Catalogue of Standard and Holiday Books A.C. McClurg & Co,1903 Journal of the United States Artillery ,1944 Love Stories Paul Manning,2015-05-15 In the remote highlands of the country of Georgia a small group of mountaineers called the Khevsurs used to express sexuality and romance in ways that appear to be highly paradoxical On the one hand their practices were romantic but could never lead to marriage On the other hand they were sexual but didn't correspond to what North Americans or most Georgians would have called sex These practices were well documented by early ethnographers before they disappeared completely by the midtwentieth century and have become a Georgian obsession In this fascinating book Manning recreates the story of how these private secretive practices became a matter of national interest concern and fantasy Looking at personal expressions of love and the circulation of these narratives at the broader public level of the modern nation Love Stories offers an ethnography of language and desire that doubles as an introduction to key linguistic genres and to the interplay of language and culture
