The Belladonna Elders Series 4:

Poetry After Barbarism Jennifer Scappettone, 2025-10-14 Against a backdrop of xenophobic and ethnonationalist fantasies of linguistic purity Poetry After Barbarism uncovers a stateless polyglot poetry of resistance the poetry of motherless tongues Departing from the national and global paradigms that dominate literary history Jennifer Scappettone traces the aesthetic and geopolitical resonance of xenoglossic poetics poetry composed in the space of contestation between national languages concretizing dreams of mending the ruptures traced to the story of Babel As global migration aerial bombardment and the wireless telegraph shrank distances with brute force during the twentieth century visions of transcultural communication emerged in the hopes of bridging linguistic difference At the same time evolving Fascist ideologies denied the reality of cultural admixture and the humanity of the stranger Authors who write xenoglossic verse occupy languages without a perceived birthright or sanctioned education they compose in ecstatic orphan tongues that rebuff nationalist ideologies on the one hand and globalization on the other uprooting notions of belonging ensconced in nativist metaphors of milk blood and soil while rendering the reactionary category of the barbarian obsolete Raised within or in the wake of fascism these poets practice strategic forms of literary and linguistic barbarism proposing modes of collectivity that exceed geopolitical definitions Studying experiments between languages by immigrant refugee and otherwise stateless authors from Baroness Elsa von Freytag Loringhoven to Emilio Villa Amelia Rosselli Etel Adnan LaTasha N Nevada Diggs Chika Sagawa and Sawako Nakayasu this book explores how poetry can both represent and jumpstart metamorphosis of the shape and sound of citizenship modeling paths toward alternative republics in which poetry might assume a central agency Equites : Book 4 of the Heku Series ,2010-11-03 Equites Book 4 in the Heku Series starts off with the beginnings of a war Damon and Emily are still fighting while the Equites defends itself against attacks from both the Valle and the Encala An accident sends Emily to the hospital and the tension with the Valle becomes more explosive Emily suspects the heku have a secret and will go to any measure to find out what it is She comes face to face with the darker side of the heku and quickly comes to terms with it An agricultural coven takes her in and her views of the sinister heku begin to change Emily s past with Keith comes back to haunt her and a vile attack shows the Equites how far the Valle and Encala are willing to go to gain possession of the Winchester Heirs Sam s loyalty comes into question as Emily finds a small niche out in the world with the mortals Attacks on her become more dangerous and she finds that the heku may not be as indestructible as she once thought An ultimatum is placed that could upend the entire species Recovery and Transgression Kornelia Freitag, 2015-09-04 There is no poetry without memory Recovery and Transgression Memory in American Poetry is devoted to the ways in which poetic texts shape and are shaped by personal collective and cultural memory It looks at the manifold and often transgressive techniques through which the past is recovered and repurposed in poetry T S Eliot s The Waste Land Susan Howe s THIS THAT Lyn Hejinian s Writing Is an Aid to Memory John Tranter s The Anaglyph Amiri Baraka s Somebody Blew Up America and Amy Clampitt's Nothing Stays Put are only some of the texts discussed in this volume by a group of international poetry experts. They specifically focus on the effects of the cultural interaction mixture translation and hybridization of memory of in and mediated by poetry. Poetic memory as becomes strikingly clear may be founded on the past but has everything to do with the cultural present of poets and readers and with their hopes and fears for the future.

A companion web site will present audio of each poet's work.

Calling Natasha Trethewey Mexico 1969. Why not make a fiction of the mind's fictions. I want to say it begins like this: the trip a pilgrimage, my mother kneeling at the altar of the Black Virgin, enthralled, light streaming in a window, the sun at her back, holy water in a bowl she must have touched. What's left is palimpsest, one memory bleeding into another, overwriting it. How else to explain what remains. The sound of water in a basin I know is white, the sun behind her, light streaming in her face as if she were already dead, blurred as it will become. I want to imagine her before the altar rising to meet us, my father lifting me toward her outstretched arms. What else to make of the mind's slick confabulations. What comes back is the sun's dazzle on a pool's surface, light filtered through water closing over my head, my mother her body between me and the high sun, a corona of light around her face. Why not call it a vision. What I know is this: I was drowning and saw a dark Madonna, someone pulled me through the water's bright ceiling and I rose, initiate from one life into another.
