Zimsec Geography Paper 2 2014:

Urban Geography in Postcolonial Zimbabwe Abraham R. Matamanda, Verna Nel, Innocent Chirisa, 2021-05-07 This interdisciplinary book provides a cross sectoral and multi dimensional exploration and assessment of the urban geography perspectives in Zimbabwe Drawing on work from different disciplines the book not only contributes to academia but also seeks to inform urban policy with the view of contributing to the national aspirations of Zimbabwe attaining middle income status by 2030 Adopting a multi dimensional assessment that transcends disciplines such as urban and regional planning human and physical geography urban governance political science economics and development studies the book provides a background for co production concerning urban development in the Global South The book contributes into its analysis of the institutional and legislative framework that relates to the urban geography of Zimbabwe as these are responsible for the evolution of the urban system in the country The connections among different sectors and issues such as environment economy politics and the wider objectives of the SDGs especially goal 11 aspiring to create sustainable communities by 2030 are explored The success stories relating to urban geography in Zimbabwe are identified together with the best possible practices that may inform urban planning policy and management Urban Infrastructure in Zimbabwe Innocent Chirisa, Abraham R. Matamanda, 2023-11-29 The book provides insights into urban infrastructure debates and discourses in Zimbabwe Through an inter disciplinary and multi disciplinary approach the book explores the theoretical conceptual and lived experiences in urban infrastructure The book focuses on case studies relating to urban transport public housing water and sanitation and Geographical Information Systems GIS among other substantive issues relating to urban infrastructure and services , Informal Migrant Entrepreneurship and Inclusive Growth in South Africa, Zimbabwe and Mozambique Crush, Jonathan, 2017-01-17 While increasing attention is being paid to the drivers and forms of entrepreneurship in informal economies much less of this policy and research focus is directed at understanding the links between mobility and informality This report examines the current state of knowledge about this relationship with particular reference to three countries Mozambique South Africa and Zimbabwe and four cities Cape Town Harare Johannesburg and Maputo identifying major themes knowledge gaps research questions and policy implications Climate Change and Agriculture in Zimbabwe Mark Matsa, 2020-09-03 This book proves through empirical research that indigenous and traditional agricultural communities have experienced severe climate change impacts and have developed corresponding livelihood strategies to strengthen their resilience in a variable climate With a focus on indigenous minority farming communities in the developing region of South Western Zimbabwe the study presents both qualitative and quantitative approaches of data analysis to assess sustainability problems amid climate change and climate variability challenges and proposes potential solutions In eight chapters the book expands on the scarce availability of community based research on climate change and variability in Zimbabwe The book is meant for college and university students and stakeholders involved in development work in rural minority farmer communities especially in climate change prone regions of Africa and other developing countries who have very few options of adaptation and mitigation

The Geography of Climate Change Adaptation in Urban Africa Patrick Brandful Cobbinah, Michael Addaney, 2019-01-29 This book takes a comprehensive look at several cases of climate change adaptation responses across various sectors and geographical areas in urban Africa and places them within a solid theoretical context Each chapter is a state of the art overview of a significant topic on climate change adaptation in urban Africa and is written by a leading expert in the field In addition to the focus on the geography of urban adaptation to climate change in Africa this collection offers a broader perspective by blending the use of case studies and theory based research It examines transformations in climate change adaptation and its future orientation from the perspectives of urban planners political economists environmentalists ecologists economists and geographers thereby addressing the challenges facing African cities adaptation responses from all angles Providing up to date and authoritative contributions covering the key aspects of climate change adaptation in urban Africa this book will be of great interest to policymakers practitioners scholars and students of geography urban development and management environmental science and policy disaster management as well as those in the field of urban planning

Power in Contemporary Zimbabwe Erasmus Masitera, Fortune Sibanda, 2018-04-20 In recent years the Zimbabwe crisis rendered the country and its citizens to be a typical case of failed states the world over Zimbabwean society was and is still confronted with different challenges which include political economic and social problems Attempts to overcome these challenges have thrown light on the power that rests within individuals and or groups to change and even revolutionize their localities communities states and ultimately the world at large Through experience individuals and groups have promoted ideas that have aided in changing mentalities attitudes and behaviors in societies at different levels This book brings together contributors from various academic disciplines to reflect on and theorize the contours of power including the intrinsic and or extrinsic models of power which pertain to individuals communities and or groups in order to transform society Reflections are on various groups such as political movements environmental movements religious groups advocacy groups gender groups to mention but a few as they struggle against marginalization discrimination exploitation and other forms of oppression showing their agency or compliance

