Up And Down Terry Fallis:

Up and Down Terry Fallis, 2012 On his first day at Turner King David Stewart quickly realizes that the world of international PR affectionately perhaps ironically known as the dark side is a far cry from his previous job on Parliament Hill For one he missed the office memo on the all black dress code for another there are enough acronyms and jargon to make his head spin Before he even has time to find the washroom David is assigned a major project devise a campaign to revitalize North America's interest in the space program maybe even show NASA's pollsters that watching a shuttle launch is more appealing than going out for lunch with friends The pressure is on and before long David finds himself suggesting the most out of this world idea imaginable a Citizen Astronaut lottery that would send one Canadian and one American to the International Space Station Suddenly David's vaulted into an odyssey of his own navigating the corporate politics of a big PR agency wading through the murky but always hilarious waters of Canada U S relations and trying to hold on to his new job while still doing the right thing
