Zimsec Economics Questions Paper 3 November 2013:

Mugabeism? Sabelo J. Ndlovu-Gatsheni, 2015-12-26 What is distinctive about this book is its interdisciplinary approach towards deciphering the complex meanings of President Gabriel Mugabe of Zimbabwe making it possible to evaluate Mugabe from a historical political philosophical gender literal and decolonial perspectives It is concerned with capturing various meanings of Mugabeism Beyond the Crises: Zimbabwe's Prospects for Transformation Tendai Murisa, Tendai

Chikweche, 2015-12-01 Over the past years few African countries have been the focus of discussions and analyses generating a vast array of literature as much as Zimbabwe The socioeconomic and political crises since the turn of the century have deeply transformed the country from the ideals of a vibrant freshly independent nation just two decades earlier These transformations have necessitated the call for the restructuring of Zimbabwean society polity and economy But this literature remains exclusively within the realm of academic thinking and theorising with no concerted effort to move beyond this by explicitly drawing out the policy implications Beyond the Crises Zimbabwe's Prospects for Transformation is a welcome addition to the academic and policy literature with a much broader and all embracing focus in terms of policy interventions By focusing on different aspects of social and economic justice Murisa and Chikweche go beyond initiating a broad discussion on these two key pillars of human development with a view to suggesting possible future directions of practical solutions and policy development for the attainment of inclusive social and economic justice for Zimbabweans The History and Political Transition of Zimbabwe Sabelo J. Ndlovu-Gatsheni, Pedzisai Ruhanya, 2020-10-21 This book is the first to tackle the difficult and complex politics of transition in Zimbabwe with deep historical analysis Its focus is on a very problematic political culture that is proving very hard to transcend At the center of this culture is an unstable but resilient nationalist military alliance crafted during the anti colonial liberation struggle in the 1970s Inevitably violence misogyny and masculinity are constitutive of the political culture Economically speaking the culture is that of a bureaucratic parasitic primitive accumulation and corruption which include invasion and emptying of state coffers by a self styled Chimurenga aristocracy However this Chimurenga aristocracy is not cohesive as the politics that led to Robert Mugabe's ousting from power was preceded by dirty and protracted internal factionalism At the center of the factional politics was the first family Robert Mugabe and his wife Grace Mugabe This book offers a multidisciplinary examination of the complex contemporary politics in Zimbabwe taking seriously such issues as gender misogyny militarism violence media identity modes of accumulation the ethnicization of politics attempts to open lines of credit and FDI national healing and the national question as key variables not only of a complete political culture but also of difficult transitional politics Post-colonial struggles for a democratic Southern Africa Carolyn Bassett, Marlea Clarke, 2017-06-26 National liberation one of the grand narratives of the twentieth century has left a weighty legacy of unfulfilled dreams This book explores the ongoing struggle for legitimate accountable political leaders in postcolonial Southern Africa focussing on dilemmas arising when ex liberation movements form the governments While the spread of multi party democracy to most countries in the region is to be celebrated democratic practice often has been superficial a limited elitist politics that relies on the symbols of the liberation struggle to legitimate de facto one party rule and authoritarian practices Using country cases from Tanzania Swaziland Zimbabwe South Africa and Zambia the collection explores three subthemes relevant to postcolonial governance in Southern Africa how the struggle for liberation shapes the character of political transformation the nature of rule in one party dominant states headed by former liberation movements and the processes of governance and resistance in post liberation contexts This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Contemporary African Studies Labour Questions in the Global South Praveen Jha, Walter Chambati, Lyn Ossome, 2021-02-24 This book provides a focus on some of the main markers and challenges that are at the core of the study of structural transformations in contemporary capitalism and their implications for labour in the Global South It examines the diverse perspectives and regional and social variations that characterise labour relations as a result of the uneven development which is an important facet of the intensification of capitalist accumulation The book provides important insights into the impact of the crises of capitalism on the wellbeing of labour at different historical junctures Some of the issues covered by it include the conditions of work and the changing composition of laboring classes and or working people The chapters also throw light on the multiple trajectories in the development of labour relations and employment in the Global South especially after the ascendancy and domination of neoliberal finance capitalism Some of the major aspects considered by the essays include the decentering of production and development of global value systems crisis of social reproduction and the rising informalisation of work Examining a New Paradigm of Heritage With Philosophy, Economy, and Education Queirós, António dos Santos, 2020-06-19 OECD UNESCO the European Union and the United Nations acknowledge that formal educational systems alone cannot respond to rapid and constant technological social and economic change in society and that they should be reinforced by non formal educational practices Examining a New Paradigm of Heritage With Philosophy Economy and Education is a critical scholarly publication that provides comprehensive research on the sustainability of identity and cultural heritage The book establishes uniform and consistent conceptual criteria to identify and distinguish the different typological categories of heritage and discusses the concept of cultural landscape and environmental ethics Moreover connections between cultural heritage and natural heritage and the economy of heritage are explored Finally the book discusses cultural landscape as an educational resource with reading and interpretation of the cultural landscape as a basis for learning with a methodology of experimental science and its first metamorphosis of value Featuring a range of topics such as curriculum design ethics and environmental tourism this book is ideal for academicians sociologists biologists researchers policymakers and students Natural Resource Conflicts M. Troy Burnett, 2016-09-19 Natural resource and environmental conflicts have long been issues confronting human societies This case based examination of a wide range of natural resource disputes exposes readers to many contemporary examples that offer reasons for both hope and concern The Rwandan genocide the Sudanese civil war and perpetual instability in the Middle East and Africa each of these crises have arguably been instigated and maintained by natural resource disputes China has undertaken a Herculean task to plant hundreds of millions of trees along its margins in an effort to save Beijing from crippling dust storms and halt the expansion of the Gobi desert Will it work and is it worth it These and many other cases of conflict stemming from natural resource or environmental concerns are explained and debated in this up to date examination of contemporary and ongoing topics The book examines conflicts over precious resources and minerals such as diamonds oil water and fisheries as well as the pursuit of lesser known minerals like Coltan and other rare earth elements important resources in our technological age in remote locations such as Greenland and the Congo Each topic contains an overview and two position essays from different authors thereby providing the reader with highly informative and balanced perspectives Reference entries accompany each topic as well helping students to better understand each issue As the world hurtles into the 21st century these natural resource issues are becoming increasingly important with all global citizens having a significant stake in how these conflicts arise and play out

