University Of Johannesburg 2016 Prospect:

DesignBuild in Postcolonial Contexts: A Critical Interrogation Vera Simone Bader, In diesem Buch betrachten neun Autorinnen die Lernmethode DesignBuild im postkolonialen Kontext Anhand konkreter Beispiele wird die handlungsorientierte Vorgehensweise kritisch hinterfragt und evaluiert Dabei liegt ein Fokus auf den Auslandseinsätzen europäischer und US-amerikanischer Studierender die in fremden Kulturen ihr frisch erworbenes Wissen aktiv einsetzen Es werden aber auch Projekte von Studierenden aus Lateinamerika Asien und Afrika dokumentiert und analysiert die diese Methode als Experimentierfeld nutzen um normative Regeln die häufig noch heute von der Kolonisierung geprägt sind in Frage zu stellen

From Consumer Experience to Affective Loyalty: Challenges and Prospects in the Psychology of Consumer Behavior 3.0 María Pilar Martínez-Ruiz, Mónica Gómez-Suárez, Ana Isabel Jiménez-Zarco, Alicia Izquierdo-Yusta, 2018-02-19 This research topic for Frontiers in Psychology highlights some of the more relevant changes that have conditioned consumer behavior in recent years among these the paradigm shift in marketing is worth emphasizing Today the market and the companies are implementing Marketing 4.0 This new marketing approach modifies both the business rules and the channels by changing the way to dialogue interact and relation with consumers The present Research Topic brings together 30 studies by 76 authors who analyzed the relevance of consumer behavior changes under this new paradigm using different theoretical and methodological frameworks These different papers mainly constituting original research examine a variety of sub-topics including online and mobile environments value co-creation internal marketing strategies and diverse industries and product markets Given this broad selection of papers we encourage readers to draw their own conclusions about the complex phenomena of consumer behavior Our hope is that these different perspectives will cover various gaps in the field and prompt discussion among the audience of Frontiers in Psychology

African Democratic Citizenship Education Revisited Yusef Waghid, Nuraan Davids, 2017-11-28 This edited collection explores how democratic citizenship education manifests across the African continent A recognition of rights and responsibilities coupled with an emphasis on deliberative engagement among citizens while not uniquely African provides ample evidence that the concept can most appropriately be realised in relation to its connectedness with experiences of people living on the continent Focussing on a diverse collection of voices the editors and authors examine countries that have an overwhelming allegiance to democratic citizenship education In doing so they acknowledge that this concept enveloped by a certain Africanness has the potential to manifest in practices across the African continent By highlighting the success of democratic citizenship education the diverse and varied contributions from across this vast continent address the malaise in its implementation in countries where autocratic rule prevails This pioneering volume will be an invaluable resource for researchers and students working in the fields of education and sociology particularly those with an interest in education policy philosophy of education and global citizenship initiatives

The Palgrave Handbook of African Political

Economy Samuel Ojo Oloruntoba, Toyin Falola, 2020-06-23 This handbook constitutes a specialist single compendium that analyses African political economy in its theoretical historical and policy dimensions It emphasizes the uniqueness of African political economy within a global capitalist system that is ever changing and complex Chapters in the book discuss how domestic and international political economic forces have shaped and continue to shape development outcomes on the continent Contributors also provoke new thinking on theories and policies to better position the continent's economy to be a critical global force The uniqueness of the handbook lies in linking theory and praxis with the past future and various dimensions of the political economy of Africa

Africa at a Crossroads Savious Mutanga, Thokozani Simelane, Munyaradzi Mujuru, 2018-05-16 This book is a compilation of selected papers presented during the 8th Africa Institute of South Africa AISA Young Graduates and Scholars AYGS Conference held at the University of Johannesburg in the year 2014 The three day conference dubbed Africa at a Crossroads Future prospects for Africa after 50 years of the Organisation of African Unity African Union voiced young graduates and scholars views on Africa's future and developmental breakthroughs as well as its challenges and opportunities While the annual conference is a capacity building platform for young scientists it provided a platform for participants to engage in critical dialogue about the African realities and possible plausible and desirable future for the continent The book thus provides a critical interrogation of the drivers of change in Africa moving forward especially as the AU was busy churning out new ideas and mapping out a new vision for the next 50 years Essentially the book provides insights on national systems of innovation matrices on poverty climate change and lastly a reflection on Africa's position in global governance

