M. Freyssenet,K. Shimizu,G. Volpato,2003-04-15 The automobile sector is one of the most archetypal global industries and is seen by many as one of the main drivers behind the homogenisation of world markets due to firms internationalization strategies and the social practices that firms impose This book argues that this is not entirely the case due to the heterogeneity of firms and the diversity of strategies pursued It highlights the diversity and forms of internationalization and the preference for regionalization rather than globalization that has occurred over the past decade This book looks specifically at the American and Asian car industry Designing Motion Markus Caspers,2016-09-26 The chaise longue by Le Corbusier the radio by Rams the chair by Eames designers make things into cult objects and become icons themselves But who knows which coup was designed by Frua which limousine by Engel which station wagon by Opron For a long time car design was considered to be anonymous the designers stood in the shadow of the perception of the design even though their designs can be found on the roads in millions This richly illustrated book captures the origin of a profession and maps the development of car design based on a comprehensive introduction and the career biographies of over 200 selected designers who contributed to the design of cars and many different associated products in the USA Europe and Japan between 1900 and 2000 Key Maths GCSE David Baker,2002 Published for the AQA Modular specification at GCSE this resource covers the content order and approach of this modular course with all of Key Maths popular features The Bone Ranger Louisa Bennet,2021-11-29 A new wagtastic mystery Monty the adorable food obsessed Golden Retriever will do anything for his owner Detective Constable Rose Sidebottom Of course as these things go Monty is no ordinary dog and Rose is no ordinary hooman Monty s super smart nose and network of unique informers and Rose s uncanny ability to spot liars make them a funny and formidable team When Rose is on sick leave a stranger begs for their help to find a missing person The case soon becomes a murder investigation and Rose's boss warns her not to interfere. But when dogs start disappearing too, Monty and Rose have no choice but to track down the culprits by doing what they do best together.

The Automotive Industry and the Environment Paul Niewenhuis, Peter Wells, 2003-08-15 Building on a wealth of research, The Automotive Industry and the Environment addresses current challenges in the automotive industry and how they can be met. The authors discuss the development of the automotive industry and the problems it currently faces and consider possible solutions. The book reviews trends in more environmentally friendly technologies such as the use of more sustainable fuel sources and new types of modular designs with built-in recyclability. The book also describes new models of decentralized production, particularly the micro factory retailing (MFR) model that provides an alternative to volume production and promises to be both more sustainable and more profitable.

On a Global Mission: The Automobiles of General Motors International Volume 3 Louis F. Fourie, 2016-12-27 Volume One traces the history of Opel and Vauxhall separately from inception through to the 1970s and thereafter collectively to 2015. Special attention is devoted to examining innovative engineering features and the role Opel has taken of providing global platforms for GM. Each model is examined individually and supplemented by exhaustive supporting specification tables. The fascinating history of Saab and Lotus begins with their humble beginnings and examines each model in detail and looks at why these unusual marques came under the GM Banner. Included is a penetrating review of Saab through to its unfortunate demise. Volume Two examines unique models and variations of Chevrolet and Buick manufactured in the Southern Hemisphere and Asia but never offered in North America. Daewoo, Wuling, and Baojun are other Asian brands covered in detail. This volume concludes with recording the remarkable early success of Holden and its continued independence through to today. Volume Three covers the smaller assembly operations around the world and the evolution of GM's export operations. A brief history of Isuzu, Subaru, and Suzuki looks at the three minority interests GM held in Asia. The GM North American model specifications are the most comprehensive to be found in a single book. Global and regional sales statistics are included. GM executives and management from around the globe are listed with the roles they held. An index ensures that these volumes serve as the ideal reference source on GM.

Polypropylene Clive Maier, Theresa Calafut, 1998-04-15 Polypropylene: The Definitive User's Guide and Databook presents in a single volume a panoramic and up-to-the-minute user's guide for today's most important thermoplastic. The book examines every aspect of science, technology, engineering, properties, design, processing, applications, the continuing development, and use of polypropylene. The unique treatment means that specialists can not only find what they want but for the first time can relate to and understand the needs and requirements of others in the product development chain. The entire work is underpinned by very extensive collections of property data that allow the reader to put the information to real industrial and commercial use. Despite the preeminence and unrivaled versatility of polypropylene as a thermoplastic material, to manufacture relatively few books have been devoted to its study. Polypropylene: The Definitive User's Guide and Databook not only fills the gap but breaks new ground in doing so Polypropylene is the most popular thermoplastic in use today and still one of the fastest growing Polypropylene The Definitive User s Guide and Databook is the complete workbook and reference resource for all those who work with the material Its comprehensive scope uniquely caters to polymer scientists plastics engineers processing technologists product designers machinery and mold makers product managers end users researchers and students alike

The Happiness Illusion Luke Hockley,Nadi Fadina,2015-06-19 The West has never been more affluent yet the use of anti depressants is on the increase to the extent that the World Health Organisation has declared it a major source of concern How has this state of affairs come about and what can be done Television and advertising media seem to know Wherever we look they offer countless remedies for our current situation unfortunately none of them seem to work The Happiness Illusion explores how the metaphorical insights of fairy tales have been literalised and turned into commodities In so doing their ability to educate and entertain has largely been lost Instead advertising and television sell us products that offer to magically transform the way we look how we age where we live both in the city and the countryside the possibility of new jobs and so forth All of these are supposed to make us happy But despite the allure of retail therapy modern magic has lost its spell What then are the sources of happiness in our contemporary society Through a series of fairy tales The Happiness Illusion How the media sold us a fairytale looks at topics such as age gender marriage and rom coms Nordic Noir and the representations of therapy on television In doing so it explores alternative ways to relate to the world in a symbolic and less literal manner it suggests that happiness comes by making sure we don t fall under the spell of the illusionary promises of contemporary television and advertising Instead happiness comes from being ourselves warts and all This book will be of interest to Jungian academics film media and cultural studies academics social psychologists and their students as well as reaching out to those interested in fairy tale studies psychotherapists and educated cinema goers Luke Hockley PhD is Research Professor of Media Analysis at the University of Bedfordshire UK He is a practicing psychotherapist and is registered with the United Kingdom Council for Psychotherapy UKCP Luke is joint Editor in Chief of the International Journal of Jungian Studies IJJS and a member of the Advisory Board for the journal Spring and lectures widely www.lukehockley.com Nadi Fadina is a media entrepreneur and a managing partner in an international film fund She is involved in a variety of arts and media related projects both in profit and non profit spheres She teaches Film Business in the University of Bedfordshire however her academic interests outreach spheres of business and cover ideology Russian fairytales sexuality politics anthropology and cinema www.nadi.fadina.com
