University Of Limpopo Application For Admission 2016:

Limpopo's Legacy Anne Heffernan, 2019 Argues that the historical primacy of youth politics in Limpopo South Africa has influenced the production of generations of nationally prominent youth and student activists among them Julius Malema Onkgopotse Tiro Cyril Ramaphosa Frank Chikane and Peter Mokaba Working with indigenous knowledge Fhumulani M. Mulaudzi, Rachel T. Lebesse, 2022 The aim of the book is to assist both local and international scholars in articulating the scholarly discourse on indigenous health attitudes practices and experiences The indigenous lens that was used to generate and disseminate indigenous knowledge in this book will strengthen indigenous scholarship thus making it accessible to a wider audience In addition the information shared in this book will add value for scholars and assist them with the indigenous knowledge needed to address sustainable development goals This book is timeous and topical as the discourse on the decolonisation of the curriculum is widely debated in the higher education space The discourse on the scholarship of indigenous knowledge as the tacit local knowledge that stems from cultural practices within communities has not been well articulated in the current health science education milieu Indigenous knowledge has remained overlooked and undermined for a very long time and the information remains untapped in local communities The scholars who conducted the research on which this book is based unearthed a wealth of knowledge which was tacit in nature and translated it into implicit knowledge that can be documented and shared with other scholars globally This knowledge will assist health care scholars in benefiting from knowledge practices and cultural beliefs that will assist them in health care planning teaching evidence based practice and further research Cohabitation and the Evolving Nature of Intimate and Family Relationships Sampson Lee Blair, Yongjun Zhang, 2023-12-08 Given the tremendous diversity in cohabiting couples as well as the increasing prominence of this form of intimate relationships this volume provides a more thorough comprehension of the structures effects and intimate practice of cohabitation around the world What Politics?, 2017-11-06 What Politics Youth and Political Engagement in Africa examines the diverse experiences of being young in today s Africa It offers new perspectives to the roles and positions young people take to change their life conditions both within and beyond the formal political structures and institutions The contributors represent several social science disciplines and provide well grounded qualitative analyses of young people s everyday engagements by critically examining dominant discourses of youth politics and ideology Despite focusing on Africa the book is a collective effort to better understand what it is like to be young today and what the making of tomorrow s yesterday means for them in personal and political terms Contributors are Ehaab Abdou Abebaw Yirga Adamu Henni Alava Pivi Armila Randi Rnning Balsvik Jesper Bjarnesen ra Bj rnsd ttir J n na Einarsd ttir Tilo Gr tz Nanna Jordt J rgensen Marko Kananen Sofia Laine Naydene de Lange Afifa Ltifi Ivo Mhike Claudia Mitchell Relebohile Moletsane Danai S Mupotsa Elina Oinas Henri Onodera Eija Ranta Mounir Saidani Mariko Sato Loubna H Skalli Tiina Sotkasiira Abdoulaye Sounaye Leena Suurp and Mulumebet Zenebe What Politics Youth and Political Engagement in Africa is now available in paperback for individual customers The Education Triple Cocktail Brahm Fleisch, 2018-08-15 The Education Triple Cocktail brings together rigorous quantitative and qualitative research on a new approach to improving foundational teaching and learning for schoolchildren living in working class poor and remote rural communities in resource constrained systems like South Africa At the core of this book is the theory and evidence for a powerful new interlocking and mutually reinforcing change model Inspired by the AIDS treatment story the three pronged approach of structured daily lesson plans appropriate and high quality educational materials and one on one instructional coaching to help teachers transform their instructional practices in early grade classrooms shows that it will improve learning outcomes For education systems defined by low levels of early grade learning and profoundly unequal outcomes The Education Triple Cocktail offers a theoretically informed evidence based way forward This book will be of immense use to teachers students of Education policymakers and parents Routledge Handbook of Food Waste Christian Reynolds, Tammara Soma, Charlotte Spring, Jordon Lazell, 2020-01-13 This comprehensive handbook represents a definitive state of the current art and science of food waste from multiple perspectives The issue of food waste has emerged in recent years as a major global problem Recent research has enabled greater understanding and measurement of loss and waste throughout food supply chains shedding light on contributing factors and practical solutions This book includes perspectives and disciplines ranging from agriculture food science industrial ecology history economics consumer behaviour geography theology planning sociology and environmental policy among others The Routledge Handbook of Food Waste addresses new and ongoing debates around systemic causes and solutions including behaviour change social innovation new technologies spirituality redistribution animal feed and activism The chapters describe and evaluate country case studies waste management treatment prevention and reduction approaches and compares research methodologies for better understanding food wastage This book is essential reading for the growing number of food waste scholars practitioners and policy makers interested in researching theorising debating and solving the multifaceted phenomenon of food waste Discipline in Education Johan Botha, 2021 This book addresses a perennial challenge to the success of the South African education system namely discipline This volume steers the interrogation of discipline in a new direction reflecting on ways in which recent research can benefit South African schools This includes the need for alternative discipline that will enhance education The scholarly contribution lies in its in depth exploration of the relevance of research findings to South African schools and to the twenty first century socio political environment For the first time scholarly interrogation of the issue of learner discipline in South African schools draws on indigenous knowledge systems Its post colonial and decolonial perspectives offer an ethical and moral compass for behaviour that could contribute to the well being of South African society and other societies similarly afflicted by anti social behaviour The book offers a range of perspectives on the debates on discipline and associated issues and should stimulate future discussions on discipline and indiscipline at a time when South Africa and many other societies engage with the effects of social and political transformation This scholarly book is aimed at academics and researchers The contributors include philosophers moralists corporativists education law specialists curriculum specialists specialists in education and culture advocates of ubuntu and people using meta syntheses of approaches and practices and religious practices such as a Christian ethical moral approach to parental and school discipline They draw on their insights into postcolonialism the impact of indigenous knowledge theories of agency dysfunctionality and school underperformance The book offers an intriguing depiction of opposing views on discipline

