Extended Curriculum Programmes Tennyson Mgutshini , 2022-04-30 The introduction of ECPs in South African Universities is seen by many as South Africa s key strategy for addressing the problem of poor patterns of student success and has its basis on the uncontested acceptance that an extended study duration may be necessary to bring some categories of learners to a level of parity with the readiness expectations of their course of study Even so this transformative strategic imperative has been plagued by a range of challenges that include poor systems readiness poor selection mechanisms in the identification of ECP students poor numeracy and literacy amongst students and indifferent teacher involvement in ECPs This volume offers a rare insight into many of the above recognised challenges and in so doing provides critical matter for thought for educators within the higher education sector

Annual Report ... South Africa. Department of Higher Education and Training, 2016

Promoting sustainable local economic development initiatives Marius Venter, 2022 This book endeavours to outline case studies that promote sustainable Local Economic Development LED initiatives It is generally believed that local governments are the foot soldiers of LED However this seems to be a myth as local governments in South Africa and elsewhere have not yet fulfilled this mandate and have been struggling for several years to implement LED initiatives The distinctive merit of this book lies in the way it combines the South African context with the wider international development context in ways that there is a flow of information and ideas both ways The book is an essential part of this sequence of ideas development and action at a critical time for strategic action directed at a sustainable future It showcases case studies and responses to the impacts of globalisation as a bridge between urban rural and institutional action and reveals avenues for local government leadership in communities research student engagement and wider interactions

Health and Educational Success Tebogo Maria Mothiba, Takalani Mutshatshi, Irene Ramavhoya, 2023-12-06 This book discusses health and educational success from a variety of perspectives It discusses the management of various health conditions such as diabetic mellitus epilepsy mental

Proceedings of the International Conference on Education Research Reza Hosseini, Protest in South Africa Heidi Brooks, Rekgotsofetse Chikane, 2024-01-23 Popular protest has become a regular feature of post 1994 South Africa As a young democracy born out of resistance we may understand the contemporary manifestations of protest as extensions of this broader history However it is notably in the context of formal democratic institutions that popular protest has become an increasingly normalised mode of influencing policy demanding service delivery and forcing change Protest is constitutive of South Africa s democratic politics but also reflective of it Protest in South Africa Rejection reassertion reclamation explores the underpinnings of contemporary protest and both its short term causes and structural drivers Focusing on the surge of protest from the mid 2000s this edited volume provides an overview of the complexity of protest action the diversity of protest spaces and actors and responses to protest from both citizens and state The volume situates its analysis against the backdrop of the global wave of protest witnessed since the turn of the 21 century while examining protest in South Africa s local and historical contexts Contributors to the volume examine protests in relation to among other factors provision of infrastructure and services contestations around socio economic development issues of citizenship and demands for inclusive democratic governance Chapters also examine the role of women in protest action the policing of protest and the intersection of protest action with spaces of formal politics The volume also alerts us to the darker side of protest and the destruction and division it may foment It thus considers the prospects of South Africa s evolving sometimes violent protest terrain for social and state stability and democratic progress In the diversity of spaces sectors and communities of interests in which collective action has emerged Protest in South Africa Rejection reassertion reclamation shows how protest is underpinned by a rejection of the status quo a reassertion of interests and a reclaiming of the political and democratic space Higher Education

Pathways Paul Ashwin,M. Case,2018-12-13 In what ways does access to undergraduate education have a transformative impact on people and societies What conditions are required for this impact to occur What are the pathways from an undergraduate education to the public good including inclusive economic development These questions have particular resonance in the South African higher education context which is attempting to tackle the challenges of widening access and improving completion rates in in a system in which the segregations of the apartheid years are still apparent Higher education is recognised in core legislation as having a distinctive and crucial role in building post apartheid society Undergraduate education is seen as central to addressing skills shortages in South Africa It is also seen to yield significant social returns including a consistent positive impact on societal institutions and the development of a range of capabilities that have public as well as private benefits This book offers comprehensive contemporary evidence that allows for a fresh engagement with these pressing issues Assessing Academic Literacy in a Multilingual Society Albert

