Suspending Reality Interiors By Benjamin Noriega Ortiz:

Suspending Reality Benjamin Noriega-Ortiz, Linda O'Keeffe, 2014-11-18 The first monograph of one of today's most influential interior designers with dazzling residences designed for Sean Combs, Lenny Kravitz and Mexican novelist Laura Esquivel. Suspending Reality draws on over sixty of Benjamin Noriega Ortiz's projects designed over his firm's twenty-year history to provide both a long-awaited peek into the creative mind of a celebrity designer and a generous dose of advice for those inspired to decorate show-stopping rooms of their own. Lively chapters cover everything from how to evaluate an empty room or use a client's Pinterest page to generate a storyboard to how to create a sense of procession in an entryway or hall and specific tips for lighting with a mix of incandescent, LED and even fluorescent lights. This comprehensive book includes projects from Noriega Ortiz's own famed all-white Manhattan apartment in a stunning chapter on all-white rooms to luxury spaces in the Dakota, Mark Seliger's former factory loft on New York's West Side Highway, a Parisian pied-à-terre, a modern house in Venice, California, Lenny Kravitz's Mediterranean style mansion and a beach house in Quogue whose kitchen cabinets are studded with Swarovski crystals. Learn the stories behind iconic designs for the Mondrian hotels around the country inspired by Jean Cocteau and the Garden of Eden, find transformative tricks for mirrors or simply daydream about the luminous glass and metal roof over the Like Water for Chocolate author's study and writing room. Noriega Ortiz explains how he captures the unusual sense of openness, light and positivity in his projects, whether with works by Cindy Sherman and Louise Bourgeois or furniture from West Elm, through his use of color, materials and spatial sleight of hand. An ethereal curtain creates unexpected mystery, a bold splash of color invigorates the senses and a seat upholstered in a tactile material like Mongolian lamb beckons to be touched. Each space is tempered by a whimsical element meant to pull us out of everyday life and to inject a moment of fantasy and delight to defy expectations and create the kind of comfort that suspends reality.

Interior Design Masters Mark Hinchman, Elyssa Yoneda, 2018-06-27 Interior Design Masters contains 300 biographical entries of people who have significantly impacted design. They are the people, historical and contemporary, that students and practitioners should know. Coverage starts in the late Renaissance with a focus on the twentieth and twenty-first centuries. The book has five sections with the entries alphabetical in each so it can serve as a history textbook and a reference guide. The seventeenth and eighteenth-century section covers figures from Thomas Chippendale to Horace Walpole. The nineteenth-century section includes William Morris and Candace Wheeler. The early twentieth-century section presents modernism's design heroes including Marcel Breuer, Eileen Gray and Gilbert Rohde. The post-World War II designers range from Madeleine Castaing to Raymond Loewy. The final contemporary section includes Ron Arad and the Bouroullec brothers. These are the canonical figures who belong to any design history. The book also contains less well-known figures who deserve attention such as Betty Joel, the British art deco furniture designer, Paul Veyseyre, the Frenchman active in China in the 1930s and more recently Lanzavecchia Wai, the Italian-Singaporean duo whose work ranges from health care to helicopters.

Global in its coverage the book is richly illustrated with over 600 black and white and color photographs
