Research Anthology on Collaboration, Digital Services, and Resource Management for the Sustainability of Libraries Management Association, Information Resources, 2021-01-15 Faced with increased budget cuts libraries must continue to advance their services through new technologies and practices in order to keep pace with the rapid changes society is currently facing The once traditional in person services offered can no longer be the only option and to keep themselves afloat libraries must offer more in terms of digital services The convenience of offering mobile and digital services brings a new wave of accessibility to libraries and a new question on just how much libraries will need to change to meet the newfound needs of its patrons Beyond offering these digital services libraries are incorporating other types of technology in multifaceted ways such as utilizing artificial intelligence practices social media and big data management Moreover libraries are increasingly looking for ways to partner and collaborate with the community faculty students and other libraries in order to keep abreast of the best practices and needs of their users The Research Anthology on Collaboration Digital Services and Resource Management for the Sustainability of Libraries explores emerging strategies and technologies that are redefining the role of the library within communities and academia This reference book covers extensive ground on all the ways libraries have shifted to manage their resources digitalize their services and market themselves within the new technological revolution These continued shifts for libraries come with benefits challenges and future projections that are critical for discussion as libraries continue to strive to remain updated and relevant in times of change This book is ideal for librarians archivists collection managers IT specialists electronic resource librarians practitioners stakeholders researchers academicians and students who are interested in the current state of libraries and how they are transforming to fit modern needs Challenges and Opportunities of Open Educational Resources Management Thanuskodi, S., 2020-06-26 Education is a fundamental human right yet much of the world's population lives with poor literacy Due to rapidly growing technology and internet usage open educational resources OER are increasingly being used to help transcend barriers to literacy while also aiding in educational attainment With tremendous developments in ICTs the education system of today has been enriched by various OERs The optimal utilization of opportunities provided by the technological developments presents a profound challenge for education systems and has serious implications involving cost access equity pedagogy and quality Challenges and Opportunities of Open Educational Resources Management is an essential research publication that explores access to information and societal and economic hurdles that contribute to informational inaccessibility Highlighting topics such as e resources digital libraries and information management this book is ideal for librarians academicians computer scientists researchers policymakers and students Moreover the book will provide insights and support executives concerned with the management of expertise knowledge information and organizational development in different types of work communities and environments Performing Identities Geoffrey V.

Davis,2017-07-05 Performing Identities brings together essays by scholars artists and activists engaged in understanding and conserving rapidly disappearing local knowledge forms of indigenous communities across continents It depicts the imaginative transactions evident in the interface of identity and cultural transformation raising the issue of cultural rights of these otherwise marginalized communities Journal of Psychology in Africa ,2008 Imagining the Edgy City Loren Kruger,2013-10-30 All roads lead to Johannesburg remarks the narrator of Alan Paton s novel Cry The Beloved Country Taking this quote as her impetus Loren Kruger guides readers into the heart of South Africa s largest city Exploring a wide range of fiction film architecture performance and urban practices from trading to parades Imagining the Edgy City traverses Johannesburg s rich cultural terrain over the last century The edgy city in Kruger s exploration refers not only to persistent boundaries between the haves and have nots but also to the cosmopolitan diversity and innovation that has emerged from Johannesburg The book begins with the building boom performances and uneven but noteworthy inter racial exchange that marked the city s fiftieth anniversary celebration at the Empire Exhibition in 1936 This celebration rapidly gave way to the political repression and civil unrest that characterized South Africa from 1950 to 1990 Yet poetry drama fiction and photography continued to thrive bearing witness not only against apartheid but to alternatives beyond it In the late twentieth century the not quite post apartheid condition fired the artistic imaginations of film makers as well as novelists Urban neglect rising crime and the influx of migrants inspired noir cinema like Michael Hammon s Wheels and Deals and fiction about migration from Achmat Dangor to Phaswane Mpe and in the twenty first urban renewal has produced public art that incorporates the desire lines of newcomers as well as natives Alongside well known artists such as Nadine Gordimer William Kentridge and David Goldblatt the