Daughter Riveting heady glorious inspired Susan Wiggs on The Queen's Lady Muscogee Daughter Susan Supernaw, 2020-05-01 How American is Miss America For Susan Supernaw a Muscogee Creek and Munsee Native American the question wasn't just academic Throughout a childhood clouded by poverty alcoholism abuse and a physical disability Supernaw sought escape in school and dance and the Native American Church She became a presidential scholar won a scholarship to college and was crowned Miss Oklahoma in 1971 Supernaw might not have won the Miss America pageant that year but she did call attention to the Native peoples living largely invisible lives throughout their own American land And she did at long last earn her Native American name Chronicling a quest to escape poverty and find meaning Supernaw's story is revealing humorous and deeply moving Muscogee Daughter is the story of finding a Native American identity among the distractions and difficulties of American life and of discerning an identity among competing notions of what it is to be a woman a Native American and a citizen of the world The Queen's Mirror Shawn C. Jarvis, Jeannine Blackwell, 2001-01-01 This exciting and comprehensive anthology the first anthology of German women's fairy tales in English presents a variety of published and archival fairy tales from 1780 to 1900 These authors of these stories used fairy tales to explain their own lives to teach children to examine history and to critique society and the status quo Powerful and conflicted females are queens girls on quests mothers daughters magical wisewomen and midwives to the fairies they love hate murder save children fight tyranny overcome cannibals and rescue the working poor Jeannine Blackwell's introduction places the tales in their historical social and critical context and Shawn C Jarvis's afterword presents a thematic analysis of the texts and approaches to reading them in conjunction with other European and American tales Avarom and the Red Queen J. L. Stewart, 2011-11-21 By defeating three of the most dangerous thieves in the kingdom of Servitica Avarom was elected to stay on as the personal bodyguard for its ruler Queen Nakir With nowhere else to go he accepted Now war has been declared against Servitica and all her allies of the Great Lands from an unknown adversary Already these mysterious enemies are moving murderously toward the very gates of Servitica War on a grand scale is imminent And just as preparations are to be made for this campaign the Queen vanishes Chancellor Gorin who now rules Servitica has charged Avarom with murder and treason With very little to go on and a lot at stake Avarom and his appointed custodians must race against time to find those responsible for the abduction of the Queen In order to do so they will face the flesh eating demons of Ecillia the living monolith called the Miodrag the merciless blade of Kazara and the enigmatic necromancer known only as Yarum Past deeds are brought to light Centuries of lineage revealed as the fate of the Great Lands if not the world rests solely in the hands of Avarom and The Red Queen The queen's wake, a legendary poem James Hogg, 1867 Havoc in Heaven (Journey To The West Series 2) Booksea!, brings the magic of Eastern stories to every child Kids can appreciate the grand scenes of fierce fighting It allows children to learn to speak out against injustice and grow up with Sun Wukong through mistakes This picture book adaptation of the Ming Dynasty classic retells the tale in simple engaging language with beautifully illustrated

artwork It tells the story of Sun Wukong doesn't want to be a little helper in Heaven so he runs away and causes a lot of trouble What amazing things will happen next Bombay Modern Anjali Nerlekar, 2016-05-15 Anjali Nerlekar's Bombay Modern is a close reading of Arun Kolatkar's canonical poetic works that relocates the genre of poetry to the center of both Indian literary modernist studies and postcolonial Indian studies Nerlekar shows how a bilingual materialist reading of Kolatkar's texts uncovers a uniquely resistant sense of the local that defies the monolingual cultural pressures of the post 1960 years and straddles the boundaries of English and Marathi writing Bombay Modern uncovers an alternative and provincial modernism through poetry a genre that is marginal to postcolonial studies and through bilingual scholarship across English and Marathi texts a methodology that is currently peripheral at best to both modernist studies and postcolonial literary criticism in India Eschewing any attempt to define an overarching or universal modernism Bombay Modern delimits its sphere of study to Bombay and to the post 1960 the sathottari period in an attempt to examine at close range the specific way in which this poetry redeployed the regional the national and the international to create a very tangible yet transient local Killer Kitchens Jean Harrington, 2013-04-15 Book three of Murders by Design Interior designer Deva Dunne just may have hit the jackpot Sure her new client Francesco Grandese talks tough and has shady friends but he has the eye of a connoisseur and a huge empty mansion he wants her to decorate Deva's boyfriend police lieutenant Victor Rossi has misgivings about her promising job especially when he accompanies her to one of Francesco's dinner parties After Francesco returns a dish to the kitchen untasted the chauffeur promptly scarfs it down and drops dead from cyanide poisoning Has the killer made a terrible mistake and murdered the wrong person Or was the dead man the intended victim The only thing Deva knows for certain is someone present that night committed murder And it seems everyone from the dinner guests to the kitchen help has a motive 71 000 words English Legal Histories Ian Ward, 2020-01-09 English Legal Histories is an exciting and innovative approach to the study of English law Written in an accessible style intended for students as well as a broader audience it takes the reader beyond the narrower confines of legal doctrines and cases and invites them to consider the myriad contexts within which English law has been shaped the politics the economics the art the poetry Reaching from the Reformation through to the age of Reform it tells stories the histories of English law Histories of the constitution and government of crime and contracts tort and trespass property and equity Of the people who made that law those who wrote it and those who suffered it For it is in the end a human story of justice and injustice of success and failure good luck and bad The law is full of statutes and instruments cases and precedent but its history is full of people and peculiarity Which is what of course makes it so endlessly fascinating Dhvani and Epiphany: Essays in Criticism (12 Essays) Prabhaker Acharya, 2018-02-01 Dhvani and Epiphany examines the work of major Indian poets like Nissim Ezekiel and Arun Kolatkar the struggle of young poets to find an audience and the art of fiction But its main focus is on the nature of creativity How does an artist communicate his meaning What makes a work genuinely creative