Zimbos Never Die?, 2023-05-08 This book seeks to explore how the Zimbabwean society and its institutions have survived if not succumbed to continuous economic crises in the country From the 1990s Zimbabwe experienced a sustained economic decline challenged by both internal and external strains Coupled with internal mis governance and corruption the nation plunged into a political and economic crisis which culminated in the second highest world inflation rate for an economy that is not at war In the face of the harsh and continuously deteriorating economic environments Zimbabweans as individuals as well as part of institutions adopted various strategies to negotiate and survive the economic scourge Contributors include Wellington Bamu Nathaniel Chimhete Anusa Daimon Innocent Dande Sylvester Dombo

Tinotenda Dube Rudo Gaidzanwa Tafara Evelyn Kombora Ushehweu Kufakurinani Bernard Kusena Eric Kushinga Makombe Albert Makoche Kanwa Blessed Masawi Ivo Mhike Joseph P Mtisi Joseph Mujere Wesley Mwatwara Pius S Nyambara Tinashe Nyamunda Mark Nyandoro Takesure Taringana and Nicola Yon Mutimurefu

Rural Transformations Holly Barcus, Roy Jones, Serge Schmitz, 2022-03-30 This book focuses on the transformation of rural places peoples and land endemic to the contemporary manifestations of globalization Migration global economic restructuring and climate change are rapidly transforming rural places across the globe Yet global attention characteristically focuses on urban social and economic issues neglecting the continued roles of rural people and places Organized around the three core themes of demographic change rural urban partnerships and innovations and landscape change the case studies included in this volume represent both the Global North and Global South and underscore the complexity and multi scalar nature of these contemporary challenges in rural development planning and sustainability This book would be valuable supplementary reading for both students and professionals in the fields of rural land management and rural planning

Livelihoods of Ethnic Minorities in Rural Zimbabwe Kirk Helliker, Patience Chadambuka, Joshua Matanzima, 2022-04-21 The book provides empirically rich case studies of the lives and livelihoods of marginalised ethnic minorities in colonial and post colonial Zimbabwe with a specific focus on diverse rural areas It demonstrates the dynamic and complex relationships existing between ethnic minorities and livelihoods and analyses the ways in which projects of belonging and identity formation amongst these ethnic minorities are entangled in their respective livelihood construction projects and vice versa The ethnic minorities include those considered indigenous to Zimbabwe and those often defined as aliens including ethnicities with a transnational presence in southern Africa The ethnicities studied in the book include the following Chewa Doma Tonga Tshwa San Shangane Basotho Ndauro Hlengwe and Nambya By studying their livelihoods in particular this book offers the first full manuscript about ethnic minorities in Zimbabwe In doing so it highlights the significance of these ethnic minorities to Zimbabwean history politics and society

