University Of Limpopo Application Form For 2015:

Research Methods for Educational Leadership and Management Musundire, Austin, 2025-05-13 Various research methods including action case study and experimental research can be tailored for educational leadership and management. Different research designs, data collection techniques and data analysis methods have differing strengths, weaknesses and challenges. As a result, it is crucial to develop the skills and confidence needed to conduct high quality research. Developing a deeper understanding of how to conduct rigorous research may consequently foster more effective and innovative research leading to improved educational policies, practices and outcomes. Research Methods for Educational Leadership and Management illustrates how these methods can be effectively applied to address issues in educational leadership and management. It promotes best practices in educational research by highlighting ethical considerations, addressing common challenges and providing strategies for overcoming these obstacles. Covering topics such as equity, employment practices, high performance culture and professional competencies, this book is an excellent resource for educational leaders, school managers, school administrators, policymakers, researchers, professionals, scholars, academicians and more. Practices and Perspectives of Teaching and Teacher Education in Africa Boadu, Gideon, Odhiambo, George, Marandi, Pegah, 2023-09-25 Teacher education is a known variable that impacts the quality of teaching and schooling, yet while research on practices in teaching and teacher education abound in other contexts, there seems to be no comprehensive reference work on teaching and teacher education in Africa. With Africa and the diaspora boasting rich, diverse political and educational contexts and practices, this gap in knowledge requires that attention be focused on investigating issues that shape the pace, course and direction of teaching and teacher education in these contexts. Practices and Perspectives of Teaching and Teacher Education in Africa facilitates scholarly discussions among scholars and practitioners about practices, innovations and future possibilities for educating the next generation of competent students and teachers in Africa. Covering topics such as educational reforms, equity, career progression and curriculum development, this major reference work is ideal for administrators, industry professionals, researchers, academicians, scholars, practitioners, instructors and students.

International Handbook of Emotions Claude-Hélène Mayer, Elisabeth Vanderheiden, 2025-05-10 Volume 2 of this two volume handbook extends the foundational understanding of emotional well being through the lens of positive psychology into the realms of cultural diversity, societal impacts and the influence of technology. This volume offers an in depth examination of the societal impact of emotions, cultural interpretations and the emerging significance of digital and robotic interactions with emotions. It encompasses a wide range of topics including the effects of global crises on emotional well being, the role of art and literature in understanding emotions and the future of emotional intelligence in the age of digital technology. Studies featured in this Volume 2 provide insight into emotional experiences across diverse cultures, the resilience of immigrants and refugees and the psychological dynamics of collective behaviour alongside considerations of how technology is reshaping our emotional lives The volume stands as a critical academic resource enriching the discourse on the global and transcultural dimensions of emotional well being It highlights the pivotal role of cultural and technological considerations in advancing our understanding of emotions and sets a new benchmark for research and practice in the field Aimed at scholars researchers and practitioners in psychology cultural studies and technological innovation this volume also addresses educators policymakers and anyone with a keen interest in understanding the complex interplay between emotion culture and technology By bridging gaps between disciplines this volume fosters a more comprehensive and nuanced understanding of emotional well being across different cultural contexts and technological environments It prompts interdisciplinary dialogue offering evidence based insights for mental health practices educational strategies and policymaking Emotion science has progressed enormously in the last decade For those wishing to get insight into the depth and breadth of this progress this is a terrific edited 2 volume overview brought together by two internationally recognised emotion researchers It takes a biopsychosocial approach exploring the multiple dimensions of emotion science and how it can be applied to many different aspects of human life from therapy through to the organisation of communities It will be a must have book for anyone interested in understanding the complexities of emotions Prof Paul Gilbert PhD FBPSS OBE Centre for Compassion Research and Training College of Health Psychology and Social Care University of Derby United Kingdom