book introduces many artists architects writers and other chroniclers who have hitherto received little attention abroad Ultimately Johannesburg emerges as a city whose negotiation of the tensions between incivility and innovation invites comparisons with modern conurbations across the world not only African cities such as Dakar or other cities of the south such as Bogot but also with major metropolises in North America and Europe from Chicago to Paris A multi faceted work that speaks to scholars in urban studies literature and history Imagining the Edgy City is a rich example of interdisciplinary scholarship at its best Restoring Human Dignity and Building Self-reliance Leslie Anne Hadfield,2010 Resources in Education ,1984 Turfloop Testimony G. M. Nkondo,1976 Background information on higher education for blacks in South Africa and a report on the University of the North is presented While the English language universities in South Africa have emphasized academic freedom and autonomy and have been open to nonwhite students the Afrikaans language universities have conformed to national policy and the social order and have been closed to blacks In 1959 legislation established universities exclusively for blacks and governed by whites based on a policy of separate development and a belief in fundamental racial differences The growth of black consciousness and sensitivity toward differential and discriminatory practices is considered along with confrontations that occurred between the State and the students of the University of the North Findings are presented of a one person judicial Commission of Inquiry the Snyman Commission which investigated management issues the causes of disturbances at the University of the North and the Black Academic Staff Association The Commission recommended introducing a largely black governing council and authorizing joint responsibility of blacks and whites for teaching and administrative functions allowing students to choose among universities and eliminating differential salaries and conditions for black and white staff The study commission s questionnaire items and answers are presented SW Black Review ,1977 The Super-Afrikaners Ivor Wilkins,Hans Strydom,2012-08-28 The Super Afrikaners originally published in South Africa in 1978 scandalised a nation as it exposed the secret workings of a powerful Afrikaner organisation called the Broederbond Out of print for over three decades this new edition is available for a new generation and includes an introduction by Max du Preez Formed in Johannesburg in 1918 by a group of young Afrikaners disillusioned by their role as dispossessed people in their own country the first triumph of this remarkable organisation was the fact that it was largely responsible for welding together dissident factions within Afrikanerdom and thereby ensuring the accession of the National Party to power in 1948 This highly organised clique of Super Afrikaners by sophisticated political intrigue waged a remarkable campaign to harness political social and economic forces in South Africa to its cause and succeeded Political journalists Hans Strydom and Ivor Wilkins traced at great personal risk its development from its earliest days The book includes the most comprehensive list of Broeders ever published The Corner People of Lady Selborne John Seakalala Mojapelo,2009 Lady Selborne was a comparatively small place situated in an area on the slopes of the gentle Magaliesberg mountains to the west of the city centre of Pretoria By 1942 the multiracial Lady Selborne was home to about 22 000 people the majority of whom were Northern Sotho but also including Nguni Shangaan coloured Indian white and Chinese people It was to become the largest Group Areas Act dispossession project in Pretoria back cover Psychological and Sociological Studies of the Black People of Africa, South of the Sahara, 1960-1975 ,1983 Comment & Opinion ,1976 Biko Lives! A. Mngxitama,A. Alexander,N. Gibson,2008-08-22 This collection looks at the on going significance of Black Consciousness situating it in a global frame examining the legacy of Steve Biko the current state of post apartheid South African politics and the culture and history of the anti apartheid movements South Africa ,1994 This book comprises of a collection of papers from a conference entitled South Africa Which Way Forward which was held in August 1992 in Cape Town The conference marked the formal launch of the South African chapter of the regional Southern African Political Economy Series SAPES Trust and of the African Association of Political Scientists AAPS International Review of Missions ,1960 The Cambridge Review ,1961 Vols 1 26 include a supplement The University pulpit vols 1 26 no 1 661 which has separate pagination but is indexed in the main vol Debates South Africa. Parliament. House of Assembly,1983 Vols 1 cover debates of the House of the 1st Parliament of the Republic of South Africa The Road to Democracy in South Africa: 1970-1980 South African Democracy Education

Trust, 2004 v 3 The third volume in the series examines the role of anti apartheid movements around the world The global anti apartheid movement was very successful in creating awareness of the liberation struggle in South Africa and in contributing to the downfall of the apartheid government This volume in 2 parts brings together analyses which in the main are written by activist scholars with deep roots in the movements and organizations they are writing about African Law Review, 1987