Migration in Southern Africa Pragna Rugunanan, Nomkhosi Xulu-Gama, 2022-05-30 This open access Regional Reader proposes new ways of theorizing migration in Southern Africa by arguing that traditional western forms of theorizing do not adequately fit the South South migration context It explores the existing definitions of a migrant with a view to conceptualise a definition which will speak to the complexities envisioning a more inclusive Southern African region The book investigates the various levels of migration moving from the local rural to urban and urban to rural to cross border migration middle class versus working class migrant household livelihoods livelihoods procurement versus wage earning social capital networks and how they make meaning of their circumstances in a foreign space It also acknowledges the intertwined issues of gender and class as important in analyzing migration processes and the chapters feature both in varying dimensions As such the book provides a great resource for students academics and policy makers

Agriculture, Autonomous Development, and Prospects for Industrialization in Africa Emmanuel Ndhlovu, 2025-03-06 The book investigates the intersection of agriculture and development in Africa and how it impacts rural industrialisation prospects It provides a comprehensive view of the position of agriculture in African socio economic activities and the agricultural sector's potential as the source for continental development and industrialisation prospects Significant research has been done on African development with a focus placed on the problematic role played by slavery colonialism and later by incompetent African leaders who failed to steer development of the type that delivers a progressive sustained and sustainable transformation of lives and societies There is limited focus on the possibility of agriculture being the potential basis of African development and the chance for industrialisation This is a matter of concern considering the dominance of agriculture as a livelihood and income source for many people on the continent In contributing to the debate on development in Africa this book aims to show how agriculture can serve as the basis for African development and industrialisation This will be achieved by i providing a detailed historical description of the position of agriculture in African socio economic activities ii outlining the trajectory of African development with a focus on agriculture innovation and mechanisation iii identifying challenges to the development of African agriculture iv exploring the opportunities for agricultural development in Africa and v providing practical and policy recommendations to improve African agriculture and make it the engine for development and industrialisation Utilising a multidisciplinary approach which combines political economy social policy financial inclusion and empowerment approaches the book also shows how engagement of youth and women digitalisation and the provision of support by public and private actors can jump start agriculture as the engine of African development and industrialisation Taken together with this conscious effort to promote a multi disciplinary discussion the book is valuable reading for students policymakers and activists interested in emerging new directions in African development thinking and research

The African Union Tony Karbo,Tim Murithi,2017-11-23 The African Union has been a major factor in establishing peace security and development in Africa Today however the intranational body is struggling in the midst of a perceived dissipating appetite for supporting continental institutions Previously seen as the panacea to Africa s continuing problems with violence and corruption in society under the slogan African Solutions to African Problems the African Union this book argues seems to have run its course Recognizing that the measured successes in political emancipation which have been recorded across the African continent do not seem to have translated into economic and social gains for its 1 2 billion citizens the AU adopted a new development framework dubbed Agenda 2063 The framework calls on African leaders to rediscover the Pan African spirit and to create the Africa Africans want In practice this means a new focus and engagement with the African Diaspora tapping into their strong track record in economic development As this book shows however there remain deep differences over the meaning timing and sequencing of pan African integration Indeed different member states have different understandings of the role of the African Union itself This essential handbook from one of the leading research institutions on the continent seeks to uncover what some of those understandings are and why the unification project has remained so elusive