African Futures, 2022-02-28 The essays in this collection are written to make readers re consider what is possible in Africa The essays shake the tree of received wisdom and received categories and hone in on the complexities of life under ecological and economic constraints Yet throughout this volume people do not emerge as victims but rather as inventors engineers scientists planners writers artists and activists or as children mothers fathers friends or lovers all as future makers It is precisely through agents such as these that Africa is futuring rethinking living confronting imagining and relating in the light of its many emerging tomorrows

Inequality around the World Deric Shannon, 2025-02-06 A two volume set intended for readers interested in understanding the political and cultural underpinnings of socioeconomic inequality across the globe Inequality around the World examines key drivers and shapers of inequality at the local national and international level The two volume set includes 33 in depth chapters covering such issues as public and private healthcare environmental protection and pollution housing disability women s rights land policies antisemitism sexual orientation and gender diversity race and racism political representation and access to higher education Each chapter compares and contrasts conditions in major countries including the USA Russia India China and Germany as well as in wider regions like the Middle East West Africa Central America and Eastern Europe Scrupulously researched and wide ranging in coverage Inequality around the World provides an in depth survey of socioeconomic inequality in the 21st century in all its many forms

Agricultural Development and Food Security in Africa Renu Modi, Fantu Cheru, 2013-08-08 The subject of food security and land issues in Africa has become one of increased importance and contention over recent years In particular the focus has shifted to the role new global South donors especially India China and Brazil are playing in shaping African agriculture through their increased involvement and investment in the continent Approaching the topic through the framework of South South co operation this highly original volume presents a critical analysis of the ways in which Chinese Indian and Brazilian engagements in African agriculture are structured and implemented Do these investments have the potential to create new opportunities to improve local living standards transfer new technology and knowhow to African producers and reverse the persistent productivity decline in African agriculture Or will they simply aggravate the problem of food insecurity by accelerating the process of land alienation and displacement of local people from their land Topical and comprehensive Agricultural Development and Food Security in Africa offers fresh insight into a set of relationships that will shape both Africa and the world over the coming decades

Eurozone Dystopia William Mitchell, 2015-05-29 Eurozone Dystopia traces the origin of the Eurozone and shows how the historical Franco German rivalry combined with the growing dominance of neo liberal economic thinking to create a monetary system that was deeply flawed and destined to fail It argu

State, Land and Democracy in Southern Africa Arrigo Pallotti, Corrado Tornimbeni, 2016-03-03 Each country in southern Africa has a unique history but in all of them socio economic inequalities and high poverty levels weaken the governments legitimacy and represent a challenge to models of economic development One key issue appears to be the solution of the land question This vital concern affects both citizenship and democracy in the political systems of the region yet no government has shown the capacity or commitment to solve it In this volume leading European American and African scholars explore in detail the relationship between state land and democracy They examine the historical background of asset allocation and its impact on questions of nationality the definition of citizenship human rights and the current political and economic processes in southern Africa

