Moses Arthur Nersesian,2025-07-01 A dramatic playful brutal sweeping and always entertaining reimagining of New York City history presaging today s political tyranny A postmodern masterwork that outdoes Pynchon in eccentricity and electricity with all its dazzling prose Kirkus Reviews Starred Review After a domestic terrorist unleashes a dirty bomb in Manhattan in 1970 making the borough uninhabitable FBI agent Uli Sarkisian finds himself in a world that is suddenly unrecognizable as the United States is faced with its greatest immigration crisis ever finding housing for millions of its own citizens The federal government hastily retrofits an abandoned military installation in the Nevada desert vast in size Despite the government s best intentions as the military pulls out of Rescue City the residents are increasingly left to their own devices and tribal warfare fuses with democracy forming a frightening evolution of the two party system the gangocracy Years after the Manhattan cleanup was supposed to have been finished Uli travels through this bizarre new New York City where he is forced to reckon with his past while desperately trying to get out alive The Five Books of Robert Moses alternates between the outrageous present of Rescue City and earlier in the twentieth century detailing the events leading up to the destruction of Manhattan We simultaneously follow legendary urban planner Robert Moses through his early years and are introduced to his equally ambitious older brother Paul a brilliant electrical engineer whose jealousy toward Robert and anger at the devastation caused by the man's urban renewal projects lead to a dire outcome Arthur Nersesian's most important work to date examines the political chaos of today's world through the lens of the past Fictional versions of real historical figures populate the pages from major politicians and downtown drag queens to notorious revolutionaries and obscure poets

Postmodern Fiction and the Break-Up of Britain Hywel Dix, 2011-11-03 This study explores how British identity has been explored and renegotiated by contemporary writers It starts by examining the new emphasis on space and place that has emerged in recent cultural analysis and shows how this spatial emphasis informs different literary texts Having first analysed a series of novels that draw an implicit parallel between the end of the British Empire and the break up of the unitary British state the study explores how contemporary writing in Northern Ireland Scotland and Wales contributes to a sense of nationhood in those places and so contributes to the break up of Britain symbolically Dix argues that the break up of Britain is not limited to political devolution in Northern Ireland Scotland and Wales It is also an imaginary process that can be found occurring on a number of other conceptual coordinates Feminism class regional identities and ethnic communities are all terrains on which different writers carry out a fictional questioning of received notions of Britishness and so contribute in different ways to the break up of Britain

A View from a Tall Hill Terry Wieland, 2020-10-27 Africa hunting short stories sporting Robert Ruark was perhaps the most renowned safari writer of the twentieth century As a respected columnist and author during his lifetime his writings have influenced thousands of hunters to travel to Africa to see the places that Ruark immortalized in his writings Despite his impact Ruark only wrote for a period of fifteen years but it was a time where he lived his life to its fullest potential He travelled all across the world in order to see and do everything he could dream of but it was in East Africa that he came to find a spiritual home As the area became increasingly independent of colonial rule Ruark predicted the economic social and political ruin that has since been the daily reality of the region In this detailed account of Ruark's life Terry Wieland has written a definitive book on Ruark the restless traveler and the times in which he lived as well as his lifelong fascination with Africa