Africa Tony Binns, Etienne Nel, Alan Dixon, Kenneth Lynch, 2023-12-08 Africa Diversity and Development introduces and demystifies Africa's diversity and dynamism and considers how its peoples and environments have interacted through time and space The book examines the background and diversity of Africa's social cultural economic political and environmental systems as well as key development issues which have affected Africa in the past and are likely to be significant in shaping the future of the continent These include the impact of HIV AIDS sources of conflict and post conflict reconstruction the state and governance the nature of African economies in a global context and future development trajectories This second edition features new chapters on history and governance health separate chapters on rural and urban development and updated content on all aspects of the continent particularly aspects of culture and ethnicity It is richly illustrated throughout with diagrams and plates and contains a wealth of detailed up to date case studies and current data This textbook is a refreshing interdisciplinary text which enhances understanding of the background to Africa's current position and clarifies possible future scenarios It will be a valuable resource for students taking modules on Africa African Development and Geography of Africa and will also prove useful to students in the wider fields of Geography Development Studies Global Studies Environment and Society and African Politics Reanimating Regions James Riding, Martin Jones, 2017-05-12 Writing regions undertaking a regional study was once a standard form of geographic communication and critique This was until the quantitative revolution in the middle of the previous century and more definitively the critical turn in human geography towards the end of the twentieth century From then on writing regions as they were experienced phenomenologically or arguing culturally historically and politically with regions was deemed to be old fashioned Yet the region is and always will be a central geographical concept and thinking about regions can tell us a lot about the history of the discipline called geography Despite taking up an identifiable place within the geographical imagination in scholarship and beyond region remains a relatively forgotten under used and in part under theorised term Reanimating Regions marks the continued reinvigoration of a set of disciplinary debates surrounding regions the regional and regional geography Across 18 chapters from international interdisciplinary scholars this book writes and performs region as a temporary permanence something held stable not fixed and absolute at different points in time for different purposes There is as this expansive volume outlines no single reading of a region Reanimating Regions collectively rebalances the region within geography and geographical thought In renewing the geography of regions as not only a site of investigation but also as an analytical framework through which to write the world what emerges is a powerful reworking of the geographic imagination Read against one another the chapters weave together timely commentaries on region and regions across the globe with a particular emphasis upon the regional as played out in the United Kingdom and regional worlds both within and beyond Europe offering chapters from Africa and South America Addressing both the political and the cultural this volume responds to the need for a consolidated and considered reflection on region the regional and regional geography speaking directly to broader intellectual concerns with performance aesthetics identity mobilities the environment and the body Aspects of Real Estate Theory and Practice in Zimbabwe Chirisa, Innocent, Juru, Mike Eric, 2019-08-23 The subject of real estate is increasingly becoming important especially in the countries of the developing world States and governments realise that real estate is a corner stone of socio economic development Real estate development contributes immensely to the gross physical capital formation Its formation construction and ancillary sectors contribute to the employment infrastructure development and gross domestic product The main challenges about real estate is about where to develop it how to develop it how to manage and compute valuations about it Such are the issues discussed in this volume The book draws on Zimbabwe as a case study to demonstrate the critical aspects that define theory and real estate practice in various contexts national regional and international Urban Informality in South Africa and Zimbabwe Innocent Moyo, Trynos Gumbo, 2021-01-09 This book adds to the research of urban informality in the Global South with a specific focus on South Africa and Zimbabwe It addresses the agency and the potential transformative capacity of the phenomenon of urban informality in connection with Southern African cities and towns It adopts a political economy approach to analyse the evolution of informality in cities and its implications for urban planning It brings to bear how the South African and Zimbabwean historical and or ideological and contemporary political and economic trajectories have impacted on the ever changing nature of urban informality both spatially and structurally and or compositionally thus resulting in unique urban materialities which are aspects that have scarcely been studied or discussed in the extant literature This book therefore seeks to close the academic gap by dealing with the dearth of literature on spatial re locational discourses of urban informality The work positions urban informality as a resilient force with potency in terms of political mobilisation and re shaping urban spaces Though these are fundamental issues they have received comparatively little attention especially in literature that focuses on the Southern African region Accordingly undergraduate and post graduate students as well as academics in the fields of Urban Geography Political Science Development Studies Sociology Town and Regional Planning among others will find the range of topics and depth of coverage in this book particularly valuable Similarly practitioners and activists on issues of urban informality and urban governance will find the book very useful

Urban Water Governance in Postcolonial Zimbabwe Abraham R.

Matamanda,Tazviona R. Gambe,Johannes I. Bhanye,Tafadzwa C. Maramura,Oratilwe Annastacia Khoza,2025-09-04 This book focuses on urban water supply and governance in the Global South using urban Zimbabwe as a case study to provide insights and perspectives into the realities of the water governance Applying a resilience and sustainability perspective we argue that fragmentation of responsibilities between various institutions the difficulty of coordination at various levels and the politics centered on water supply constrain effective water governance in Zimbabwe This has resulted in a downward spiral in urban water services in Zimbabwe s urban centers Additionally the innovative nature of this study is to draw from an often neglected dimension in urban water governance which is the political ecology which brings into perspective the varying int1erests associated with environmental contests and conflicts that influence water allocation and sharing among urban areas by the public sector Therefore this book dwells on understanding the politics economic and ecology of water governance through an interdisciplinary lens This analysis is critical for this study because Zimbabwe s current state of obsolete water infrastructure has also had a negative impact on the supply of high quality portable water services to the public in urban areas This book will be a critical read for academic and professionals in the fields of urban geographers planners sociologists and water experts It will also be useful for undergraduate and postgraduate students from Geography Urban and regional Planning Political Science Development Studies and Economics

War by Other Means Robert D.