The European Union, the World Bank and the Policymaking of Aid Eugenia Baroncelli, 2019-01-03 Based on the experience of the author an IPE scholar and former trade policy consultant at the World Bank WB the book offers an in depth exploration of the EU WB relations conceptualized as hybrid delegation Coupling cross time analyses of their interaction in the regions of the Middle East and North Africa Europe and Central Asia and Sub Saharan Africa with an original investigation on the coordination among the EU member states at the Executive Board of the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development over the voice and participation reform of 2008 2010 the book advances an innovative theoretical framework to assess the EU WB joint institutional and field policy performances Augmented PA models of delegation role theory and performance analyses are engaged and selectively recombined to investigate the nature evolution and impact of the interactions of the two organizations both in their everyday and constituent politics Hybrid delegation in motion is reconstructed against the background of post Washington Consensus and post Lisbon EU to unveil the changing division of labour between the two largest development multilaterals of the new global context The book will be of interest to scholars students and practitioners in European Politics Development International Relations International Political Economy and Global Economic Governance

African Borders, Conflict, Regional and Continental Integration Innocent Moyo, Christopher Changwe Nshimbi, 2019-04-25 This book looks at the ways African borders impact war and conflict as well as the ways continental integration could contribute towards cooperation peace and well being in Africa African borders or borderlands can be a source of problems and opportunity There is often a historical geospatial and geopolitical architecture rooted in trajectories of war conflict and instability which could be transformed into those of peace regional and continental integration and development An example is the cross border and regional response to the Boko Haram insurgency in West Africa This book engages with cross border forms of cooperation and opportunity in Africa It considers initiatives and innovations which can be put in place or are already being employed on the ground within the current regional and continental integration projects Another important element is that of cross border informality which similarly provides a ready resource that if properly harnessed and regulated could unleash the development potential of African borders and borderlands Students and scholars within Geography International Relations and Border Studies will find this book useful It will also benefit civil society practitioners policymakers and activists in the NGO sector interested in issues such as migration

social cohesion citizenship and local development

The Parliamentary Debates (Hansard). Great Britain.

Parliament. House of Lords,2013

African Economic Development Christopher Cramer,John Sender,Arkebe

Oqubay,2020 This book challenges conventional wisdoms about economic performance and possible policies for economic development in African countries Its starting point is the striking variation in African economic performance Unevenness and inequalities form a central fact of African economic experiences The authors highlight not only differences between countries but also variations within countries differences often organized around distinctions of gender class and ethnic identity For example neo natal mortality and school dropout have been reduced particularly for some classes of women in some areas of Africa Horticultural and agribusiness exports have grown far more rapidly in some countries than in others These variations and many others point to opportunities for changing performance reducing inequalities learning from other policy experiences and escaping the ties of structure and the legacies of a colonial past The book rejects teleological illusions and Eurocentric prejudice but it does pay close attention to the results of policy in more industrialized parts of the world Seeing the contradictions of capitalism for what they are fundamental and enduring may help policy officials protect themselves against the misleading idea that development can be expected to be a smooth linear process or that it would be were certain impediments suddenly removed The authors criticize a wide range of orthodox and heterodox economists especially for their cavalier attitude to evidence Drawing on their own decades of research and policy experience they combine careful use of available evidence from a range of African countries with political economy insights mainly derived from Kalecki Kaldor and Hirschman to make the policy case for specific types of public sector investment

The Fourth Industrial Revolution and the Recolonisation of Africa Everisto Benyera,2021-04-29 This book argues that the fourth industrial revolution the process of accelerated automation of traditional manufacturing and industrial practices via digital technology will serve to further marginalise Africa within the international community In this book the author argues that the looting of Africa that started with human capital and then natural resources now continues unabated via data and digital resources looting Developing on the notion of Coloniality of Data the fourth industrial revolution is postulated as the final phase which will conclude Africa's peregrination towards recolonisation Global cartels networks of coloniality and tech multinational corporations have turned big data into capital which is largely unregulated or poorly regulated in Africa as the continent lacks the strong institutions necessary to regulate the mining of data Written from a decolonial perspective this book employs three analytical pillars of coloniality of power knowledge and being Highlighting the crippling continuation of asymmetrical global power relations this book will be an important read for researchers of African studies politics and international political economy The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com/books/e/9781003157731> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license