Weideman,John Read,Theo du Plessis,2020-11-02 South African universities face major challenges in meeting the needs of their students in the area of academic language and literacy The dominant medium of instruction in the universities is English and to a much lesser extent Afrikaans but only a minority of the national population are native speakers of these languages Nine other languages can be media of instruction in schools which makes the transition to tertiary education difficult enough in itself for students from these schools The focus of this book is on procedures for assessing the academic language and literacy levels and needs of students not in order to exclude students from higher education but rather to identify those who would benefit from further development of their ability in order to undertake their degree studies successfully The volume also aims to bring the innovative solutions designed by South African educators to a wider international audience The Geography of South Africa Jasper Knight,Christian M. Rogerson,2018-10-03 This edited collection examines contemporary directions in geographical research on South Africa It encompasses a cross section of selected themes of critical importance not only to the discipline of Geography in South Africa but also of relevance to other areas of the Global South All chapters are original contributions providing a state of the art research baseline on key themes in physical human and environmental geography and in understanding the changing geographical landscapes of modern South Africa These contributions set the scene for an understanding of the relationships between modern South Africa and the wider contemporary world including issues of sustainable development and growth in the Global South     The Architecture of Illegal Markets Jens Beckert, Matías Dewey, 2017-07-26 From illegal drugs stolen artwork and forged trademarks to fraud in financial markets the phenomenon of illegality in market exchanges is pervasive Illegal markets have great economic significance have relevant social and political consequences and shape economic and political structures Despite the importance of illegality in the economy the field of economic sociology unquestioningly accepts the premise that the institutional structures and exchanges taking place in markets are law abiding in nature This volume makes a contribution to changing this Questions that stand at the centre of the chapters are What are the interfaces between legal and illegal markets How do demand and supply in illegal markets interact What role do criminal organizations play in illegal markets What is the relationship between illegality and governments Is illegality a phenomenon central to capitalism Anchored in economic sociology this book contributes to the analysis and understanding of market exchanges in conditions of illegality from a perspective that focuses on the social organization of markets Offering both theoretical reflections and case studies the chapters assembled in the volume address the consequences of the illegal production distribution and consumption of products for the architecture of markets It also focuses on the underlying causes and the political and social concerns stemming from the infringement of the law     A GUIDE TO BEING AN EXTRAORDINARY STUDENT Jeremia Lelosa, Mahlodi Kgatle, Morongwa Maifo, Sibusiso Gama, Treasure Mokalapa, Tieho Hans, 2017-03-04 This is an inspirational and motivational book for students at University and or College as well as those who have aspirations of furthering their studies at university and or college post matric The contributors from various institutions of higher learning in South Africa share their secrets to success in this collection of experiences The contributors share their philosophies of success they share strategies they have employed which managed to assist them in graduating Students in particular junior students will benefit immensely from the comprehensive coverage of core study skills and learning strategies presented in a straightforward and relatable manner The book also helps students avoid academic exclusion and inspires them to achieve academic excellence However this book does not only cover academic success It also covers leadership and entrepreneurship which are necessary elements in today s fast and changing world Unlike any other student success guide books that are currently on the market this book is unique and offers a broad perspective from many students Again the book is written by people with a lived experience It offers an insider view This book was written by leaders of Faculty of Best Advisory FBA published and is distributed by Club Readership     Cohabitation and the Evolving Nature of Intimate and Family Relationships Sampson Lee Blair, Yongjun Zhang, 2023-12-08 Given the tremendous diversity in cohabiting couples as well as the increasing prominence of this form of intimate relationships this volume provides a more thorough comprehension of the structures effects and intimate practice of cohabitation around the world      Migration, Crisis and Temporality at the Zimbabwe-South Africa Border Kudakwashe Vanyoro, 2024-02-29 Only 15 kilometres away from the border of Zimbabwe Musina is an obscure town in South Africa that the media cast into the public eye in the wake of the 2008 Zimbabwean economic crisis Taking as its starting point the arrival of thousands of displaced Zimbabwean migrants at Musina this book presents valuable new perspectives on the temporality of migration and the governance of immobilities The author explores the role of humanitarian actors in supporting migrants and examines the outcomes of government led activities in the longer term This is an insightful assessment of how state and non state practices intertwine in the management of largely immobile people and of the importance of time in understanding African migration and borders      Being and Becoming Indigenous Archaeologists George Nicholas, 2016-06-16 What does being an archaeologist mean to Indigenous persons How and why do some become archaeologists What has led them down a path to what some in their communities have labeled a colonialist venture What were are the challenges they have faced and the motivations that have allowed them to succeed How have they managed to balance traditional values and worldview with Western modes of inquiry And how are their contributions broadening the scope of archaeology Indigenous archaeologists have the often awkward role of trying to serves as spokespeople both for their home community and for the scientific community of archaeologists This volume tells the stories in their own words of 37 indigenous archaeologists from six continents how they became archaeologists and how their dual role affects their relationships with their community and their professional colleagues Sponsored by the World Archaeological Congress
