New Armies from Old Roy Licklider,2014-04-15 Negotiating a peaceful end to civil wars which often includes an attempt to bring together former rival military or insurgent factions into a new national army has been a frequent goal of conflict resolution practitioners since the Cold War In practice however very little is known about what works and what doesn t work in bringing together former opponents to build a lasting peace Contributors to this volume assess why some civil wars result in successful military integration while others dissolve into further strife factionalism and even renewed civil war Eleven cases are studied in detail Sudan Zimbabwe Lebanon Rwanda the Philippines South Africa Mozambique Bosnia Herzegovina Sierra Leone Democratic Republic of the Congo and Burundi while other chapters compare military integration with corporate mergers and discuss some of the hidden costs and risks of merging military forces New Armies from Old fills a serious gap in our understanding of civil wars their possible resolution and how to promote lasting peace and will be of interest to scholars and students of conflict resolution international affairs and peace and security studies Leading under Duress Jean-Pierre Bongila, 2024-11-15 This comparative study of teacher attrition in the Global South and OECD countries examines the exceptionality of twenty selected learning leaders in the D R Congo Ghana and Uganda who have stayed in the teaching profession and led their student learning with devotion and integrity Like any learning leader exceptional teachers live the challenges and pressures that have caused some of their peers to leave the profession The extraordinary learning leaders from elementary secondary and higher education have stood victorious amid education devaluations and professional tensions The author gives voice to those exceptional teachers and analyzes the ethical rationale behind their unfailing commitment to their teaching vocation Their teaching philosophies and personal accounts revealed altruistic impulses This book further explores the exceptional teachers narratives and their selfless actions through the lens of philanthropic and leadership ethics theories Although the exceptional teachers altruism appears self sacrificing it embodies some form of self benefit because one can hardly fathom altruism for altruism s sake Nevertheless the twenty exceptional teachers acted in a self sacrificing manner The author appeals to the Global South countries to implement education policies that should redecorate the profession of learning leadership
