Unlikely Converts Randy Newman, 2019-07-30 Rely on the unstoppable power of the gospel not your own words Most Christians have people in their lives who they re sure will never come to faith Whether they re too committed to their sinful ways too angry at God or too quick to shut down any mention of the saving grace of Jesus these long shots don t seem worth approaching But some of the most unlikely converts have the strongest faith stories and they can be a source of incredible encouragement for Christians who are trying to evangelize those around them Randy Newman knows firsthand the discomfort that comes with sharing the gospel He s been tongue tied and timid too But the truth is we don t need to sound like the brilliant charismatic legendary evangelists In this book Randy shares surprising conversion stories straight from those who took the long way around to Christianity He considers current cultural trends that make evangelism more difficult

Writing a New Society V. Matheson-Hooker,2021-10-01 Writing a New Society is the first extended study of the novel in Malay and is a groundbreaking study of the relationship between social change and literary practice The book traces the emergence of the genre from the 1920s and drawing on 26 of Malaysia s best known novels argues that the form was developed as a vehicle for transforming Malay ideas about themselves and their society Virginia Hooker focuses on the underlying anxiety about racial identity which underpins much of Malay writing and examines how ethnic identity is constructed and expressed In a radical break with the traditional notion of Malay society as being totally dependent on the Sultan the book shows how the novelists centre their writings on descriptions of ordinary Malays and present the household as the primary site of change Here the novels develop and describe a private sphere where Malays who previously had no rights begin to exercise their initiative The concept of social equality which inspires the novelists subverts many of the themes of modern Malay politics
