Homeschooling High School Shirley Erwee, 2014-08-28 Prospective homeschoolers are parents looking for an alternative to the mainstream educational system for their offspring But homeschooling children at high school level strikes fear into even the most dedicated of homeschoolers They need information and answers to their questions And with the current educational and unemployment problems in South Africa young people need clear direction and guidance to help them achieve their goals In addition to exploring the popular ways to gaining a recognised matric certificate outside the formal school system Homeschooling High School also challenges readers to rethink their values particularly the value they place on certification and to consider some unconventional or alternative paths to success In a clearly presented format the book includes advice on legal matters identifying appropriate courses sourcing study material tips on entrepreneurship financing tertiary studies and the testimonies of successful homeshooled graduates Homeschooling High School is a comprehensive guide to plotting a path through high school and beyond

Looking Through Philosophy in Black Mabogo Percy More, 2018-12-11 This autobiography is a series of interrelated true life events and decisions taken by a black philosopher that highlight the human drama unfolding in the inferno of the South African apartheid system Mabogo More details what it means to be a black philosopher in an anti black apartheid academic world More s life story traces his emergence in philosophy and his pursuit of a philosophical dream a dream that takes him from his South African black ghetto township to American and British universities and finally to the prestigious Frantz Fanon Lifetime Achievement award His extraordinary philosophical autobiography with an emphasis on Africana existentialism that takes into account issues of racism identity liberation freedom alienation responsibility and bad faith is supplemented by three key essays from his intellectual career representing the extraordinary contribution he has made to Africana philosophy and black existentialism

Investigating Corruption and White-collar Crime in South African Higher Education Bethuel Sibongiseni Ngcamu, 2025-10-16 Using an interpretivist approach this qualitative volume interrogates instances of corruption and white collar crime prevalent in South African higher education institutions and suggests pathways for the proactive detection and prevention of corrupt practices Contextualizing the author s practical experiences gained in the higher education sector over the past two decades this book employs an ethnographical method to explore the complexity of university systems structures and functions that make South Africa s formerly disadvantaged universities more susceptible to corruption In the midst of highly contested divisive and highly politicized ways of reporting corruption in the media chapters provide critical analyses guided by scientific approaches robust data sets and qualitative face to face interviews to underpin the reliability of proposed policy amendments intended to detect and prevent corruption and white collar crime as well as the suggested closure of loop holes that make the sector vulnerable to and known for a high level of criminality Making a substantial contribution to broader academic debate around corruption and university management internationally this book will be of interest to researchers and postgraduate students in the field of higher education higher education management and administration and education policy and politics Policy makers in both the Global South and North are also likely to benefit from this book Extended Curriculum Programmes Tennyson Mgutshini,2022-04-30 The introduction of ECPs in South African Universities is seen by many as South Africa s key strategy for addressing the problem of poor patterns of student success and has its basis on the uncontested acceptance that an extended study duration may be necessary to bring some categories of learners to a level of parity with the readiness expectations of their course of study Even so this transformative strategic imperative has been plagued by a range of challenges that include poor systems readiness poor selection mechanisms in the identification of ECP students poor numeracy and literacy amongst students and indifferent teacher involvement in ECPs This volume offers a rare insight into many of the above recognised challenges and in so doing provides critical matter for thought for educators within the higher education sector

Accessing Post-School Studies Venica McGhie,2017-12-01 This publication makes a valuable contribution to often problematic and pertinent South African higher education issues such as student access and success student learning student support and student engagement In this regard the authors draw on the works of higher education theorists such as Kuh Tinto Marton and Saeljoe The book is primarily a helpful resource for South African learners in school students at universities life orientation teachers as well as parents of prospective university students It will especially assist students to adapt to the university environment

Strengthening Postgraduate Supervision Sioux McKenna,Jenny Clarence-Fincham,Chrissie Boughey,Harry Wels,Henk van den Heavel,2017-03-22 An excellent collection of diverse and deeply reflective perspectives All offer insights into the multiple challenges confronted in improving the quality and depth of postgraduate supervision increasing throughput and dealing with complexity What is also affirmed is the importance of individual capability in supervision that is developed and nurtured over time and through arduous effort The book will be of value to novice supervisors and to more experienced ones Policy makers planners and administrators looking to enlarge their understanding of the postgraduate terrain in all its complexities will find the mix of theoretical and practical lenses through which the topic is approached particularly illuminating Professor Narend Baijnath Chief Executive Officer Council on Higher Education

