new tariff laws that controlled colonial trade to benefit England that caused many colonists to smuggle, creating tension

Federal Register ,1948 Social Studies for Secondary Schools Alan J. Singer,2008-10-26 This popular text advocates an inquiry and activity based view of social studies teaching that respects the points of view of students and teachers Based in practice and experience it offers systematic support and open honest advice for new teachers is conversational not pedantic and provides lots of examples While the structure and most of the topics remain largely the same as before this Third Edition presents new lesson ideas in every chapter especially designed to help new teachers to address learning standards to work in inclusive settings and to promote literacy and the use of technology in social studies classrooms puts a heavier focus on what is important to know and why includes new essays on the politics of social studies education responds to opponents of project or activity based social studies instruction and multicultural education with a sharpened defense of both of these approaches throughout the book Intended as a text for undergraduate and graduate pre service social studies methods courses this text is also useful for in service training programs as a reference for new social studies teachers and as a resource for experienced social studies educators who are engaged in rethinking their teaching practice Our Deceased Loved Ones Communicating with Us Ted Baxter,2015-05-19 This book summarizes seventy of my honoring the dead books that I was directed to write by the dead The dead would direct me in my dreams usually within a week after they die to write a book for their loved ones They would tell me what to write what photographs to use and to whom to send the book This is the reason why I had decided to publish this book The dead dont forget you after they die Dont forget them People don't change after they die I've had many good experiences and a few very bad experiences with them If I was able to communicate with the dead you can too It's a very interesting story how I had acquired this capability which I discussed in this book I was not born with that capability I also discuss two of my prior lifetimes which have also helped me communicate with the dead These are all things that I suggest that you know about It all helps like it has helped me It's all true and it can be verified in the seventy books that I have written This book summarizes what is in those seventy books This book gives a number of examples that nothing happens by accident You can be whatever you want to be I did it and you can do it too In this lifetime I meet my mother in my 1620 AD lifetime who had given me my current capabilities
