Suspended Sentences Three Novellas:

Suspended Sentences Patrick Modiano, 2014-11-11 In this essential trilogy of novellas by the winner of the 2014 Nobel Prize in Literature French author Patrick Modiano reaches back in time opening the corridors of memory and exploring the mysteries to be encountered there Each novella in the volume Afterimage Suspended Sentences and Flowers of Ruin represents a sterling example of the author's originality and appeal while Mark Polizzotti's superb English language translations capture not only Modiano's distinctive narrative voice but also the matchless grace and spare beauty of his prose Although originally published separately Modiano's three novellas form a single compelling whole haunted by the same gauzy sense of place and characters Modiano draws on his own experiences blended with the real or invented stories of others to present a dreamlike autobiography that is also the biography of a place Orphaned children mysterious parents forgotten friends enigmatic strangers each appears in this three part love song to a Paris that no longer exists Shadowed by the dark period of the Nazi Occupation these novellas reveal Modiano's fascination with the lost obscure or mysterious a young person's confusion over adult behavior the repercussions of a chance encounter the search for a missing father the aftershock of a fatal affair To read Modiano's trilogy is to enter his world of uncertainties and the almost accidental way in which people find their fates

The Story in Fiction and Film of French Collaboration in the Occupation and Complicity in the Holocaust (1940-1944) Daniel R. Schwarz, 2025-07-09 This book examines fiction and film narratives that show the active collaboration of the Vichy government with the Nazis in the deportation and murder of the Jews of France It also explains how these fiction and film narratives affected the official and dominant historical narrative of the 1940-44 Occupation years More than anything what changed the dominant narrative of the Occupation years are documentaries and creative works which imaginatively selected and arranged the presentation of neglected and suppressed facts By stressing how documentaries novels and imaginative films changed the dominant narrative of 1940-1944 the author is also arguing how cultural production transformed history

Paris Stories Shaun Whiteside, 2016-03-01 Paris Stories gathers classic stories about the City of Light by a wide range of writers across four centuries Perhaps no other European city has so captured the imagination of the artistically and romantically minded Laurence Sterne explores the temptations of the French capital in a teasing study of foreign mores and Restif de la Bretonne provides an eyewitness account of the horrors and glories of the French Revolution Hugo Balzac Flaubert and Zola offer fascinating portraits of the growing metropolis's teeming humanity the Goncourt brothers chronicle its glittering literary circles and Huysmans describes a memorable evening at the Folies Bergère Colette recounts the sensual adventures of a young girl in the decadent Paris of the early twentieth century while F Scott Fitzgerald revels in its urban glamour Jean Rhys's lost heroines wander from café to café James Baldwin celebrates the city's sexual freedoms and Raymond Queneau gleefully reinvents the language of the street In more recent decades Michel Tournier's North African immigrant walks a camel along the boulevards and Nobel laureate Patrick Modiano nostalgically