South African Schooling: The Enigma of Inequality Nic Spaull, Jonathan D. Jansen, 2019-11-05 This volume brings together many of South Africa's leading scholars of education and covers the full range of South African schooling from financing and policy reform to in depth discussions of literacy numeracy teacher development and curriculum change The book moves beyond a historical analysis and provides an inside view of the questions South African scholars are now grappling with Are there different and preferential equilibria we have not yet thought of or explored and if so what are they In practical terms how does one get to a more equitable distribution of teachers resources and learning outcomes While decidedly local these questions resonate throughout the developing world South Africa today is the most unequal country in the world The richest 10% of South Africans lay claim to 65% of national income and 90% of national wealth This is the largest 90/10 gap in the world and one that is reflected in the schooling system Two decades after apartheid it is still the case that the life chances of most South African children are determined not by their ability or the result of hard work and determination but instead by the colour of their skin the province of their birth and the wealth of their parents Looking back on almost three decades of democracy in South Africa it is this stubbornness of inequality and its patterns of persistence that demands explanation justification and analysis This is a landmark book on basic education in South Africa an essential volume for those interested in learning outcomes and their inequality in South Africa The various chapters present conceptually and empirically sophisticated analyses of learning outcomes across divisions of race class and place The book brings together the wealth of decades of research output from top quality researchers to explore what has improved what has not and why Prof Lant Pritchett Harvard University There is much wisdom in this collection from many of the best education analysts in South Africa No surprise that they conclude that without a large and sustained expansion in well trained teachers early childhood education and adequate school resources South Africa will continue to sacrifice its people's future to maintaining the privileges of the few Prof Martin Carnoy Stanford University Altogether one can derive from this very valuable volume if not an exact blueprint for the future then certainly at least a crucial and evidence based itinerary for the next few steps Dr Luis Crouch RTI

Lived Experiences of Borderland Communities in Zimbabwe Nedson Popphiwa, Joshua Matanzima, Kirk Helliker, 2023-06-27 This book examines the national borders and borderlands of Zimbabwe through the presentation of empirically rich case studies It delves into the lived experiences both past and present of populations residing along the borders between Zimbabwe and its neighbours i e

Zambia Botswana South Africa and Mozambique It locates these lived experiences within the political economy of Zimbabwe and highlights a wide range of themes pertinent to borders including health COVID 19 marginalisation resource access conservation human wildlife conflicts civil wars politico economic crises border jumping and cross border trade The borderland communities discussed also include ethnic minorities such as the Tonga San Ndau Shangane and Kalanga Overall the book demonstrates the centrality of borders to the Zimbabwean nation state and the importance of reading history politics and society from the borderlands The book fits into the wider prevailing literature of border and borderlands in Africa and beyond and thus has appeal far beyond Zimbabwe Its diverse themes also relate to topics covered in multiple disciplines including history anthropology and sociology Academics development specialists and policy makers will benefit in different ways from the depth and breadth of the analysis in the book

The human dilemma of displacement Alfred R.

Brunsdon,2020-12-31 In this book social responsive theological research converges to provide practical theological and ecclesiological perspectives on the growing human dilemma of displacement The book presents the research of practical theologians a missiologist and a religious practitioner whose work pertains first and foremost to the South African context The different fields of expertise of the contributors within the broader field of practical theology worked towards a unique compilation of themes each relevant to the issue at stake The majority of chapters are theoretically orientated except where authors refer to empirical work conducted during previous research The main contribution of this collaborative work is to be sought in the practical theological and ecclesiological perspectives it provides It engages the critical questions of what kind of church we need and what kind of care we should provide in the face of the growing predicament of human displacement The theological and theoretical principles uncovered in the different chapters will be of use to theologians from all theological subdisciplines as well as to religious practitioners and leaders of faith communities that are challenged with the growing realities of strangers on their doorsteps and in their pews