The Politics of Precarity
Gediminas Lesutis,2021-12-30 Based on critical theory and ethnographic research this book explores how intensifying geographies of extractive capitalism shape human lives and transformative politics in marginal areas of the global economy Engaging the work of Judith Butler Henri Lefebvre and Jacques Rancière with ethnographic research on social and political effects of mining induced dispossession in Mozambique in the book Lesutis theorises how precarity unfolds as a spatially constituted condition of everyday life given over to the violence of capital Going beyond labour relations or governance of life in liberal democracies that are typically explored in the literature on precarity the book shows how dispossessed people are subjected to structural symbolic and direct modalities of violence this simultaneously constitutes their suffering and ceaseless desire however implausible to be included into abstract space of extractivism As a result despite the multifarious violence that it engenders extractive capital accumulation is sustained even in the margins historically excluded from contingently lived imaginaries of a good life promised by capitalism Presenting this theorisation of precarity as a framework on and a critique of the contemporary politics of unliveability the book speaks to key debates about precarity dispossession resistance extractivism and development in several disciplines especially political geography IPE global politics and critical theory It will also be of interest to scholars in development studies critical political economy and African politics

Anthropology and Responsibility Melissa Demian, Mattia Fumanti, Christos Lynteris, 2023-03-31 This book explores the role and implications of responsibility for anthropology asking how responsibility is recognised and invoked in the world what relations it draws upon and how it comes to define notions of the person institutional practices ways of knowing and modes of evaluation The category of responsibility has a long genealogy within the discipline of anthropology and it surfaces in contemporary debates as well as in anthropologists collaboration with other disciplines including when anthropology is applied in fields such as development medicine and humanitarian response As a category that unsettles challenges and critically engages with political ethical and epistemological questions responsibility is central to anthropological theory ethnographic practice collaborative research and applied engagement With chapters focused on a variety of cultural contexts this volume considers how anthropology can contribute to a better understanding of responsibility including the responsibility of anthropology and the responsibility of anthropologists to specific others Africa's Urban Youth Amy S.

Patterson, Tracy Kuperus, Megan Hershey, 2023-08-10 Making up 65 percent of Africa's population young people between the ages of 18 and 35 play a key role in politics yet they live in an environment of rapid urbanization high unemployment rates and poor state services Drawing from extensive fieldwork in Ghana Uganda and Tanzania this book investigates how Africa's urban youth cultivate a sense of citizenship in this challenging environment and what it means to them to be a good citizen In interviews and focus group discussions African youth activists and community leaders vividly explain how income religion and gender intertwine with their sense of citizenship and belonging Though Africa's urban youth face economic and political marginalization as well as generational tensions they craft a creative citizenship identity that is rooted in their relationships and obligations both to each other and the state Privileging above all the voice and agency of Africa's young people this is a vital systematic examination of youth and youth citizenship in urban environments across Africa Nematology in South Africa: A View from the 21st Century Hendrika Fourie, Vaughan W. Spaull, Robin K. Jones, Mieke S. Daneel, Dirk De

Waele, 2017-02-28 This unique book contains not only a comprehensive up to date summary of the achievements made in all areas of Nematology in South Africa over more than half a century but it also combines this rather technical part with an insiders narrative of how Nematology started and developed It also demonstrates how the South African community of nematologists gradually adapted to major changes in agriculture These were due to a major political shift followed by socio economic changes and this in an often challenging natural environment At the same time this book is conceived as a useful source for young scientists to provide them with practical knowledge and critical insight in the field of Nematology The information given is based primarily on research conducted by nematologists in South Africa Most of this research was aimed at finding workable solutions for nematological problems confronted by both large scale commercial producers and smallholding farmers During a period when funding for scientific research is becoming increasingly scarce the future demand and quest for practical solutions by applied research will only increase Sociology in South Africa R.

Sooryamoorthy,2016-08-13 This book is the first comprehensive account of the history and current state of South African sociology Providing a holistic picture of the subject both as it is taught in universities and as a field of research it reveals the trajectories of a discipline in a challenging socio political context With the support of historical and scientometric data it demonstrates how the changing political situation from colonialism to apartheid to democracy has influenced the nature direction and foci of sociological research in the country The author shows how during the apartheid era sociology was professionally fragmented and divided along language and race lines It was however able to flourish with the advent of democracy in 1994 and has become a unique academic movement This insightful work will appeal to students and scholars of the social sciences and all those interested in the history and society of South Africa South Africa Yearbook ,2009
