in the last decade in response to the perceived failure of the political negotiations This book provides a unique comparative study of environmental movements in USA Japan Denmark and Sweden analyzing their interaction with the international climate institutions of the United Nations with national governments and with currents in the global climate movement It documents how and why the movement evolved between the Copenhagen Summit of 2009 and the Paris Summit of 2015 altering its strategies and tactics while attracting new actors to the issue area Further it demonstrates how the development of global environmental networks has increased contact between environmental movements in the Global North and those from the Global South resulting in the establishment of climate justice as a political cause and unifying frame for global climate activism

The Rhodesian Air Force in Zimbabwe's War of Liberation, 1966-1980 Darlington Mutanda, 2016-11-22 This book evaluates the development of the Rhodesian Air Force during the Second Chimurenga or Bush War 1966 1980 Airpower in irregular conflict is effective at the tactical level because guerrilla warfare is not a purely military conflict The Rhodesian Air Force was deployed in a war winning versus a supporting role as a result of the shortage of manpower to deal with insurgency and almost all units of the Rhodesian Security Forces depended on its tactical effectiveness Technical challenges faced by the Air Force combined with the rate of guerrilla infiltration and the misuse of airpower to bomb guerrilla bases in neighboring countries largely negated the success of airpower

Memory and Cultural Landscape at the Khami World Heritage Site, Zimbabwe Ashton Sinamai, 2018-10-10 This book focuses on a forgotten place the Khami World Heritage site in Zimbabwe It examines how professionally ascribed values and conservation priorities affect the cultural landscape when there is a disjuncture between local community and national interests and explores the epistemic violence that often accompanied colonial heritage management and archaeology in southern Africa The central premise is that the history of the modern Zimbabwe nation in terms of what is officially remembered and celebrated inevitably determines how that past is managed It is about how places are experienced and remembered through narratives and how the loss of this heritage memory may mark the un-inheriting of place Memory and Cultural Landscape at the Khami World Heritage Site Zimbabwe is informed by the author s experience of living near and working at Great Zimbabwe and Khami as an archaeologist and uses archives and traditional narratives to build a biography for this lost cultural landscape Whereas Great Zimbabwe is a resource for the state s contentious narrative of unity and a tool for cultural activism among communities whose cultural rights are denied through the nationalisation and globalisation heritage at Khami which has lost its historical gravity there is only silence Researchers and students of cultural heritage will find this book a much needed case study on heritage identity community and landscape from an African perspective

Intellectual Property Policy, Law and Administration in Africa Caroline B. Ncube,2015-10-16 This book examines the harmonisation of Intellectual Property IP policy law and administration in Africa Two recent developments have brought this topic to the fore The first is the escalation of long standing efforts to establish a Pan African Intellectual Property Organisation PAIPO a continental initiative The second is the current sub regional attempt to operationalise the IP provisions of the Southern African Development Community SADC s Protocol on Trade articles 9b and 24 and its Protocol on Science Technology and Innovation article 2m Intellectual Property Policy Law and Administration in Africa discusses the viability of such initiatives with particular reference to the current socio economic status of Africa s nations With a view to contributing to future developments in Africa at both a continental and sub regional level the author considers this issue through the lens of advancing the public interest in IP Ncube argues that harmonisation initiatives ought to be crafted in a way that is supportive of the development aspirations of African states Consequently she urges due consideration of individual states unique conditions and aspirations in any harmonisation venture a necessity outlined in article 7 of the Agreement on Trade Related Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights This book will be of great relevance to scholars and policy makers with an interest in IP law and African law in general

Protecting journalism sources in the digital age Posetti, Julie,2017-05-08 This Study which covers 121 UNESCO Member States represents a global benchmarking of journalistic source protection in the Digital Age It focuses on developments during the period 2007 2015 The legal frameworks that support protection of journalistic sources at international regional and country levels are under significant strain in 2015 They are increasingly at risk of erosion restriction and compromise a development that is seen to represent a direct challenge to the established universal human rights of freedom of expression and privacy and one that especially may constitute a threat to the sustainability of investigative journalism Page 7

Towards Building Pillars of Hope, Unity and Transformation in Africa Mawere, Munyaradzi,Marongwe, Ngonidzashe,2016-09-01 The myths of peace and democracy in Africa are at the heart of this volume Democracy and peace have become buzz words across postcolonial Africa The gospel of democracy and peace is preached by national governments and by civil society and international organisations alike But to what extent are the ongoing sideshows and charades of quasi oligarchies in Africa really democracy What do ordinary Africans mean when they hunger and thirst for democracy and peace Positive and noble as the loud sounding rhetoric about democracy and peace in Africa might seem the reality of propaganda and dissemblance and of multi dimensional violence are simply too overwhelming not to be disillusioning This book interrogates the rampant violence enduring conflicts autocratic governance and facades of democracy amidst claims and calls for enduring peace on the continent This is a monumental resource book for human rights activists conflict management practitioners civil society activists political scientists statesmen and development practitioners It poses a challenge to those African governments who claim to embrace principles of democracy and respect for human rights to rethink and reconsider their role as ambassadors of peace hope transformation and good governance
