An Epidemic of Uncertainty Jenny Trinitapoli, 2023-08-03 A decade long study of young adulthood in Malawi that demonstrates the impact of widespread HIV status uncertainty laying bare the sociological implications of what is not known An Epidemic of Uncertainty advances a new framework for studying social life by emphasizing something social scientists routinely omit from their theories models and measures what people know they don't know Taking Malawi's ongoing AIDS epidemic as an entry point Jenny Trinitapoli shows that despite admirable declines in new HIV infections and AIDS related mortality an epidemic of uncertainty persists at any given point in time fully half of Malawian young adults don't know their HIV status Reckoning with the impact of this uncertainty within the bustling trading town of Balaka Trinitapoli argues that HIV related uncertainty is measurable pervasive and impervious to biomedical solutions with consequences that expand into multiple domains of life including relationship stability fertility and health Over the duration of a groundbreaking decade long longitudinal study rich survey data and poignant ethnographic vignettes vividly depict how individual lives and population patterns unfold against the backdrop of an ever evolving epidemic Even as HIV is transformed from a progressive fatal disease to a chronic and manageable condition the accompanying epidemic of uncertainty remains fundamental to understanding social life in this part of the world Insisting that known unknowns can and should be integrated into social scientific models of human behavior An Epidemic of Uncertainty treats uncertainty as an enduring aspect a central feature and a powerful force in everyday life

Trends and Challenges of Medical Education in the Changing Academic and Public Health Environment of the 21st Century Mainul Haque, Mohammed S. Razzaque, Md Anwarul Azim Majumder, 2023-04-20 A Fraught Embrace Ann Swidler, Susan Cotts Watkins, 2018-12-04 In the wake of the AIDS pandemic legions of organizations and compassionate individuals from faraway places descended on Africa to offer help and save lives Ann Swidler and Susan Cotts Watkins vividly describe the often mismatched expectations and fantasies of altruists who dream of transforming lives of the villagers who desperately seek help and of the brokers on whom both Western altruists and impoverished villagers must rely Based on years of fieldwork in the heavily AIDS affected country of Malawi this incisive irreverent book digs into the sprawling AIDS enterprise and unravels the paradoxes of policy and practice All who want to do good from idealistic volunteers to world weary development professionals depend on brokers as guides fixers and cultural translators The mutual misunderstandings among these players create all the drama of a romance longing exhilaration disappointment heartache and sometimes an enduring connection A Fraught Embrace unveils the tangled relations of those involved in the collective struggle to contain an epidemic Towards Ensuring Inclusive and Equitable Quality Education for All Takeshi

Sekiya, Keiichi Ogawa, Yuto Kitamura, Akemi Ashida, 2024-11-09 This edited volume builds upon a rich literature base on quality equity and education for all It focuses on enrolment patterns in education and includes extensive micro level analytical data to support their findings The chapters include evidence based analytical methods with three global regions and eleven country case studies that contribute to the United Nations Sustainable Development Goal 4 SDG 4 Quality Education for All by 2030 The book offers valuable and practical learning materials for policymakers field practitioners researchers and research students specializing in comparative education international educational development and international cooperation Leapfrogging Africa Reiner Klingholz, Sabine Sütterlin, Alisa Kaps, Catherina Hinz, 2020-10-15 In this study we look at the potential for development leaps in Africa in three key sectors that provided the basis for socioeconomic development around the world health education and agriculture Advances in these sectors increase the human capital create jobs and economic opportunities and have a positive influence on each other Healthy and well fed children can learn better hygiene and better medical care diminish infant mortality which reduces the desire for a large number of children education for women promotes gender equality and causes birth rates to fall further This creates a population structure under which the economy can grow particularly well a demographic dividend becomes possible