Let's Talk About Varsity ,2009 Social Work in Social Change Nicci Earle,2008 This study forms part of a series of studies on professions and professional education being conducted by the HSRC s research programme on Education Science Skills Development It follows a pilot study on medical doctors published in 2006 entitled Doctors in a Divided Society The profession and education of medical practitioners in South Africa Like the other studies in the series this study involved developing an understanding of the professional milieu and professional labour market of social workers As the implementers of government social policy social work professionals have been at the forefront of grappling with the practicalities of the changes in focus approach and methods of social security and social service delivery since 1994 It examines developments in the education and training of social workers within the democratic dispensation the most significant of which is the development of a national standardised Bachelor of Social Work degree The study also reveals that the dominant profile in student enrolment and graduation statistics has changed from white female to African female and that enrolment has increased significantly However the study also shows that graduation trends have been negative and losses due to emigration are an additional concern Given the scarcity of these professionals against the demand for their services understanding the factors that contribute to this picture are critical to effective intervention

Dependence and Interdependence in Education Keith Watson, 2012 This volume provides an international perspective on educational dependency in considering both theories and actual developments throughout the world Some less developed countries in expanding their education systems have emulated Western academic style systems and have increased their dependence on Western models in various respects including examination validation Others have deliberately avoided this path and have experimented with systems more relevant to development often in a radical way At a theoretical level Marxist and neo Marxist development theorists argue that education systems dependent on the West are evidence of economic dependency and confirmation of Marxist development theories while others argue that the evidence suggests an interdependent world and that dependency theories do not apply in education

The Pursuit of a Brave New World in International Law Tiyanjana Maluwa, Max du Plessis, Dire Tladi, 2017-01-09 The Pursuit of a Brave New World in International Law presents critical perspectives on various inter related themes in the areas of human rights international law terrorism and international criminal justice The discussions reflect the wide ranging subjects that John Dugard has engaged with over the last five decades as an international law scholar teacher and judge The essays pay homage to Professor Dugard s impressive body of work as both a theorist and practitioner of international law and international human rights law While some of the discussions in the volume critically examine his views as expressed in his academic writings judicial opinions and official United Nations reports others deal with subjects that have been inspired by or are related to Dugard s work Contributors are Neil Boister Trevor P Chimimba James Crawford David Dyzenhaus Christopher Greenwood Larissa van den Herik Christof Heyns Maurice Kamto Tiyanjana Maluwa Max du Plessis Thomas Probert Arnold Pronto Philippe Sands William A Schabas Ivan Shearer Hennie Strydom Mia Swart Dire Tladi Annemarieke Vermeer K nzli and Abdulqawi Yusuf

Authors of Their Own Lives Bennett M. Berger, 2023-04-28 All students and scholars are curious about the human faces behind the impersonal rhetoric of academic disciplines Here twenty of America s most prominent sociologists recount the intellectual and biographical events that shaped their careers Family history ethnicity fear private animosities extraordinary determination and sometimes plain good fortune are among the many forces that combine to mold the individual talents presented in Authors of Their Own Lives With contributions from women and men young and old native born Americans and immigrants quantitative scholars and qualitative ones this book provides a fascinating source for students and professional sociologists alike Some of the autobiographies maintain their reserve others are profoundly revealing Their subjects range from childhood educational and intellectual influences to academic careerism and burnout to the history of American sociology Authors stands alone as a deeply personal autobiographical account of contemporary sociology This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1990 All students and scholars are curious about the human faces behind the impersonal rhetoric of academic disciplines Here twenty of America s most prominent sociologists recount the intellectual and biographical events that shaped their careers Family his

Behind the Badge Andrew Faull,2010-11-05 Every South African has a strong opinion on crime and policing but most know very little about the lives and experiences of the average cop in the 185 000 strong South African Police Service This book is composed of excerpts from interviews with current and former members of the service who for the first time share their personal experiences of life behind the badge The book covers a wide range of themes including reasons for signing up training policing under apartheid and transformation after 1994 It describes the experience of solving cases using lethal force being shot at and losing colleagues Policemen and women speak frankly about the psychological toll of police work and the impact on their family lives and give startling insights into ethics torture corruption sex and power There is a mantra among police What happens on the shift stays on the shift In Behind the Badge members break through this wall of silence and reveal the hidden life of the police

Twenty Years of Education Transformation in Gauteng 1994 to 2014 Felix Maringe,Martin Prew,2015-05-05 Twenty Years of Education Transformation in Gauteng 1994 to 2014 An Independent Review presents a collection of 15 important essays on different aspects of education in Gauteng since the advent of democracy in 1994 These essays talk to what a provincial education department does and how and why it does these things whether it be about policy resourcing or implementing projects Each essay is written by one or more specialist in the relevant focus area The book is written to be accessible to the general reader as well as being informative and an essential resource for the specialist reader It sheds light on aspects of how a provincial department operates and why and with what consequences certain decisions have been made in education over the last 20 turbulent years both nationally and provincially There has been no attempt to fit the books chapters into a particular ideological or educational paradigm and as a result the reader will find differing views on various aspects of the Gauteng Department of Educations present and past We leave the reader to decide to what extent the GDE has fulfilled its educational mandate over the last 20 years
