Discourses of Globalisation and Education Reforms Joseph Zajda, 2022-05-17 This book focuses on discourses of effective learning environments globally for reducing discrimination in schools. It offers innovative ideas concerning the future directions that education and policy reforms could take in order to promote equality social justice and access to quality of education for all. The chapters offer a timely analysis of current issues affecting schooling and strategies for creating effective learning environments globally for overcoming discriminations in schools. It is argued that one of the most significant variables in creating effective learning environments for reducing classroom discrimination is the student's cultural identity the self concept and self esteem. The next variables influencing students learning environment are motivational strategies self regulated learning and students active engagement in constructivist learning. This book contributes in a very scholarly way to a more holistic understanding of the nexus between globalisation comparative education research and education reforms for reducing discrimination. It will be beneficial for a broad spectrum of users including policy makers academics graduate students education policy researchers administrators and practitioners.

Between Fault Lines and Front Lines Katja Hujo, Maggie Carter, 2022-06-02 Inequality is one of today's greatest challenges obstructing poverty reduction and sustainable development. As the power of elites grows and societal gaps widen institutions representing the public good and universal values are increasingly disempowered or co-opted and visions of social justice and equity sidelined. This book explores the roles of elites and institutions of power in the deepening of social and economic cleavages across the globe by asking how inequalities have reshaped structures from the local to the transnational level and what consequences they have wrought In addition the contributors present examples of peaceful processes of policy change that have made societies greener and more socially just levelled out social stratification and devolved power and resources from elites to non elites or towards marginalized or discriminated groups Based on cutting edge empirical research the chapters in this volume bring together conceptual thinking and a number of case studies from the Global North and South combining different levels of analysis and a range of qualitative research methods to present solutions for closing the inequality gap