Through a sensitive exploration of poetry ranging from the simple poems of a child Poorna Prajna to the complex Byzantium Poems of Yeats the first seven essays try to show how a poem comes to life when it speaks to us and we listen to its dhvani and respond Even in fiction it is not all realism There is irony in exploring the paradoxical nature of reality events taking on symbolic overtones and epiphany moments of illumination and insights when surprising correspondences are seen Writers cannot surprise and delight their audience if they themselves are not surprised and delighted by such insights

World Encyclopedia of Contemporary Theatre Arthur Holmberg, Carlos Solorzano, 2014-06-03 The second volume of the World Encyclopedia of Contemporary Theatre covers the Americas from Canada to Argentina including the United States Entries on twenty six countries are preceded by specialist introductions on Theatre in Post Colonial Latin America Theatres of North America Puppet Theatre Theatre for Young Audiences Music Theatre and Dance Theatre The essays follow the series format allowing for cross referring across subjects both within the volume and between volumes Each country entry is written by specialists in the particular country and the volume has its own teams of regional editors overseen by the main editorial team based at the University of York in Canada headed by Don Rubin Each entry covers all aspects of theatre genres practitioners writers critics and styles with bibliographies over 200 black in conjunction with the other volumes in this series it forms a reference resource of unparalleled value

The Locations of (World) Literature, 2025-02-03 Location matters for critics readers and texts This book explores the notion of location not simply as geographical historical or cultural context but as a standpoint a position an orientation a necessarily partial and particular perspective however ample it may be from which writers represent and imagine their worlds However the constraint of location in the form of a reductive geographical marker has been felt most acutely by writers of the Global South This book explores how modern and contemporary writers from Africa and South Asia consider their place in the world in world literature and in the wider geographical regions or national literary histories which their work is identified with What worlds do these literatures simultaneously inhabit and create What networks do writers and institutions specific genres and works of literature but also circuits of readership translation and publishing produce And what are the imagined or discrepant geographies the different cosmopolitanisms that may be invented in the process This ground up approach from Lagos Algier Niamey Addis Ababa or Allahabad in English and in French but also in Swahili Malayalam Amharic Urdu Arabic Persian or Pulaar can pluralize a map whose entanglements and complexities face the risk of being ironed out by reified conceptualizations of literature within global macro systems

Arun Kolatkar and Literary Modernism in India Laetitia Zecchini, 2014-07-31 In this first scholarly work on India's great modern poet Laetitia Zecchini outlines a story of literary modernism in India and discusses the traditions figures and events that inspired and defined Arun Kolatkar Based on an impressive range of archival and unpublished material this book also aims at moving lines of accepted genealogies of modernism and postcolonial literature Zecchini uncovers how poets of Kolatkar's generation became modern Indian writers while tracing a lineage to medieval oral traditions She considers how literary bilingualism allowed Kolatkar to blur the boundaries between Marathi and English Indian and Western sources how he used his outsider position to privilege the quotidian and minor and revived the spirit of popular devotion Graphic artist poet and songwriter storyteller of Bombay and world history poet in Marathi in English and in Americanese non committal and deeply political Kolatkar made lines wobble and treasured impermanence Steeped in world literature in European avant garde poetry American pop and folk culture in a little magazine Bombay bohemia and a specific Marathi ethos Kolatkar makes for a fascinating subject to explore and explain the story of modernism in India This book has received support from the labex TransferS <http://transfers.ens.fr>