Blackwill,Jennifer M. Harris,2016-04-11 A Foreign Affairs Best Book of 2016 Today nations increasingly carry out geopolitical combat through economic means Policies governing everything from trade and investment to energy and exchange rates are wielded as tools to win diplomatic allies punish adversaries and coerce those in between Not so in the United States however

America still too often reaches for the gun over the purse to advance its interests abroad The result is a playing field sharply tilting against the United States Geoeconomics the use of economic instruments to advance foreign policy goals has long been a staple of great power politics In this impressive policy manifesto Blackwill and Harris argue that in recent decades the United States has tended to neglect this form of statecraft while China Russia and other illiberal states have increasingly employed it to Washington's disadvantage G John Ikenberry Foreign Affairs A readable and lucid primer The book defines the extensive topic and opens readers eyes to its prevalence throughout history Presidential candidates who care more about protecting American interests would be wise to heed the advice of War by Other Means and take our geoeconomic toolkit more seriously Jordan Schneider Weekly Standard

Sustainability in Natural Resources Management and Land Planning Walter Leal Filho, Ulisses Miranda Azeiteiro, Andréia Faraoni Freitas Setti, 2021-08-06 This book includes contributions from scientists and representatives from government and non governmental organisations working in the field of land management and use and on management of fires The book is truly interdisciplinary and has both a research and application oriented dimension The list of topics includes sustainability and water management sustainability and biodiversity conservation the future sustainability of nature based industries such as agriculture mining tourism fisheries and forestry sustainability people and livelihoods sustainability and landscapes planning sustainability and land use planning handling and managing forest fires The papers are innovative and cross cutting and many have practice based experiences Also this book prepared by the Inter University Sustainable Development Research Programme IUSDRP and the World Sustainable Development Research and Transfer Centre WSD RTC reiterates the need to promote a sustainable use of land resources today

Digital Activism in Zimbabwe Tenford Chitanana, 2024-10-21 This book investigates the role of the internet and social media in political processes in non western and non democratic contexts Using Zimbabwe as a case study the book demonstrates how activists and ordinary people deploy social media particularly Facebook to subvert an enduring hegemonic state However the book also highlights how authoritarian regimes are in turn learning and adapting to the information age challenging the impact of digital activism Studies of digital activism in the Global South are often centred around democracy but this book paints a more complex picture examining the role and effect of digital activism in challenging state hegemony in authoritarian contexts The book notes that while communication technologies help mediate activism they are also simultaneously constrained by pre existing and emergent challenges tied to the social and political context and the inherent limitations of those technologies The book investigates the tactics used by digital activists the contextual factors and restrictive political environment they operate in including the role of pro government activists and ultimately the impact of digital activism given these constraints From the case of Zimbabwe the book builds out a broader theoretical analysis of the evolution of third world protest in the digital age examining the limitations of activists actions and the ideological deficit in online activism to ferment a virulent counter hegemony

Controlling Territory, Controlling Voters Michael

Wahman, 2023-10-14 Violence in election campaigns is common across the African continent and beyond According to some estimations most African elections contain some degree of violence and most of this violence happens before elections during the campaign While campaign violence is a common problem it affects citizens differently across localities When violence and intimidation become an integral part of election campaigns in a locality they become tools of sub national authoritarianism that may effectively dismantle local democracy This book focuses on the political geography of election violence in Africa building on one important observation elections in many African countries are highly regional and the support for political parties are rarely nationalized Wahman argues that in such environments campaign violence becomes an important tool used by parties to control and regulate access to space Building on a wealth of data and extensive fieldwork in Zambia and Malawi the author uses a combination of electoral geography analysis constituency level election violence data collected from local election monitors focus group interviews archival material and individual level survey data to show how campaign violence in both countries is used as a territorial tool predominantly within party strongholds Oxford Studies in African Politics and International Relations is a series for scholars and students working on African politics and International Relations and related disciplines Volumes concentrate on contemporary developments in African political science political economy and International Relations such as electoral politics democratization decentralization the political impact of natural resources the dynamics and consequences of conflict and the nature of the continent's engagement with the East and West Comparative and mixed methods work is particularly encouraged Case studies are welcomed but should demonstrate the broader theoretical and empirical implications of the study and its wider relevance to contemporary debates The series focuses on sub Saharan Africa although proposals that explain how the region engages with North Africa and other parts of the world are of interest General Editors Nic Cheeseman Peace Medie and Ricardo Soares de Oliveira

Reclaiming Development Studies Murat Arsel, Anirban Dasgupta, Servaas Storm, 2021-06-08 The mission relevance and intellectual orientation of development studies is increasingly challenged from various fronts such as decoloniality global development and randomized control trials The essays featured in this collection together argue for the need of the field to reclaim its critical political economy tradition Building on the contributions of Ashwani Saith the contributions touch upon many of the central questions of development studies centred around structural change labour and inequality