Education, Poverty and Global Goals for Gender Equality Elaine Unterhalter,Amy North,2017-08-07 Drawing on case study research that examined initiatives which engaged with global aspirations to advance gender equality in schooling in Kenya and South Africa this book looks at how global frameworks on gender education and poverty are interpreted in local settings and the politics of implementation It discusses the forms of global agreements in particular contexts and allows for an appraisal of how they have been understood by the people who implement them By using an innovative approach to comparative cross country research the book illuminates how ideas and actions connect and disconnect around particular meanings of poverty education and gender in large systems and different settings Its conclusions will allow assessments of the approach to the post 2015 agenda to be made taking account of how policy and practice relating to global social justice are negotiated sometimes negated the forms in which they are affirmed and the actions that might help enhance them This book will be valuable for students researchers academics senior teachers senior government and inter government officials and senior staff in NGOs working in the field of education and international development gender poverty reduction and social development

Fate of the Nation Jakkie Cilliers, 2017-07-24 WHAT DOES OUR FUTURE HOLD In these uncertain times this is the question on many South Africans lips Will we become more prosperous and less divided as a nation or remain hugely unequal and generally poor Will the ANC split or eventually be forced into an alliance with the EFF after 2019 Could the DA rule the country after the 2024 elections In Fate of the Nation Jakkie Cilliers develops three scenarios for our immediate future and beyond Bafana Bafana Nation Divided and Mandela Magic Cilliers says the ANC is currently paralysed by the power struggle between what he calls the Traditionalists and the Reformers It is this power struggle that has led to the inept leadership policy confusion and poor service delivery that has plagued the country in recent years Key to which scenario could become our reality is who will be elected to the ANC s top leadership at the party s national conference in December 2017 Whichever group wins there will determine what our future looks like This is a book for all concerned South Africans

Political Science in Africa, 2023-12-28

Bringing together African and international scholars this book gives an account of the present state of the discipline of political science in Africa generating insights into its present and future trajectories and assessing the freedom with which it is practiced Tackling subjects including the decolonization of the discipline political scientists as public intellectuals and the teaching of political science this diverse range of perspectives paints a detailed picture of the impact and relevance of the political science discipline on the continent during the struggles for democratization and the influence it continues to exert today

Prospects for Regional Integration in Africa Andreas Freytag, Abena D. Oduro, African integration has had a long history dating back to the end of colonization in the 1960s It has generated enormous interest in recent years not least because the continent has recently taken some bold steps to integrate further such as the Tripartite Free Trade Area or the creation of the African Continental Free Trade Area AfCFTA With this book we offer an innovative perspective on African integration By inviting mostly young African scholars from different disciplines in the social sciences and humanities we make African voices audible and start a discussion of the African integration efforts from an African perspective using novel criteria to judge different African integration attempts In addition to the younger generation's representatives we also invited scholars from Europe and Latin America to bring other continents perspectives to the fore

Reflections on the 2019 South African General Elections Joleen Steyn Kotze, Narnia Bohler-Muller, 2020-12-17 Reflections on the 2019 South African General Elections is a critical reflection on the key lessons of Elections 2019 in South Africa focusing on the future of the country's electoral democracy The volume engages questions on land election campaigns voter turnout voter apathy and how opposition parties will be forced to co exist in the context of declining electoral dominance the ANC once comfortably held An important reflection on the lessons of the 2019 South African General Elections the contributors ask Quo Vadis South Africa The 2019 General Elections marked a watershed in South Africa's political landscape The ANC under the banner of a narrative of regeneration and getting back on the moral path dipped below the 60 % mark for the first time in South Africa's democratic history This decline in electoral support for the party may be interpreted as a degeneration of the ANC through the loss of its moral stature the erosion of its integrity and disillusionment with its performance as a governing party Opposition political parties could not capitalise on this seeming disillusionment with the ruling ANC Caught in their own factional battles and in the midst of corruption scandals opposition parties were unable to successfully increase their share of the vote and capture the undecided and disillusioned voter Considering the future of South Africa's electoral democracy at 25 years of democracy Reflections on the 2019 South African General Elections will be of great interest to scholars of African Studies South Africa Governance and Elections The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Politikon South African Journal of Political Studies
