The Oxford Handbook of Musical Repatriation Frank D. Gunderson, Robert C. Lancefield, Bret D. Woods, 2019 The Oxford Handbook of Musical Repatriation is a significant edited volume that critically explores issues surrounding musical repatriation chiefly of recordings from audiovisual archives The Handbook provides a dynamic and richly layered collection of stories and critical questions for anyone engaged or interested in repatriation or archival work Repatriation often is overtly guided by an ethical mandate to return something to where it belongs by such means as working to provide reconnection and Indigenous control and access to cultural materials Essential as these mandates can be this remarkable volume reveals dimensions to repatriation beyond those which can be understood as simple acts of giving back or returning an archive to its homeland Musical repatriation can entail subjective negotiations involving living subjects intangible elements of cultural heritage and complex histories situated in intersecting webs of power relations and manifold other contexts The forty eight expert authors of this book s thirty eight chapters engage with multifaceted aspects of musical repatriation situating it as a concept encompassing widely ranging modes of cultural work that can be both profoundly interdisciplinary and embedded at the core of ethnographic and historical scholarship These authors explore a rich variety of these processes many streams making the volume a compelling space for critical analysis of musical repatriation and its wider significance The Handbook presents these chapters in a way that offers numerous emergent perspectives depending on one s chosen trajectory through the volume From retracing the paths of archived collections to exploring memory performance research goals institutional power curation preservation pedagogy and method media and transmission digital rights and access policy and privilege intellectual property ideology and the evolving institutional norms that have marked the preservation and ownership of musical archives The Oxford Handbook of Musical Repatriation addresses these key topics and more in a deep richly detailed and diverse exploration

Delirious Consumption Sergio Delgado Moya, 2017-10-11 In the decades following World War II the creation and expansion of massive domestic markets and relatively stable economies allowed for mass consumption on an unprecedented scale giving rise to the consumer society that exists today Many avant garde artists explored the nexus between consumption and aesthetics questioning how consumerism affects how we perceive the world place ourselves in it and make sense of it via perception and emotion Delirious Consumption focuses on the two largest cultural economies in Latin America Mexico and

Brazil and analyzes how their artists and writers both embraced and resisted the spirit of development and progress that defines the consumer moment in late capitalism Sergio Delgado Moya looks specifically at the work of David Alfaro Siqueiros the Brazilian concrete poets Octavio Paz and Lygia Clark to determine how each of them arrived at forms of aesthetic production balanced between high modernism and consumer culture He finds in their works a provocative positioning vis vis urban commodity capitalism an ambivalent position that takes an assured but flexible stance against commodification alienation and the politics of domination and inequality that defines market economies In Delgado Moya s view these poets and artists appeal to uselessness nonutility and noncommunication all markers of the aesthetic while drawing on the terms proper to a world of consumption and consumer culture The ^AEnlightenment on Trial Bianca Premo,2017-01-19

The principal protagonists of this history of the Enlightenment are non literate poor and enslaved colonial litigants who began to sue their superiors in the royal courts of the Spanish empire With comparative data on civil litigation and close readings of the lawsuits The Enlightenment on Trial explores how ordinary Spanish Americans actively produced modern concepts of law
