environment as it grows The opening chapters discuss the Ten Grave Precepts of Zen which Aitken points out are not commandments etched in stone but expressions of inspiration written in something more fluid than water Aitken approaches these precepts the core of Zen ethics from several perspectives offering many layers of interpretation Like ripples in a pond the circles of his interpretation increasingly widen and he expands his focus to confront corporate theft and oppression the role of women in Zen and society abortion nuclear war pollution of the environment and other concerns Going beyond the Pairs Dennis McCort,2001-06-21 Argues that German Romanticism Zen Buddhism and deconstruction for all their cultural differences are three expressions of a universal vision How the Swans Came to the Lake Rick Fields,Benjamin Bogin,2022-02-08 A modern classic unparalleled in scope this sweeping history unfolds the story of Buddhism s spread to the West How the Swans Came to the Lake opens with the story of Asian Buddhism including the life of the Buddha and the spread of his teachings from India to Southeast Asia China Korea Japan Tibet and elsewhere Coming to the modern era the book tracks how Western colonialism in Asia served as the catalyst for the first large scale interactions between Buddhists and Westerners Author Rick Fields discusses the development of Buddhism in the West through key moments such as Transcendentalist fascination with Eastern religions immigration of Chinese and Japanese people to the United States the writings of D T Suzuki Alan Watts and members of the Beat movement the publication of Zen Mind Beginner s Mind by Shunryu Suzuki the arrival of Tibetan lamas in America and Europe and the influence of Western feminist and social justice movements on Buddhist practice This fortieth anniversary edition features both new and enhanced photographs as well as a new introduction by Fields s nephew Buddhist Studies scholar Benjamin Bogin who reflects on the impact of this book since its initial publication and addresses the significant changes in Western Buddhist practice in recent decades Northrop Frye Robert D. Denham,2004 The notebooks contents not only expand on ideas laid out in Frye s published works but also touch on subjects most readers would not associate with Frye such as his wide reading both in Eastern religious texts and in esoteric traditions ranging from astrology to the Kabbalah BOOK JACKET Zen Ritual Steven Heine,Dale S. Wright,2007-11-14 Containing 9 articles by prominent scholars about a variety of topics including Zen rituals kinhin and zazen this volume covers rituals from the early Chan period to modern Japan Each chapter covers key developments that occurred in the Linji Rinzai and Caodan Soto schools of China and Japan describing how Zen rituals mold the lives and characters of its practitioners shaping them in accordance with the ideal of Zen awakening This volume is a significant step towards placing these practices in a larger historical and analytical perspective The Asian Journal of Thomas Merton Thomas Merton,2013-08-20 This is quintessential Merton The Catholic Review The moment of takeoff was ecstatic joy We left the ground I with Christian mantras and a great sense of destiny of being at last on my true way after years of waiting and wondering With these words dated October 15 1968 the late Father Thomas Merton recorded the beginning of his fateful journey to the Orient His travels led him from Bangkok through India to Ceylon and back again to Bangkok for his scheduled talk at a conference of Asian monastic orders There he unequivocally reaffirmed his Christian vocation His last journal entry was made on December 8 1968 two days before his untimely accidental death Amply illustrated with photographs he himself took along the way and fully indexed the book also contains a glossary of Asian religious terms a preface by the Indian scholar Amiya Chakravarty a foreword and postscript by Brother Patrick Hart of the Abbey of Gethsemani as well as several appendices among them the text of Merton's final address

Time, Religion and History William Gallois, 2014-06-11 What is time How does our sense of time lead us to approach the world How did the peoples of the past view time This book answers these questions through an investigation of the cultures of time in Christianity Islam Buddhism Judaism and the Australian Dreamtime It argues that our contemporary world is blind as to the significance and complexity of time preferring to believe that time is natural and unchanging This is of critical importance to historians since the base matter of their study is time yet there is almost no theoretical literature on time in history This book offers the first detailed historiographical study of the centrality of time to human cultures It sets out the complex ways in which ideas of time developed in the major world religions and the manner in which such conceptions led people both to live in ways very different to our contemporary world and to make very different kinds of histories It goes on to argue that modern scientific descriptions of time such as Einstein's Theory of Relativity lie much closer to the complex understandings of time in religions such as Christianity than they do to our common sense notions of time which are centred on progress through a past present and future

Eihei Dogen: Mystical Realist Hee-Jin Kim, 2012-06-25 Eihei Dogen the founder of the Japanese branch of the Soto Zen Buddhist school is considered one of the world's most remarkable religious philosophers Eihei Dogen Mystical Realist is a comprehensive introduction to the genius of this brilliant thinker This thirteenth century figure has much to teach us all and the questions that drove him have always been at the heart of Buddhist practice At the age of seven in 1207 Dogen lost his mother who at her death earnestly asked him to become a monastic to seek the truth of Buddhism We are told that in the midst of profound grief Dogen experienced the impermanence of all things as he watched the incense smoke ascending at his mother's funeral service This left an indelible impression upon the young Dogen later he would emphasize time and again the intimate relationship between the desire for enlightenment and the awareness of impermanence His way of life would not be a sentimental flight from but a compassionate understanding of the intolerable reality of existence At age 13 Dogen received ordination at Mt Hiei And yet a question arose As I study both the exoteric and the esoteric schools of Buddhism they maintain that human beings are endowed with Dharma nature by birth If this is the case why did the buddhas of all ages undoubtedly in possession of enlightenment find it necessary to seek enlightenment and engage in spiritual practice When it became clear that no one on Mt Hiei could give a satisfactory answer to this spiritual problem he sought elsewhere eventually making the treacherous journey to China This was the true beginning of a life of relentless questioning practice and teaching an immensely inspiring contribution to the Buddhadharma As you might imagine a book as ambitious as Eihei Dogen Mystical Realist has to be both academically rigorous and eminently readable to succeed Professor Hee Jim Kim s work is indeed both Meditation Deane H. Shapiro,1980-03 Despite the increase in meditation studies the quality remains variable many of them are trivial and most remain unreplicated Research on meditation has been plagued by insubstantial theorizing global claims and the substitution of belief systems for grounded hypotheses Meditation punctures some of the myths about meditation while retaining a place of value for mediation as a normal human function In each chapter includes discussion of the major questions addressed followed by a detailed critique of important theoretical clinical and research issues In several instances the reader may find that questions seem to beget questions research bearing upon certain issues may be contradictory or not yet of sufficient thoroughness In these cases the author suggests the specific future research necessary to resolve the questions posed so that claims about meditation are justified and which are not The profession of psychology itself is and has been in a polarized debate between the practitioners and the experimentalists The latter accuse the former of being soft non empirical non scientific while practitioners accuse the experimentalists of conducting research which is essentially irrelevant to human concerns This approach provides a bridge between research and clinical practice Meditation provides an encompassing survey of the topic nearly forty tables and figures sample questionnaires evaluations and programs and a detailed overview of a controversial field Shapiro separates self regulation with self delusion to outline questions and possible answers
