Nongovernmental Organizations Frederik Claeyé,2014-03-26 The idea that international development aid needs to be better managed and coordinated gained currency in the early 1990s The increasing emphasis on management has resulted in the present vogue of managing for development results as one of the central tenets in the discourse on international aid But how appropriate are these ideas tools and techniques for non governmental development organizations NGOs and how much does geographic context matter Examining the current debate on aid effectiveness and the role of NGOs in contributing to it this book highlights the critical importance of understanding how the global and the local interact to increase aid efficacy and develop more culturally astute ways of managing NGOs With a focus on NGOs active in sub Saharan Africa as case studies author Frederik Claey demonstrates that NGOs are not mere passive recipients of management knowledge and practices emanating from the global governance structure of international aid but actively engage with these ideas and practices to translate and rework them through a local cultural lens This process results in the emergence of unique hybrid management systems that combine the pressure to become more business like with the mission to satisfy the demands of the communities they serve

The Oxfam Poverty Report Kevin Watkins, 1995 Fifty years ago the United Nations Charter proclaimed universal rights to shared prosperity peace and security How far has that vision of world citizenship been realised Despite advances in human welfare and technology there is today a growing polarisation between rich and poor One in four of the world's people live in absolute poverty unable to meet their basic needs armed conflict is affecting millions of people and the global environment is under threat Yet there is a failure of political will to address the silent emergency of poverty The Oxfam Poverty Report draws on Oxfam's experience of working in over 70 countries to examine the causes of poverty and conflict It identifies the structural forces which deny people their basic rights and gives a wide range of examples of the ways in which men and women are bringing about positive change at every level from the household to the international arena Oxfam believes that it is time to renew the UN vision of universal basic rights The Report concludes by proposing policy and institutional reforms which would transform international institutions and trading relations and calls for a new commitment to work together to eradicate poverty and bring sustainable peace and security for all the world's people Revolutions in Development

Inquiry Robert Chambers, 2012 Robert Chambers returns with a new book that reviews together for the first time some of the revolutionary changes in the methodologies and methods of development inquiry that have occurred in the past forty years and reflects on their transformative potential for the future This book breaks new ground by describing and analysing the evolution of a sequence of approaches Starting with the dinosaurs of large scale multi subject questionnaire surveys and the biased visits and perceptions of rural development tourism and urban based professionals there follows a look at the explosive proliferation of methodologies and methods of recent years These include rapid rural appraisal RRA participatory rural appraisal PRA and dramatic developments in the still largely unrecognized fields of participatory numbers and statistics and of participatory mapping and GIS Chambers shows how these can empower local people and provide rigorous and valid substitutes for some more traditional methods of inquiry Also presented is a repertoire for offsetting the biases of the urban trap which has become so serious for officials and aid agency staff Importantly Chambers points out that we are now in a different space methodologically from a few years ago He makes the case that participatory methodologies evolved through creative and eclectic pluralism can be a transformative wave for the future as drivers of personal professional and institutional change This book is for all who are concerned with development regardless of profession discipline or organization who seek to be abreast of the revolutionary breakthroughs in approaches and methods of inquiry of recent years and what Chambers calls their unlimited potentials Published with IDS Enterprising Africa Stephen Dobson, Paul Jones, Daniel Agyapong, Gideon Maas, 2020-12-30 Enterprising Africa explores the future opportunities challenges growth areas and key themes that will shape entrepreneurship in the African continent over the next decade Entrepreneurship can be the key to unlock resilient growth but only if it is driven by both socially productive and growth oriented new businesses
